KENNEDY IS ELECTED PRESIDENT

8 Incumbents Returned To Courthouse

Gard Loses; Van Fossan Re-Elected

Brian Is Victor For Recorder; Brokaw Receives New Term

Eight incumbents—4 Republicans and 4 Democrats—were returned to the 10 Courthouse offices at stake in Columbiana County in the general election Tuesday.

In the two posts which changed hands, Comissioner R. Max Gard of near Lisbon, a Democratic incumbent, was unseated in a four-way race and Richard G. Brian of East Liverpool, a Republican, was elected to the county recorder's office from which Mrs. Frances W. Morton of Wellsville will retire Dec. 31.

The commissioners' race, which drew top voted interest, saw Walter A. Hunston of East Palestine, a Republican incumbent, re-elected, with the second seat going to Galen Greenisen of near Salem, a Republican who formerly served eight years in the office.

They defeated Gard and Rudy Wilk of Guilford Lake, Democrat, who formerly operated the Riverview Hotel at Wellsville.

Complete but unofficial returns from the 152 precincts showed:

Greenisen	22,963
Hunston	22,692
Gard	19,047
Wilk	17,020

Another closely-watched race turned into a runaway for Sheriff Russell J. VanFossan of East Palestine, Republican, who won a second term with a margin of about 12,000 votes over the Democratic nominee, Albert E. Kittridge of East Liverpool, safety engineer for an insurance concern and formerly a local policeman.

The tabulation showed:

VanFossan	28,904
Kittridge	16,658

Prosecuting Atty. G. William Brokaw of East Liverpool, Republican, won a second term with a margin of close to 4,000 votes over his Democratic opponent, Atty. Herbert E. Arfman of Leetonia, who practices law at Salem.

The tabulation showed:

Brokaw	24,058
Arfman	20,390

Brian won the recorder's race over John E. Graham of Wellsville, Democrat, a deputy in County

Judge And Coroner Had No Opposition

They are Probate Judge Louis Tobin of East Liverpool and Dr. William A. Kolozi of Salem, coroner.

Voters gave Judge Tobin 34,224 complimentary votes and Dr. Kolozi 32,601. Judge Tobin has been on the bench about 8 years. Dr. Kolozi was appointed in 1959 to succeed the late Ernest R. Sturgis of East Liverpool.

Democrats Capture Last 2 GOP Offices In Hancock

Voting in Hancock County in Tuesday's general election was marked by a Democratic landslide as the turnout at the polls reached near a record-breaking figure, according to unofficial returns from 33 of 36 precincts.

Joseph H. Manypenny, 41-year-old New Cumberland police chief, rode the Democratic avalanche into the offfice of county sheriff to succeed Clayton H. Hobbs of Chester.

The Democrats swept to victory in all county offices, ousting two incumbent Republicans — Assessor Edward L. Suplee and County Commissioner David N. Thomas.

The Democratic candidates won other offices for prosecuting attorney and member of the House of Delegates.

Manypenny defeated his Republican opponent, Silas (Si) Boley of Weirton by an overwhelming majority of 4,000 votes in sweeping all but 4 of the county's 36 precincts.

The incomplete vote was:

Manypenny	10,539
Boley	6,075

Anthony (Tony) Leon of Weirton, a former professional football player, beat incumbent Assessor Suplee by 700 votes. Suplee was bidding for a second term.

The incomplete vote was:

Leon	8,507
Suplee	7,744

Income Tax Defeated By Big Margin

Proposal Meets With Heaviest Rejection In 3 Times At Vote

For the third time in three years, East Liverpool residents turned down a proposed municipal income tax, 5,724 against and 3,233 for, according to complete but unofficial returns from Tuesday's balloting.

It lost in every ward. It would have taxed earnings and business profits at the rate of 80 cents per $100. With steel production — and jobs — down and potteries working at a reduced rate, residents weren't having any more taxes. The margin of loss was 2,491.

Probably the final attempt for city revenue from this source, it suffered its worst defeat of the three tries since 1958. It failed by 1,900 votes in 1958 and by 1,224 in 1959.

The ward vote spelled out its rejection—First Ward, 609 for and 1,410 against; Second Ward, 1,220 for and 1,810 against; Third Ward, 593 for and 1,042 against, and Fourth Ward, 810 for and 1,466 against.

Both the Citizens' Committee, which spearheaded the proposal through the petition stage onto the ballot, and Council had prepared lists of much needed projects that might be undertaken with the proceeds.

The Citizens' Committee started action in mid-July to place the proposal before the voters for the third time. On July 21, it filed a copy of the proposed tax ordinance with City Auditor Lawrence C. Applegate. That cleared the way for circulation of petitions seeking a minimum of 870 signatures to qualify for a ballot place. The measure went onto the ballot in August.

The income tax was rejected first at the general election in 1958 and next at the November 1959 balloting.

The first vote came about in an initiative ordinance which Trades and Labor Council placed on the ballot to repeal a tax of eight-tenths of one per cent provided for in an ordinance enacted by Council to take effect May 1, 1958.

In the second instance, Trades Council filed for a referendum on another tax ordinance with a lower rate which Council enacted in the spring of 1959.

When the 1958 ordinance was enacted, Council inserted an emergency clause that precluded the possibility of a referendum. But Trades Council succeeded in winning a test at the polls by circu-

City Garbage Levy Renewed For 5 Years

The city's 2-mill garbage levy was renewed for 5 years in Tuesday's balloting, receiving a majority of 2,559.

The levy, providing funds for collection of garbage and refuse, has been on the books nearly 20 years and was renewed by a vote of 5,847 for and 3,288 against, according to complete but unofficial returns. It required only a majority for passage. It was first enacted in 1941.

President-Elect John F. Kennedy

Minnesota's Votes Clinch His Victory

Nixon Hangs On Till End In Contest With Massachusetts Rival

BULLETIN

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Minnesota gave its 11 electoral votes to Sen. John F. Kennedy today and clinched the U. S. presidency for the Massachusetts Democrat.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic Sen. John F. Kennedy inched close to the presidency today with only a tantalizing handful of electoral votes lacking for victory over Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

In a neck-and-neck popular vote race with his Republican opponent, the 43-year-old Massachusetts senator rolled up 261 electoral votes—only eight short of the needed 269—in his bid to become the youngest man and the only Roman Catholic ever elected to the nation's highest office. Nixon's count was 168.

Nearly 70 million Americans took part in the decision.

Kennedy amassed his impressive total by taking the electoral vote of 19 states and winning the support of five of Alabama's 11 electors. The state's other six were uncommitted.

But the Democratic candidate was finding Nixon a difficult man to down finally, despite the fact that the vice president all but conceded defeat in an early morning television appearance from Los Angeles.

Nixon in fact was cutting steadily into Kennedy's lead in Illinois, throwing that state's 27 electoral votes into doubt. At that point the Democratic nominee still could win with either Minnesota's 11 or California's 32. But Nixon, who was polling about 49.5 per cent of the national popular vote, was pushing Kennedy in those states, too.

President Eisenhower's first official caller today reported the President looked fine, "but he's not happy about the results of the election."

C. Burke Elbrick, U.S. ambassador to Portugal, called at the White House before departing for his post in Lisbon.

Nixon had all but conceded defeat, but had not communicated directly with the apparent victor.

Kennedy's press secretary, Pierre Salinger, said the senator was aware he had won, but it was indicated Kennedy would withhold any formal statement until he had heard from Nixon.

But Kennedy went to bed without claiming victory.

The vice president did not finally concede defeat in his post-midnight television appearance from Los Angeles. He said that if the trend of the vote count continued without significant change "Sen. Kennedy will be the next president of the United States."

West Virginia Democrats In State Sweep

Randolph, Barron Win U.S. Senate, Governor Races

CHARLESTON (AP) — Democrats won all the statewide races in Tuesday's election in West Virginia, avenging their defeat of four years ago.

Sen. John F. Kennedy carried off the state's eight electoral votes for president; Sen. Jennings Randolph was re-elected, and State Attorney General W. W. (Wally) Barron was elected governor.

Kennedy's margin over Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the Republican nominee, had passed 74,000. It was the biggest presidential edge in West Virginia since President Harry S. Truman carried the state by almost 113,000 in 1948. Even so, Kennedy failed to lead the Democratic ticket.

That honor fell to Randolph. His majority over Republican Gov. Cecil H. Underwood was past 170,000.

Underwood, who turned 38 last Saturday, is finishing a term as the youngest governor in West Virginia history and the first Republican in that office since 1929-33. Constitutionally barred from succeeding himself as governor, he challenged Randolph's bid for re-election to the Senate.

1-Mill Police Levy Adopted For St. Clair

St. Clair Township voters approved a 1-mill police protection levy by a 115-ballot margin in Tuesday's general election, according to complete but unofficial returns from the 6 precincts.

The vote for the 3-year issue, which required only a majority, was: for, 1,155, against, 1,040.

The levy will provide some $4,000 a year for salaries for 3 police constables under tentative plans of the trustees.

The police constables are receiving no township pay at present, but obtain some donations from business places and get costs from hearings.

A long-time costs system for constables, connected with justices of the peace, ended when the J.P. and constables status gave way to County Courts.

Tentative plans call for the police constables, working on a part-time basis, to receive $75 a month, but final action on the proposed program has not been taken by the trustees.

Beaver Local Levy Adopted

School Fund Issue Given Heavy Margin

A Beaver Local School District 8-mill levy for 10 years was renewed by almost a 2-to-1 margin in Tuesday's election, according to complete but unofficial returns.

The operating levy was backed by voters in the sprawling district 2,154 to 1,128. It required a majority for passage, and won in all 15 precincts.

Sub-station—for 149, against 42; Casting Club—for 269, against 166; Oak Grove—for 73, against 69; Negley—for 32, against 16; Clarkson—for 65, against 63.

Democrats Also Pick Senator In 2-County Pennsylvania Area

Beaver County Democrats helped re-elect Rep. Frank Clark of Bessemer to his fourth term for the 25th Congressional District in Tuesday's heavy turnout of voters.

Clark	101,557
Obley	72,914

Rep. Clark polled 50,527 in Beaver County to Dr. Obley's 32,209, according to the complete count of the 122 precincts.

Sen. John Carl Miller of Aliquippa, incumbent Democrat for the 47th Senatorial District, which includes Beaver and Lawrence Counties, defeated Arthur W. Pettibon of Rochester.

Miller polled 46,285 in Beaver and Pettibon 36,066. The winner's total lead was 11,712.

Their vote:

Miller	70,179
Pettibon	58,467

In the lower Beaver Valley area, which includes Midland, Charles D. Stone of Hopewell Township, incumbent, and H. Beryl Klein of Aliquippa, Democrats, defeated Alan Daniel Webb and William S. Simmons, both of Brighton Township, Republicans, for two General Assembly posts of the 2nd District.

Shorter Week For Police Set At Wellsville

Voters Also Approve Renewal Of 2 Levies But Kill Playlot Tax

A special proposal to shorten the police work week was adopted by Wellsville voters at Tuesday's election, according to complete but unofficial returns.

The voters also approved renewal of two tax levies but defeated a new half-mill playground levy by a narrow margin. All issues required a majority vote.

The initiative ordinance calls for a cut in the work week of the 7-man police department from 48 to 40 hours.

The 1.8-mill street lighting levy and the 6.6-mill school levy were renewed easily.

Wellsville police circulated petitions in July to have the initiative ordinance placed on the ballot. Officers presently work six 8-hour days. More men willl have to be added to the force to take up the "slack."

The vote was 1,618 for and 1,382 against. The proposal was promoted by the Fraternal Order of Police and Fraternal Order of Police Associates Lodges.

All 5 Questions And Beer Proposal Lose By Heavy Margins

The "dries" defeated the "wets" on the local option question in Yellow Creek Township, according to complete but unofficial returns received on Tuesday's general election.

All five of the local option questions plus the proposal on the sale of beer appeared on the ballot and were defeated by almost a 5 to 1 vote. The township already was "dry."

A total of 733 cast ballots in the township. Walter Johnson and Adam Frischkorn, both of Wellsville R. D., circulated the petitions to have the questions placed on the ballot.

Later, a committee opposing the option was formed with Paul Tal-

Lisbon Voters Reject 3-Mill Operating Levy

LISBON—Voters Tuesday turned down a new 3-mill levy to provide for current operating expenses, according to complete but unofficial returns.

The levy, which would have produced approximately $18,000 per year, for the next 3 years lost by 186 votes. A majority was needed.

The vote was 842 for and 1,028 against. Village Council agreed last summer to place the proposal on the ballot.

Officials said the money was needed to offset the loss of income when State Highway Patrol cases were taken out of the mayor's court.

For the past 6 years income from the mayor's court in fines and costs averaged $24,000. This year, income from this source is expected to be less than $5,000.

Patrol cases now are handled in County Courts.

Democrats Are Defeated

Wetzel Re-Elected, Bettis Also To Be Representative

Columbiana County Tuesday elected two Republicans to serve as state representatives in the 1961-62 biennium, naming Clarence L. (Dutch) Wetzel of Lisbon to his sixth term and giving the second seat to J. Warren Bettis of Salineville, assistant county prosecuting attorney.

Rep. Wetzel and Bettis defeated the two Democratic nominees, John H. Todd, former Lisbon mayor, and Benjamin P. Barrett, Salem High School teacher and former football coach.

The complete but unofficial tabulation showed:

Wetzel	24,290
Bettis	23,593
Barrett	18,101
Todd	17,517

2 Countians Defeated

Sargus Named As Senator; Rep. Hays Wins 7th Term

Columbiana County again failed to place a resident in the halls of Congress or the State Senate as Democrats clinched both posts, according to virtually complete returns from Tuesday's balloting.

Atty. Walter J. Hunston, Republican, of Salem lost in his bid for the 18th Congressional seat as the Democratic incumbent, Rep. Wayne L. Hays of Flushing, rolled up an overwhelming majority of 44,962 votes to win his seventh consecutive term from the 5-county district. Hays was unopposed in the May primary.

And Atty. Donald Elliott, Rogers Republican, trailed by 8,067 votes as the newly-created second senatorship in the 20th-22nd Senatorial District went to Atty. Edmund Sargus of St. Clairsville, Democrat.

Rep. Hays and Atty. Hunston were paired in 1954 with the same results as the predominantly Democratic counties of Belmont and Jefferson again favored the incumbent. Hays even carried Hunston's home county. Their total vote, with only 2 precincts unreported out of the total of 485, was:

Hays	95,067
Hunston	50,105

The vote by counties: Hays—Belmont, 26,772; Columbiana, 25,961; Carroll, 5,097; Jefferson, 32,322, and Harrison, 4,915.

Hunston—Belmont, 11,033; Columbiana, 19,696; Carroll, 3,885; Jefferson, 12,183, and Harrison, 3,308.

Atty. Sargus joins Sen. Arthur Blake, Democrat, of Martins Ferry in the Senate. Sen. Blake, serving his seventh term, has two more years to go of a four-year term. Atty. Sargus fills the new seat resulting from periodical reapportionment. The county has not had

Nixon Hangs On Till End In Contest With Massachusetts Rival

Sen. John F. Kennedy carried off the state's eight electoral votes for president; Sen. Jennings Randolph was re-elected, and State Attorney General W. W. (Wally) Barron was elected governor.

Kennedy's margin over Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the Republican nominee, had passed 74,000. It was the biggest presidential edge in West Virginia since President Harry S. Truman carried the state by almost 113,000 in 1948. Even so, Kennedy failed to lead the Democratic ticket.

That honor fell to Randolph. His majority over Republican Gov. Cecil H. Underwood was past 170,000.

Underwood, who turned 38 last Saturday, is finishing a term as the youngest governor in West Virginia history and the first Republican in that office since 1929-33. Constitutionally barred from succeeding himself as governor, he challenged Randolph's bid for re-election to the Senate.

The total vote in the governor's race between Barron and Repub-

1-Mill Police Levy Adopted For St. Clair

St. Clair Township voters approved a 1-mill police protection levy by a 115-ballot margin in Tuesday's general election, according to complete but unofficial returns from the 6 precincts.

The vote for the 3-year issue, which required only a majority, was: for, 1,155, against, 1,040.

The levy will provide some $4,000 a year for salaries for 3 police constables under tentative plans of the trustees.

The police constables are receiving no township pay at present, but obtain some donations from business places and get costs from hearings.

A long-time costs system for constables, connected with justices of the peace, ended when the J.P. and constables status gave way to County Courts.

Tentative plans call for the police constables, working on a part-time basis, to receive $75 a month, but final action on the proposed program has not been taken by the trustees.

Beaver Local Levy Adopted

School Fund Issue Given Heavy Margin

A Beaver Local School District 8-mill levy for 10 years was renewed by almost a 2-to-1 margin in Tuesday's election, according to complete but unofficial returns.

The operating levy was backed by voters in the sprawling district 2,154 to 1,128. It required a majority for passage, and won in all 15 precincts.

Calcutta Grange — for 286, against 125; Calcutta School — for 314, against 119; Yellow Creek — for 51, against 46; West Point — for 210, against 100; Saddle Club—for 191, against 94.

Sub-station—for 149, against 42; Casting Club—for 269, against 166; Oak Grove—for 73, against 69; Negley—for 32, against 16; Clarkson—for 65, against 63.

Democrats Also Pick Senator In 2-County Pennsylvania Area

Beaver County Democrats helped re-elect Rep. Frank Clark of Bessemer to his fourth term for the 25th Congressional District in Tuesday's heavy turnout of voters.

Clark	101,557
Obley	72,914

Rep. Clark polled 50,527 in Beaver County to Dr. Obley's 32,209, according to the complete count of the 122 precincts.

Sen. John Carl Miller of Aliquippa, incumbent Democrat for the 47th Senatorial District, which includes Beaver and Lawrence Counties, defeated Arthur W. Pettibon of Rochester.

Miller polled 46,285 in Beaver and Pettibon 36,066. The winner's total lead was 11,712.

Their vote:

Miller	70,179

In the lower Beaver Valley area, which includes Midland, Charles D. Stone of Hopewell Township, incumbent, and H. Beryl Klein of Aliquippa, Democrats, defeated Alan Daniel Webb and William S. Simmons, both of Brighton Township, Republicans, for two General Assembly posts of the 2nd District.

Shorter Week For Police Set At Wellsville

Voters Also Approve Renewal Of 2 Levies But Kill Playlot Tax

A special proposal to shorten the police work week was adopted by Wellsville voters at Tuesday's election, according to complete but unofficial returns.

The voters also approved renewal of two tax levies but defeated a new half-mill playground levy by a narrow margin. All issues required a majority vote.

The initiative ordinance calls for a cut in the work week of the 7-man police department from 48 to 40 hours.

The 1.8-mill street lighting levy and the 6.6-mill school levy were renewed easily.

Wellsville police circulated petitions in July to have the initiative ordinance placed on the ballot. Officers presently work six 8-hour days. More men willl have to be added to the force to take up the "slack."

The vote was 1,618 for and 1,382 against. The proposal was promoted by the Fraternal Order of Police and Fraternal Order of Police Associates Lodges.

Yellow Creek Drys Victor In Option Test

All 5 Questions And Beer Proposal Lose By Heavy Margins

The "dries" defeated the "wets" on the local option question in Yellow Creek Township, according to complete but unofficial returns received on Tuesday's general election.

All five of the local option questions plus the proposal on the sale of beer appeared on the ballot and were defeated by almost a 5 to 1 vote. The township already was "dry."

A total of 733 cast ballots in the township. Walter Johnson and Adam Frischkorn, both of Wellsville R. D., circulated the petitions to have the questions placed on the ballot.

Later, a committee opposing the option was formed with Paul Tal-

Lisbon Voters Reject 3-Mill Operating Levy

LISBON—Voters Tuesday turned down a new 3-mill levy to provide for current operating expenses, according to complete but unofficial returns.

The levy, which would have produced approximately $18,000 per year, for the next 3 years lost by 186 votes. A majority was needed.

The vote was 842 for and 1,028 against. Village Council agreed last summer to place the proposal on the ballot.

Officials said the money was needed to offset the loss of income when State Highway Patrol cases were taken out of the mayor's court.

For the past 6 years income from the mayor's court in fines and costs averaged $24,000. This year, income from this source is expected to be less than $5,000.

Patrol cases now are handled in County Courts.

Democrats Are Defeated

Wetzel Re-Elected, Bettis Also To Be Representative

Columbiana County Tuesday elected two Republicans to serve as state representatives in the 1961-62 biennium, naming Clarence L. (Dutch) Wetzel of Lisbon to his sixth term and giving the second seat to J. Warren Bettis of Salineville, assistant county prosecuting attorney.

Rep. Wetzel and Bettis defeated the two Democratic nominees, John H. Todd, former Lisbon mayor, and Benjamin P. Barrett, Salem High School teacher and former football coach.

The complete but unofficial tabulation showed:

Wetzel	24,290
Bettis	23,593
Barrett	18,101
Todd	17,517

2 Countians Defeated

Sargus Named As Senator; Rep. Hays Wins 7th Term

Columbiana County again failed to place a resident in the halls of Congress or the State Senate as Democrats clinched both posts, according to virtually complete returns from Tuesday's balloting.

Atty. Walter J. Hunston, Republican, of Salem lost in his bid for the 18th Congressional seat as the Democratic incumbent, Rep. Wayne L. Hays of Flushing, rolled up an overwhelming majority of 44,962 votes to win his seventh consecutive term from the 5-county district. Hays was unopposed in the May primary.

And Atty. Donald Elliott, Rogers Republican, trailed by 8,067 votes as the newly-created second senatorship in the 20th-22nd Senatorial District went to Atty. Edmund Sargus of St. Clairsville, Democrat.

Rep. Hays and Atty. Hunston were paired in 1954 with the same results as the predominantly Democratic counties of Belmont and Jefferson again favored the incumbent. Hays even carried Hunston's home county. Their total vote, with only 2 precincts unreported out of the total of 485, was:

Hays	95,067
Hunston	50,105

The vote by counties: Hays—Belmont, 26,772; Columbiana, 25,961; Carroll, 5,097; Jefferson, 32,322, and Harrison, 4,915.

Hunston—Belmont, 11,033; Columbiana, 19,696; Carroll, 3,885; Jefferson, 12,183, and Harrison, 3,308.

Atty. Sargus joins Sen. Arthur Blake, Democrat, of Martins Ferry in the Senate. Sen. Blake, serving his seventh term, has two more years to go of a four-year term. Atty. Sargus fills the new seat resulting from periodical reapportionment. The county has not had

Auditor Kenneth Bell's office. Operator of a men's clothing store, Brian formerly served as a county commissioner. Mrs. Morton voluntarily gave up the office when she did not file for re-election. She has been a Courthouse employe 30 years.

The tabulation showed:

Brian	23,628
Graham	19,997

Treasurer Vincent C. Judge of Lisbon, Democrat, rolled up a margin of nearly 12,000 votes in his bid for a new term, defeating Mrs. H. Joan Dixon of near Lisbon, the Republican nominee. Mrs. Dixon is a former employe of the treasurer's and auditor's offices in the Courthouse.

The totals are:

Judge	28,485
Dixon	16,752

Clerk of Courts Carl L. Stacey of Columbiana, Democrat, rolled up nearly as wide a margin in winning his first full term, defeating Charles H. Brant, former East Palestine councilman who was the GOP nominee.

Stacey	26,691
Brant	17,916

County Engineer Charles O. Snyder of Salem, Republican, was returned to office, defeating John Ursu of Salem, the first Democratic candidate for the post in 24 years.

Snyder	24,934
Ursu	19,368

In the commissioner's race, Hunston and Wilk carried East Liverpool. The 32 city precincts gave: Wilk, 4,047; Hunston, 4,081; Greenisen, 3,666, and Gard, 3,920.

Although he's a native son, the city gave Brokaw a margin of only 300 over Arfman. The count showed 4,576 for Brokaw and 4,275 for Arfman. Stacey carried East Liverpool handily in the court clerk race, polling 5,144 to the 3,545 given Brant.

Kittridge carried his home town by a margin of about 400 over VanFossan in the sheriff's race. East Liverpool gave Kittridge 4,646 to VanFossan's 4,261. Brian was given 4,559 in East Liverpool in the recorder's race, while Graham received 4,200.

Judge rolled up 5,695 in East Liverpool in the treasurer's race, compared to 3,033 given Mrs. Dixon. Snyder barely carried East Liverpool in the engineer's contest. He was given 4,301 to the 4,205 received by Ursu.

The 16 Wellsville area precincts gave Wilk 2,463 in the commissioner's race, with 1,682 for Hunston; 1,577 for Greenisen and 2,138 for Gard. In the same race, the 25 Salem area precincts cast 4,973 for Greenisen, with 3,298 for Gard, 3,477 for Hunston and 2,891 for Wilk.

The East Palestine area's 13 precincts cast 2,922 for Hunston, with 975 for Wilk; 1,944 for Greenisen and 1,562 for Gard. In the Lisbon area's 13 precincts, the count was: Gard, 1,596; Greenisen, 2,010; Hunston, 2,039, and Wilk, 1,235. Salineville's 6 precincts showed: Gard, 528; Greenisen, 679; Hunston, 706, and Wilk, 552.

In the prosecutor's race, the Wellsville area gave Arfman 2,378 to 2,000 for Brokaw. Salem cast 3,792 for Arfman and 4,020 for Brokaw. East Palestine favored Brokaw, 2,248 to 1,712. Salineville gave Brokaw 786 and Arfman 557. At Lisbon, Brokaw received 2,240 to the 1,437 given Arfman.

Salem cast 4,878 for Stacey and 2,902 for Brant. Brant barely carried East Palestine — 2,097 to 2,008. Columbiana gave Stacey 2,124 to 1,174 for Brant. Salineville favored Stacey, 781 to 566.

In the sheriff's race, Wellsville cast 2,362 for VanFossan to the 2,085 given Kittridge. Salem showed 5,266 for VanFossan and 2,666 for Kittridge. In East Palestine, VanFossan rolled up 3,394 to the 839 given Kittridge. At Lisbon, the incumbent polled 2,757 to the 1,013 given his Democratic opponent.

In the recorder's race, Graham rolled up 3,033 at Wellsville against 1,407 given Brian. Salem polled 4,306 for Brian and 3,212 for Graham. East Palestine gave Brian 2,334 and Graham 1,513. At Lisbon, Brian received 2,159 to Graham's 1,438. Salineville gave Brian 663 and Graham 641. Columbiana showed 2,009 for Brian and 1,054 for Graham.

In the treasurer's race, Judge rolled up 3,092 at Wellsville, against 1,318 for Mrs. Dixon. Salem gave Judge 5,455 to Mrs. Dixon's 2,632. Lisbon cast 1,747 for Mrs. Dixon and 2,014 for Judge. Salinevillle cast 612 for Mrs. Dixon and 754 for Judge.

In the engineer's race, Wellsville showed 2,275 for Ursu and 2,043 for Snyder. Salem gave Snyder 4,182 and Ursu 3,791. East Palestine gave Snyder 2,528 and Ursu 1,402. In Lisbon,, Snyder polled 2,363 to the 1,344 given Ursu. Salineville gave Snyder 809 and Ursu 579.

The committee pointed out that the sale of liquor, beer and wine would not return any net revenue to the township and also hit at the possibility of having "drunken drivers" in the township area.

This is the second time the local option question has been defeated in Yellow Creek Township. The beer question cannot be voted on again in less than three years and the liquor question must stand as voted for at least four years.

The vote on each question follows:

Sale of any intoxicating liquor:
Yes, 116, No, 598.

Yes, 112, No, 595.

Yes, 110, No, 593.

Sale of spirituous liquors by the glass:
Yes, 109, No, 594.

State liquor stores for the sale by the package, for consumption off the premises where sold:
Yes, 115, No, 592.

Sale of beer:
Yes, 120, No, 593.

Police Levy Loses In Yellow Creek Vote

Yellow Creek Township voters defeated a new five-tenths-mill levy to pay for police constable protection by a large margin at Tuesday's general election, according to complete but unofficial returns.

The levy was to have lasted three years and required a majority vote. The vote was 226 for the levy and 467 against.

Kennedy Nearing Victory; Needs 8 Electoral Votes

Mrs. Nixon, fighting to hold back the tears, stood at his side as the Republican candidate smilingly thanked those who had worked for him in the feverish day-and-night campaigning that ended for both candidates with Tuesday's record balloting.

Nixon said he wanted Kennedy to know that if he does become president "he will have my wholehearted support."

At Hyannis Port, Mass., Kennedy avoided making any statement on the returns. They showed him with a narrow popular vote lead over Nixon. But there was a possibility he would wind up with substantially more than the 269 electoral votes needed to make him the fourth Democratic president of the 20th century.

Associated Press nationwide returns at 5 a.m., Eastern Standard Time, from 126,092 of 166,094 voting units:

Kennedy 27,453,968 (50.7 per cent).

Nixon 26,649,988 (49.3 per cent).

The Democratic candidate had won or led in 23 states with 331 electoral votes. The vice president had won or was ahead in 26 states with 192 electoral votes. Mississippi gave its eight votes to unpledged electors.

At 5:30 a.m. EST Kennedy had rolled up a total of 255 of the 269 electoral votes needed for victory.

Kennedy, who campaigned on the theme that the country had lost prestige abroad and had stood still at home under the Eisenhower administration, carved out his apparent victory in the larger industrial states.

Of the biggest seven, he won or led in New York, California, Michigan, Illinois, Pennsylvania and Texas. Only Ohio out of this group favored Nixon.

Republicans picked up two seats in the Senate, with victories over Democratic opponents in Delaware and Wyoming. With only the Democratic seat in Montana in doubt, the Senate lineup stood: 63 Democrats, 36 Republicans.

With 53 House races still in doubt, Republicans had made a net gain of 14 to push their total to 144 against the Democrats' 239.

In 27 governor races, Democrats had elected 12, for a net gain of three. Republicans had elected nine and six races remained in doubt.

There was nothing very consistent about the election results. Kennedy carried his home state of Massachusetts impressively but GOP Sen. Leverett Saltonstall was re-elected and a Republican, John A. Volpe, was elected governor.

In several states where Nixon held the lead over Kennedy, Democrats either had been elected or were leading for governor. These included Indiana, Wisconsin, Nebraska and South Dakota.

President Eisenhower called the Cabinet into session today to study the question of how to accomplish the transition of government to a new president next Jan. 20.

The presidential race was a seesaw battle as the vote count proceeded during the night. Nixon jumped into an early lead, as first returns came in from states favoring him. Then Kennedy forged ahead to hold a lead through the night.

Kennedy lopped off Connecticut early, a performance that had been forecast. But his margin there was larger than even the Democrats had forecast. It set the pattern for the hop-skip-and-jump margins he rolled up across the country, with New York's 45 electoral votes as his principal prize.

Kennedy lost areas in the South and border states where his Roman Catholic religion had been expected to be costly to him. Florida, Kentucky, Tennessee and Oklahoma went against him. Sen. Harry F. Byrd, who took no position in the presidential contest, helped give Virginia to Nixon.

But, surprisingly, Kennedy salvaged South Carolina, which the Republicans confidently had been claiming, and North Carolina, which Nixon personally believed he had a better than even chance to carry.

The Democratic candidate carried the heavily Protestant state of West Virginia, where he got his big surge toward his party's nomination by winning a May primary.

The impact of Kennedy's Catholicism was not difficult to discern. He won in many areas where the Catholic vote was heaviest, in such states as Connecticut, Massachusetts and Rhode Island. He won in key industrial states, where the Catholic vote also was heavy. Those were the states in which the electoral votes were largest.

Kennedy lost in other areas of fundamentalist Protestant belief. These included Kentucky, Tennessee and Oklahoma. He also lost in the midwestern farm belt, where his religion may have been a more potent factor than his former espousal—and subsequent rejection—of the policies of GOP Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson.

Kennedy would have no mandate so far as Congress was concerned. The Republicans appeared on the way to gaining a few seats in the House and a couple in the Senate.

On the basis of incomplete tabulations, Kennedy had won or was leading in the following 23 states: Alabama, Alaska, Arkansas, California, Connecticut, Delaware, Georgia, Illinois, Louisiana, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nevada, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Texas and West Virginia.

Nixon won or was leading in the following 26 states: Arizona, Colorado, Florida, Hawaii, Idaho, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Maine, Montana, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Mexico, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, South Dakota, Tennessee, Utah, Vermont, Virginia, Washington, Wisconsin, Wyoming.

Yankee outfield prospect Don Lock set an Eastern League record last season with 35 home runs for Binghamton, N. Y. The old mark of 28 was set by Rocky Colavito in 1953.

Hunston Gets New Term; Greenisen's In

Auditor Kenneth Bell's office. Operator of a men's clothing store, Brian formerly served as a county commissioner. Mrs. Morton voluntarily gave up the office when she did not file for re-election. She has been a Courthouse employe 30 years.

The tabulation showed:

Brian	23,628
Graham	19,997

Treasurer Vincent C. Judge of Lisbon, Democrat, rolled up a margin of nearly 12,000 votes in his bid for a new term, defeating Mrs. H. Joan Dixon of near Lisbon, the Republican nominee. Mrs. Dixon is a former employe of the treasurer's and auditor's offices in the Courthouse.

The totals are:

Judge	28,485
Dixon	16,752

Clerk of Courts Carl L. Stacey of Columbiana, Democrat, rolled up nearly as wide a margin in winning his first full term, defeating Charles H. Brant, former East Palestine councilman who was the GOP nominee.

The tabulation shows:

Stacey	26,691
Brant	17,916

County Engineer Charles O. Snyder of Salem, Republican, was returned to office, defeating John Ursu of Salem, the first Democratic candidate for the post in 24 years.

The unofficial totals show:

Snyder	24,934
Ursu	19,368

In the commissioner's race, Hunston and Wilk carried East Liverpool. The 32 city precincts gave: Wilk, 4,047; Hunston, 4,081; Greenisen, 3,666, and Gard, 3,920.

Although he's a native son, the city gave Brokaw a margin of only 300 over Arfman. The count showed 4,576 for Brokaw and 4,275 for Arfman. Stacey carried East Liverpool handily in the court clerk race, polling 5,144 to the 3,545 given Brant.

Kittridge carried his home town by a margin of about 400 over VanFossan in the sheriff's race. East Liverpool gave Kittridge 4,646 to VanFossan's 4,261. Brian was given 4,559 in East Liverpool in the recorder's race, while Graham received 4,200.

Judge rolled up 5,695 in East Liverpool in the treasurer's race, compared to 3,033 given Mrs. Dixon. Snyder barely carried East Liverpool in the engineer's contest. He was given 4,301 to the 4,205 received by Ursu.

The 16 Wellsville area precincts gave Wilk 2,463 in the commissioner's race, with 1,682 for Hunston; 1,577 for Greenisen and 2,138 for Gard. In the same race, the 25 Salem area precincts cast 4,973 for Greenisen, with 3,298 for Gard, 3,477 for Hunston and 2,891 for Wilk.

The East Palestine area's 13 precincts cast 2,922 for Hunston, with 975 for Wilk; 1,944 for Greenisen and 1,562 for Gard. In the Lisbon area's 13 precincts, the count was: Gard, 1,596; Greenisen, 2,010; Hunston, 2,039, and Wilk, 1,235. Salineville's 6 precincts showed: Gard, 528; Greenisen, 679; Hunston, 706, and Wilk, 552.

In the prosecutor's race, the Wellsville area gave Arfman 2,378 to 2,000 for Brokaw. Salem cast 3,792 for Arfman and 4,020 for Brokaw. East Palestine favored Brokaw, 2,248 to 1,712. Salineville gave Brokaw 786 and Arfman 557. At Lisbon, Brokaw received 2,240 to the 1,437 given Arfman.

In the clerk of courts race, Wellsville supported Stacey with 2,944 against 1,431 given Brant.

Salem cast 4,878 for Stacey and 2,902 for Brant. Brant barely carried East Palestine — 2,097 to 2,008. Columbiana gave Stacey 2,124 to 1,174 for Brant. Salineville favored Stacey, 781 to 566.

In the sheriff's race, Wellsville cast 2,362 for VanFossan to the 2,085 given Kittridge. Salem showed 5,266 for VanFossan and 2,666 for Kittridge. In East Palestine, VanFossan rolled up 3,394 to the 839 given Kittridge. At Lisbon, the incumbent polled 2,757 to the 1,013 given his Democratic opponent.

In the recorder's race, Graham rolled up 3,033 at Wellsville against 1,407 given Brian. Salem polled 4,306 for Brian and 3,212 for Graham. East Palestine gave Brian 2,334 and Graham 1,513. At Lisbon, Brian received 2,159 to Graham's 1,438. Salineville gave Brian 663 and Graham 641. Columbiana showed 2,009 for Brian and 1,054 for Graham.

In the treasurer's race, Judge rolled up 3,092 at Wellsville, against 1,318 for Mrs. Dixon. Salem gave Judge 5,455 to Mrs. Dixon's 2,632. Lisbon cast 1,747 for Mrs. Dixon and 2,014 for Judge. Salinevillle cast 612 for Mrs. Dixon and 754 for Judge.

In the engineer's race, Wellsville showed 2,275 for Ursu and 2,043 for Snyder. Salem gave Snyder 4,182 and Ursu 3,791. East Palestine gave Snyder 2,528 and Ursu 1,402. In Lisbon,, Snyder polled 2,363 to the 1,344 given Ursu. Salineville gave Snyder 809 and Ursu 579.

bott serving as chairman of the East Precinct and Herbert Frischkorn heading the West Precinct.

The committee pointed out that the sale of liquor, beer and wine would not return any net revenue to the township and also hit at the possibility of having "drunken drivers" in the township area.

This is the second time the local option question has been defeated in Yellow Creek Township. The beer question cannot be voted on again in less than three years and the liquor question must stand as voted for at least four years.

The vote on each question follows:

Sale of any intoxicating liquor:
Yes, 116, No, 598.

Sale of wine by the package for consumption off the premises where sold:
Yes, 112, No, 595.

Sale of wine for consumption on and off the premises where sold:
Yes, 110, No, 593.

Sale of spirituous liquors by the glass:
Yes, 109, No, 594.

State liquor stores for the sale by the package, for consumption off the premises where sold:
Yes, 115, No, 592.

Sale of beer:
Yes, 120, No, 593.

Police Levy Loses In Yellow Creek Vote

Yellow Creek Township voters defeated a new five-tenths-mill levy to pay for police constable protection by a large margin at Tuesday's general election, according to complete but unofficial returns.

The levy was to have lasted three years and required a majority vote. The vote was 226 for the levy and 467 against.

Mrs. Nixon, fighting to hold back the tears, stood at his side as the Republican candidate smilingly thanked those who had worked for him in the feverish day-and-night campaigning that ended for both candidates with Tuesday's record balloting.

Nixon said he wanted Kennedy to know that if he does become president "he will have my wholehearted support."

At Hyannis Port, Mass., Kennedy avoided making any statement on the returns. They showed him with a narrow popular vote lead over Nixon. But there was a possibility he would wind up with substantially more than the 269 electoral votes needed to make him the fourth Democratic president of the 20th century.

Associated Press nationwide returns at 5 a.m., Eastern Standard Time, from 126,092 of 166,094 voting units:

Kennedy 27,453,968 (50.7 per cent).

Nixon 26,649,988 (49.3 per cent).

The Democratic candidate had won or led in 23 states with 331 electoral votes. The vice president had won or was ahead in 26 states with 192 electoral votes. Mississippi gave its eight votes to unpledged electors.

At 5:30 a.m. EST Kennedy had rolled up a total of 255 of the 269 electoral votes needed for victory.

Kennedy, who campaigned on the theme that the country had lost prestige abroad and had stood still at home under the Eisenhower administration, carved out his apparent victory in the larger industrial states.

Of the biggest seven, he won or led in New York, California, Michigan, Illinois, Pennsylvania and Texas. Only Ohio out of this group favored Nixon.

Republicans picked up two seats in the Senate, with victories over Democratic opponents in Delaware and Wyoming. With only the Democratic seat in Montana in doubt, the Senate lineup stood: 63 Democrats, 36 Republicans.

With 53 House races still in doubt, Republicans had made a net gain of 14 to push their total to 144 against the Democrats' 239.

In 27 governor races, Democrats had elected 12, for a net gain of three. Republicans had elected nine and six races remained in doubt.

There was nothing very consistent about the election results. Kennedy carried his home state of Massachusetts impressively but GOP Sen. Leverett Saltonstall was re-elected and a Republican, John A. Volpe, was elected governor.

In several states where Nixon held the lead over Kennedy, Democrats either had been elected or were leading for governor. These included Indiana, Wisconsin, Nebraska and South Dakota.

President Eisenhower called the Cabinet into session today to study the question of how to accomplish the transition of government to a new president next Jan. 20.

The presidential race was a seesaw battle as the vote count proceeded during the night. Nixon jumped into an early lead, as first returns came in from states favoring him. Then Kennedy forged ahead to hold a lead through the night.

Kennedy lopped off Connecticut early, a performance that had been forecast. But his margin there was larger than even the Democrats had forecast. It set the pattern for the hop-skip-and-jump margins he rolled up across the country, with New York's 45 electoral votes as his principal prize.

Kennedy lost areas in the South and border states where his Roman Catholic religion had been expected to be costly to him. Florida, Kentucky, Tennessee and Oklahoma went against him. Sen. Harry F. Byrd, who took no position in the presidential contest, helped give Virginia to Nixon.

But, surprisingly, Kennedy salvaged South Carolina, which the Republicans confidently had been claiming, and North Carolina, which Nixon personally believed he had a better than even chance to carry.

The Democratic candidate carried the heavily Protestant state of West Virginia, where he got his big surge toward his party's nomination by winning a May primary.

The impact of Kennedy's Catholicism was not difficult to discern. He won in many areas where the Catholic vote was heaviest, in such states as Connecticut, Massachusetts and Rhode Island. He won in key industrial states, where the Catholic vote also was heavy. Those were the states in which the electoral votes were largest.

Kennedy lost in other areas of fundamentalist Protestant belief. These included Kentucky, Tennessee and Oklahoma. He also lost in the midwestern farm belt, where his religion may have been a more potent factor than his former espousal—and subsequent rejection—of the policies of GOP Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson.

Kennedy would have no mandate so far as Congress was concerned. The Republicans appeared on the way to gaining a few seats in the House and a couple in the Senate.

Nixon won or was leading in the following 26 states: Arizona, Colorado, Florida, Hawaii, Idaho, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Maine, Montana, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Mexico, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, South Dakota, Tennessee, Utah, Vermont, Virginia, Washington, Wisconsin, Wyoming.

Yankee outfield prospect Don Lock set an Eastern League record last season with 35 home runs for Binghamton, N. Y. The old mark of 28 was set by Rocky Colavito in 1953.

In America, Majority Can't Be Wrong

Behind the admonition from newspapers, television networks, radio stations and many other sources to go to the polls and vote on Election Day is a great and fundamental truth about our kind of government.

In America, a majority can't be wrong.

It can go contrary to precedent.

It can upset custom.

It can cut across the grain of tradition.

It can make a decision with revolutionary effect.

It can start down the road to ruin, if it chooses.

But it can't be wrong.

THIS WAS a startling concept in 1776 and in 1789, when popular sovereignty was written into the Constitution. It was so startling that it was kept at arm's length for many years after self-government got under way.

Even free Americans did not have that much confidence in the credo of majority rule.

But without confidence, majority rule is a mockery. It is as if government by the people had been made conditional on the way the people governed themselves—popular freedom with strings attached.

That's not the way it is. The people's sovereignty in America is absolute. It is not limited. No one can have confidence in America until he has convinced himself that the people, themselves, are its best guarantee of sound judgment and decent dealing.

AMERICANS HAVE built their confidence in eventual world stability on majority rule and the sovereignty of the people. If all people everywhere had the advantages of majority rule, there would be nothing to fear.

The people never would vote to destroy themselves. They would not kill one another in wars. They would not try to terrorize one another. They would not tolerate brutality and injustice.

There is nothing more dependable in the affairs of men than the judgment of a freely informed majority.

The election has come and gone. Whether your man won or lost, accept the results. A majority of Americans can't be wrong.

Nationalism Can't Cure Everything

Tribalism in the United States is concealed beneath so many different names and practiced in so many different forms no one thinks of it as a special problem here.

But in Africa, where it is called by its right name and practiced in a standard form, it has turned into the most bothersome problem plaguing nationalists striving to bestow this blessing of the enlightened world on the initiates of the Dark Continent.

They don't understand what it is to be a nation. It is something they never knew about in Africa — a foreign concept. They have had no national languages, only tribal languages. Their arts, social customs, family life, religion and group security have been tribal, not national.

Consequently, when new leaders talk to them about their obligations as members of a nation they are as puzzled as deep southerners in America who are urged to put segregation behind them for the sake of the nation.

With southerners segregation is a tribal prerogative, as prudence is with the pure strain of New Englanders. It is as sacred to their folkways as not sending children to public school is to the Amish, or as playing with snakes is to primitive religionists in West Virginia.

There is, in the United States, one large tribal group based on common interest in agriculture — the farm bloc. There is an oil tribe, worshipping a common fetish called "depletion allowance." There are workers who are bound together by zeal for protection, in the same way that there used to be managers who worshipped no god but Tar-Iff, the high one.

There are tribal groups held together by interest in war — the veterans. Then atop everything else there are as many racial minorities as there are races, plus color groups, plus religionists, plus two great tribes known as Democrats and Republicans.

Nationalism? The good of the whole, as opposed to the good of its separate parts? It isn't only Africans who have trouble separating the parts from the sum of the parts. It isn't only on the Dark Continent that the shadows of tribalism fall.

The Once Over

Dr. Able Wolman of Johns Hopkins tells tells American Public Health convention that destruction of green acres in frantic rush for superdooper highways and suburban building projects may be partly responsible for much low grade human behavior by old and young.

"Perhaps the engineer who plows under vast green areas for super highways and piles brick on acres devastated by bulldozers are as destructive to man as was Typhoid Mary," he said.

The man has something there. Bulldozers are doing acrobatic tricks with hills and dales, slugging through the old, fishing ponds and making the open fields take a 10-count. The cool meadow and the old swimmin' hole are taking a beating.

Dr. Wolman might put it this way:—

I

Men make roads quite frantically,
And how they hate to spare a tree!
A lovely farm they hoot and jeer
And make each trout brook disappear;
A rural road quite sanctified
Is battered, bashed and shoved aside.

II

The swimmin' hole was there last night-
It's now a supermarket site!
The pond which once kept kids from crime
Is filled to cut down truck line time;
Each barefoot boy with cheeks aglow
Wears shoes where those new thruways go;
His lips if they are redder still,
Ain't kissed by strawberries on the hill;
(The hill now has a toll gate vast

III

Cheerily, then, my little man
Live by each day's new super plan:
Every morn shall see thee through Projects whose appeals are few;
Every evening from your feet
Shall you shake the asphalt's heat;
(If you find one scene of joy,
Grab it swiftly, barefoot boy!)

Union men may become the only folks who can keep healthy at present medical costs and still remain solvent. Some 30 labor unions are opening their own chain of drugstores to provide medicines at lower costs. They say it can be done through quantity buying, cheaper packaging, tight economies and putting less money into lunchcounter salads, dog toys, perfumes, birthday cards, "whodunit" magazines and nut sundaes.

The average man getting prescription from his doctor may say, "All I need now is a union button and maybe I can afford to get this filled."

It will seem odd to go to a drugstore for a capsule and be asked "Have you a union card or are you sick while unaffiliated with any labor group?"

A chain of drugstores can make nonunion sick folks pretty jealous and cause them to organize the White Collar Apothecary Shops and Community League Cut-Rate Drugstores, through which to cure their aches and pains for less money.

Prices asked for new drugs are admittedly so high that the sick have to hock their furniture to pay drugstore bills but druggists say manufacturers are responsible.

They will fight union cut-rate chain as unfair competition and point out that such pharmacies could drive others out of business and create neighborhoods where only a union drugstores, serving union members, could survive.

Labor unions are also considering drug insurance among the line of hospital insurance. After this maybe the union will operate chain of doctors' offices.

Mob Cracks Down On Its Own

By Victor Riesel

Little noticed — or mourned — by a less affluent society a pleasantly increasing number of crime combine hoods are disappearing or turning up badly bruised. Among syndicate citizenry missing from their usual shakedown routes are some who until recently were assigned to the invasion of the labor movement. Of course, no one really knows why the mob is cracking down on its own with such grim intensity now. To each its own.

Victor Riesel

Even "informed circles" are guessing — but theirs is an educated guess. They say the directors of the syndicated crime baronies are deeply concerned over a new tactic developed by U.S. Attorney General William Rogers and his Criminal Division chief, Malcolm Wilkey.

The department has created a network of 82 U.S. attorneys who are experts in syndicated crime. Twenty six of these specialists operate as a unit in the Justice Department's national headquarters.

This selected group has a daring and unprecedented task beset described by Mr. Rogers himself: ". . . (they are) engaged in the continuous analysis of the vulnerable points in the lifetime careers of over 250 known racketeers in the U.S."

WORKING on the personal histories of the men who make up the hierarchy of the world's only organized criminal syndicate are the agents of the FBI, the Narcotics Bureaus, the Internal Revenue Service, the Immigration and Naturalization Service, the Custom Service and even the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Unit of the Treasury Department.

This puts at the disposal of the selected 26 the knowledge of some 10,000 special agents.

Not only are the hood's past lives an open book, but the most powerful mob leadership can't make a move now in any one of several score cities without being under surveillance of federal agents. These investigators also work with another band of organized crime specialists.

This second group inside the Justice Department is made up of 56 men "specially designated to concentrate full or part time on organized crime in the various districts."

They usually are assistants to regional U.S. attorneys who now are under directives to devote a "substantial part" of their time to the crime magnates — a word advisedly used.

However, this heat is beginning to melt some of the steel nerves and the boys are policing themselves more carefully now. They want no one stepping out of line or creating an incident.

THE RECORDS show that at least 50 of the 100 top national criminal leaders are in prison or have been convicted and are out on appeal or are under indictment.

It was 2½ years ago that the Justice Department announced it would get the entire 100 and then go after another big batch.

On the industrial front, the casualties for the mob have been heavy, too. The men sent into the labor movement by the syndicate are, of course, lesser lights more easily put out.

But the Justice Department record is good — 148 convictions have been won in the past seven years.

These prosecutions have come under the Taft-Hartley law and the anti-terror and anti-extortion Hobbs Act.

In addition, the Justice Department has used the FBI to run down McClellan committee leads. This has brought 12 convictions and "18 pending indictments."

Also there were 18 convictions of labor officials on income tax charges including fraud and evasion.

It's slow work. But it slows down the invasion of the labor movement. It delays the spread of rotten boroughs in which the rank-and-file is exploited and sold out.

These are the fortified points from which the mob combines and private crooks conspire against vast national unions.

Hatful Of Explanations

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

A hatful of explanations are mixed up in Sen. John F. Kennedy's apparent victory over Vice President Richard M. Nixon in Tuesday's presidential election.

They range from the personal and political to television and tactics. At least the results seemed to explode the myth that a Roman Catholic couldn't be elected president.

1. The close vote showed what had been apparent throughout the campaign. There was no overwhelming enthusiasm for either man. The choice was between two men rather than between two parties.

But that the voters could and did choose sharply between parties was demonstrated by the results in the congressional races.

For the 13th time in the 15 elections since 1932 for House and Senate the Democrats were given control of Congress.

2. The congressional results indicate that if Kennedy had been a Republican he might have been whipped. For this reason: He probably benefited from voters who saw little to choose between him and Nixon but cast a straight Democratic ballot.

3. Something in Nixon's makeup hurt him. In an almost mystical way some voters said they were picking Kennedy because "I don't like Nixon" although when asked why they couldn't say.

4. Nixon undoubtedly got some benefit from being associated with President Eisenhower and his administration but it also handicaped him.

Because he had been part of it he couldn't be critical of it, even if he had wanted to. He defended the administration, and couldn't go much beyond its performance and programs in offering ideas of his own.

He was handcuffed in another way too. While Kennedy could offer unhindered and apparently popular liberal programs and promises, Nixon had to worry about pleasing both the liberal and conservative wings of his party.

This left him in the middle.

5. This middle position—which meant restraint in promises — allowed Kennedy to appear more farseeing, more earnest about the future, more on the move. Kennedy jibed at him for his middle ground role.

6. TV played an enormous part in the campaign since it gave the voters a chance to see the two candidates side by side, to examine their minds at work, and to form close-up impressions of both.

7. Nixon pulled a political boner in appearing with Kennedy of TV and debating him. Nixon, because of his seven years with the Eisenhower administration, was known in every home.

Kennedy, outside his own Massachusetts, was a comparative unknown. But in the very first debate he not only landed side by side with Nixon in 70 million homes but, many thought, had much the better of it.

He became known across the land overnight.

8. Kennedy—with his more liberal programs of medical care for the aged, federal help with teachers' pay, a higher minimum wage —was able to appeal to groups whom the more restrained Nixon couldn't reach.

9. The business slump was perhaps a factor. Last April, long before the campaign, Nixon let it be known that if there was an economic downturn by election day he didn't think the Republicans could win. It did turn down.

10. Nixon, long billed as a great debater, turned out to be more of an arguer. It worked to his disadvantage. In his incessant attempts to tear Kennedy down he helped build him up.

11. Kennedy, by preserving an even tone and temper, presented an image of himself as a man both serious and reliable. Nixon, self-consciously, played up to the listeners.

In his efforts to sound homey he frequently reduced his statements to the teen-age level, an effort which Nixon seemed to forget might offend many intelligent people. But, as he said, he didn't think most people paid attention to details.

Mr. K's Next Move

By David Lawrence

Soviet Marked Time In U.S. Campaign

Now that the American election campaign is over, the issue of peace or war becomes paramount in the world today. The Soviet Union has been waiting for the outcome of the campaign to determine just what its next move will be.

David Lawrence

The theory of the Soviets is that basically the West is disunited and militarily unprepared for the kind of "limited war," rather than nuclear war, which Moscow would risk.

There are plenty of issues on which a crisis can be built. The status of West Berlin is one of them. It has always been felt here that when the next big break came between the East and West, the Soviets would simultaneously step up their activities, not only in the Far East and Africa, but in Cuba and Latin America, so as to provide the maximum amount of embarrassment for the United States and its allies.

The Soviet strategy, of course, has been developed in what is known as the "cold war" as a means of securing Communist objectives without taking the risk of military action.

The idea is to bluff the West into making concessions, on the theory that the western alliance will give in rather than allow even a "limited war" to be brought on.

THE SITUATION in the West gradually deteriorated in the last few months. Perhaps the biggest single encouragement that has been given the Soviets is what has taken place in Great Britain, where the British Labor party is split wide open.

One faction is insistent that bases not be granted to the United States in Europe. The other is standing by America but indications are that the so-called "left wing" is making progress by appealing to the pacifist sentiments.

The situation in Italy is still one of irreconcilable conflict between the Communists and anti-Communists but perhaps the biggest gains have been made by the Communists throughout Latin America.

THE BIG QUESTION mark, however, is what will the United States do about it all?

Both candidates in the presidential campaign promised a more vigorous assertion of American policy. But the details were not spelled out.

Both nominees indicated that they would like to talk further with Nikita Khrushchev. This has been interpreted abroad as meaning that there will be more and more parleys before the real crisis will develop. The time will come, however, when Premier Khrushchev will decide to test American's resolution and the effectiveness of its leadership in the world.

The climax is not expected to come at once but certainly within the next year the people of the United States will have to make up their minds whether they wish to prepare for real sacrifices and face sternly the Communist threat, or whether they want to drift along with more and more conferences that in the end will inevitably mean demands for greater and greater concessions.

It was this process of frequent conferences and steadily increasing concessions that encouraged Hitler to believe that the West wouldn't fight.

Without doing any sabre-rattling and without taking any provocative steps, the United States will be obliged to indicate in no uncertain terms that it will fight if necessary for the protection of the whole western alliance, including Berlin.

THE HOPE of Moscow has been that the presidential election would muddy the waters, produce vacillation in American policy and ultimately a retreat in the face of growing demands by the Soviet government.

With the election campaign over, there will be less partisanship exhibited in the United States and a tendency to unite ranks behind the government's policy. But the pressures of the pacifist elements and the appeasers, who believe that by more conferences war can be avoided, will continue, while in Moscow efforts will be intensified to bear down more and more heavily on the West in the belief that big gains for the Soviets can be made through such maneuvers.

So far as a nuclear war is concerned, the belief is growing that neither side would wish to use nuclear weapons and that a so-called "limited war" is more likely to ensue.

The Soviet theory, of course, is that the Communist regime can stand such a war much more readily than can the national economy of each of the Western countries.

Now that the American election is over, the Soviet policy will tend to become clearer. If ever in history there were a need for maximum alertness during so-called peacetime, it will be in the next few months.

Market Marks Time

By Sam Dawson

NEW YORK (AP) — Businessmen are sizing up the election results today. But except for some impressionable stock traders, most observers think whatever real effect there will be on the business climate is months away.

The winner's policies, as distinct from campaign promises, are yet to take concrete form. And even after the new occupant of the White House has made these clear, most of them will still be up for the Congress to decide whether they will or won't become realities.

The stock market's reaction for a few days will tell a lot about what some traders think is in store.

But the history of the market's initial reflexes to election returns hasn't been impressive. In almost all instances it has been short-lived—reflecting the enthusiasm of partisans of the winning side and the gloom and doom feelings of partisans of the losing side. Usually the market has resumed quickly the course it already was taking.

Actual business conditions and prospects will count more the rest of this year than will guesses as to what the new administration may do—either to spur industry or to enact policies it considers restrictive.

Even guesses as to whether a sound dollar or more inflation is in store will remain just that for some time—mere guesses.

Remember it is President Eisenhower who will deliver the State of the Union message next January. He will present the next budget to the new Congress. And while he is expected to consult his successor on the new budget, it's unlikely that President Eisenhower will propose any expenditures of which he strongly disapproves. They would have to wait until late in January at the earliest.

The incoming president has made it plain he expects to spend more money than the present one. Businessmen have already discounted this in advance, noting that in their campaign speeches both candidates had taken this stand.

The Federal Reserve Board has been moving since March — and especially in recent weeks — to make credit plentiful and interest rates lower. The U.S. Treasury, as a sort of counterbalance, has taken steps of late to keep short-term interest rates stable — and thus to retard the flow of U. S. dollars and gold abroad to more lucrative investment markets.

Moves to protect the dollar's stability already are under way. It will be some time before new administration policies could change this trend.

And international bankers note that both candidates during the closing weeks of the campaign promised, at least, to work for a sound dollar.

So the incoming president is pledged to be as much against inflation as he is against sin. The measures that will make or break his pledge are yet to be spelled out concretely.

Letter To Editor

I have been wondering where our tax money goes. Apparently not to fix the curbs on the sidewalks or drains on a hill belonging to the city.

I live on Bradshaw Ave. The city owns the hill behind my house. The rains have washed gutters out on the hill and it floods my basement if it rains.

Mr. Copenhaver and some of the Councilmen were up and said they would have to do something right away when we had that bad storm last summer and a grave marker was washed into my backyard from the hill. Then on Oct. 7 I got a letter from Owen D. Kountz saying it wasn't the city's responsibility.

There are three old locust trees on the hill that are damaging my roof, but I don't suppose that is their responsibility either. The hill is sure a disgrace to the city. It's never cleaned up, full of trash and dead trees. And then they talk about more taxes. I am sure if water was going into their basements something would have been done a long time ago.

In America, Majority Can't Be Wrong

Behind the admonition from newspapers, television networks, radio stations and many other sources to go to the polls and vote on Election Day is a great and fundamental truth about our kind of government.

In America, a majority can't be wrong.

It can go contrary to precedent.

It can upset custom.

It can cut across the grain of tradition.

It can make a decision with revolutionary effect.

It can start down the road to ruin, if it chooses.

But it can't be wrong.

THIS WAS a startling concept in 1776 and in 1789, when popular sovereignty was written into the Constitution. It was so startling that it was kept at arm's length for many years after self-government got under way.

Even free Americans did not have that much confidence in the credo of majority rule.

But without confidence, majority rule is a mockery. It is as if government by the people had been made conditional on the way the people governed themselves—popular freedom with strings attached.

That's not the way it is. The people's sovereignty in America is absolute. It is not limited. No one can have confidence in America until he has convinced himself that the people, themselves, are its best guarantee of sound judgment and decent dealing.

Texas has the greatest number of counties in the U.S., with 254. It is followed by Georgia, with 159; Kentucky, with 120; Missouri, with 114; Kansas, with 105, and Illinois, with 102.

Since there is no light received from the sun while it is 18 degrees or more below the horizon, during these hours, therefore, there is no specific time that is "the darkest".

Oxygen is the most widely distributed of the elements. It comprises nearly half of all the matter in the outer layer of the earth and its atmosphere.

Mob Cracks Down On Its Own

By Victor Riesel

Little noticed — or mourned — by a less affluent society a pleasantly increasing number of crime combine hoods are disappearing or turning up badly bruised. Among syndicate citizenry missing from their usual shakedown routes are some who until recently were assigned to the invasion of the labor movement. Of course, no one really knows why the mob is cracking down on its own with such grim intensity now. To each its own.

Victor Riesel

Even "informed circles" are guessing — but theirs is an educated guess. They say the directors of the syndicated crime baronies are deeply concerned over a new tactic developed by U.S. Attorney General William Rogers and his Criminal Division chief, Malcolm Wilkey.

The department has created a network of 82 U.S. attorneys who are experts in syndicated crime. Twenty six of these specialists operate as a unit in the Justice Department's national headquarters.

This selected group has a daring and unprecedented task beset described by Mr. Rogers himself: ". . . (they are) engaged in the continuous analysis of the vulnerable points in the lifetime careers of over 250 known racketeers in the U.S."

WORKING on the personal histories of the men who make up the hierarchy of the world's only organized criminal syndicate are the agents of the FBI, the Narcotics Bureaus, the Internal Revenue Service, the Immigration and Naturalization Service, the Custom Service and even the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Unit of the Treasury Department.

This puts at the disposal of the selected 26 the knowledge of some 10,000 special agents.

Not only are the hood's past lives an open book, but the most powerful mob leadership can't make a move now in any one of several score cities without being under surveillance of federal agents. These investigators also work with another band of organized crime specialists.

This second group inside the Justice Department is made up of 56 men "specially designated to concentrate full or part time on organized crime in the various districts."

They usually are assistants to regional U.S. attorneys who now are under directives to devote a "substantial part" of their time to the crime magnates — a word advisedly used.

However, this heat is beginning to melt some of the steel nerves and the boys are policing themselves more carefully now. They want no one stepping out of line or creating an incident.

THE RECORDS show that at least 50 of the 100 top national criminal leaders are in prison or have been convicted and are out on appeal or are under indictment.

It was 2½ years ago that the Justice Department announced it would get the entire 100 and then go after another big batch.

On the industrial front, the casualties for the mob have been heavy, too. The men sent into the labor movement by the syndicate are, of course, lesser lights more easily put out.

But the Justice Department record is good — 148 convictions have been won in the past seven years.

These prosecutions have come under the Taft-Hartley law and the anti-terror and anti-extortion Hobbs Act.

In addition, the Justice Department has used the FBI to run down McClellan committee leads. This has brought 12 convictions and "18 pending indictments."

Also there were 18 convictions of labor officials on income tax charges including fraud and evasion.

It's slow work. But it slows down the invasion of the labor movement. It delays the spread of rotten boroughs in which the rank-and-file is exploited and sold out.

These are the fortified points from which the mob combines and private crooks conspire against vast national unions.

Hatful Of Explanations

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON — A hatful of explanations are mixed up in Sen. John F. Kennedy's apparent victory over Vice President Richard M. Nixon in Tuesday's presidential election.

They range from the personal and political to television and tactics. At least the results seemed to explode the myth that a Roman Catholic couldn't be elected president.

1. The close vote showed what had been apparent throughout the campaign. There was no overwhelming enthusiasm for either man. The choice was between two men rather than between two parties.

But that the voters could and did choose sharply between parties was demonstrated by the results in the congressional races.

For the 13th time in the 15 elections since 1932 for House and Senate the Democrats were given control of Congress.

2. The congressional results indicate that if Kennedy had been a Republican he might have been whipped. For this reason: He probably benefited from voters who saw little to choose between him and Nixon but cast a straight Democratic ballot.

3. Something in Nixon's makeup hurt him. In an almost mystical way some voters said they were picking Kennedy because "I don't like Nixon" although when asked why they couldn't say.

4. Nixon undoubtedly got some benefit from being associated with President Eisenhower and his administration but it also handicaped him.

Because he had been part of it he couldn't be critical of it, even if he had wanted to. He defended the administration, and couldn't go much beyond its performance and programs in offering ideas of his own.

He was handcuffed in another way too. While Kennedy could offer unhindered and apparently popular liberal programs and promises, Nixon had to worry about pleasing both the liberal and conservative wings of his party.

This left him in the middle.

5. This middle position—which meant restraint in promises — allowed Kennedy to appear more farseeing, more earnest about the future, more on the move. Kennedy jibed at him for his middle ground role.

6. TV played an enormous part in the campaign since it gave the voters a chance to see the two candidates side by side, to examine their minds at work, and to form close-up impressions of both.

7. Nixon pulled a political boner in appearing with Kennedy of TV and debating him. Nixon, because of his seven years with the Eisenhower administration, was known in every home.

Kennedy, outside his own Massachusetts, was a comparative unknown. But in the very first debate he not only landed side by side with Nixon in 70 million homes but, many thought, had much the better of it.

He became known across the land overnight.

8. Kennedy—with his more liberal programs of medical care for the aged, federal help with teachers' pay, a higher minimum wage —was able to appeal to groups whom the more restrained Nixon couldn't reach.

9. The business slump was perhaps a factor. Last April, long before the campaign, Nixon let it be known that if there was an economic downturn by election day he didn't think the Republicans could win. It did turn down.

10. Nixon, long billed as a great debater, turned out to be more of an arguer. It worked to his disadvantage. In his incessant attempts to tear Kennedy down he helped build him up.

11. Kennedy, by preserving an even tone and temper, presented an image of himself as a man both serious and reliable. Nixon, self-consciously, played up to the listeners.

In his efforts to sound homey he frequently reduced his statements to the teen-age level, an effort which Nixon seemed to forget might offend many intelligent people. But, as he said, he didn't think most people paid attention to details.

Mr. K's Next Move

By David Lawrence

Soviet Marked Time In U.S. Campaign

Now that the American election campaign is over, the issue of peace or war becomes paramount in the world today. The Soviet Union has been waiting for the outcome of the campaign to determine just what its next move will be.

David Lawrence

The theory of the Soviets is that basically the West is disunited and militarily unprepared for the kind of "limited war," rather than nuclear war, which Moscow would risk.

There are plenty of issues on which a crisis can be built. The status of West Berlin is one of them. It has always been felt here that when the next big break came between the East and West, the Soviets would simultaneously step up their activities, not only in the Far East and Africa, but in Cuba and Latin America, so as to provide the maximum amount of embarrassment for the United States and its allies.

The Soviet strategy, of course, has been developed in what is known as the "cold war" as a means of securing Communist objectives without taking the risk of military action.

The idea is to bluff the West into making concessions, on the theory that the western alliance will give in rather than allow even a "limited war" to be brought on.

THE SITUATION in the West gradually deteriorated in the last few months. Perhaps the biggest single encouragement that has been given the Soviets is what has taken place in Great Britain, where the British Labor party is split wide open.

One faction is insistent that bases not be granted to the United States in Europe. The other is standing by America but indications are that the so-called "left wing" is making progress by appealing to the pacifist sentiments.

The situation in Italy is still one of irreconcilable conflict between the Communists and anti-Communists but perhaps the biggest gains have been made by the Communists throughout Latin America.

THE BIG QUESTION mark, however, is what will the United States do about it all?

Both candidates in the presidential campaign promised a more vigorous assertion of American policy. But the details were not spelled out.

Both nominees indicated that they would like to talk further with Nikita Khrushchev. This has been interpreted abroad as meaning that there will be more and more parleys before the real crisis will develop. The time will come, however, when Premier Khrushchev will decide to test American's resolution and the effectiveness of its leadership in the world.

The climax is not expected to come at once but certainly within the next year the people of the United States will have to make up their minds whether they wish to prepare for real sacrifices and face sternly the Communist threat, or whether they want to drift along with more and more conferences that in the end will inevitably mean demands for greater and greater concessions.

It was this process of frequent conferences and steadily increasing concessions that encouraged Hitler to believe that the West wouldn't fight.

Without doing any sabre-rattling and without taking any provocative steps, the United States will be obliged to indicate in no uncertain terms that it will fight if necessary for the protection of the whole western alliance, including Berlin.

THE HOPE of Moscow has been that the presidential election would muddy the waters, produce vacillation in American policy and ultimately a retreat in the face of growing demands by the Soviet government.

With the election campaign over, there will be less partisanship exhibited in the United States and a tendency to unite ranks behind the government's policy. But the pressures of the pacifist elements and the appeasers, who believe that by more conferences war can be avoided, will continue, while in Moscow efforts will be intensified to bear down more and more heavily on the West in the belief that big gains for the Soviets can be made through such maneuvers.

So far as a nuclear war is concerned, the belief is growing that neither side would wish to use nuclear weapons and that a so-called "limited war" is more likely to ensue.

The Soviet theory, of course, is that the Communist regime can stand such a war much more readily than can the national economy of each of the Western countries.

Now that the American election is over, the Soviet policy will tend to become clearer. If ever in history there were a need for maximum alertness during so-called peacetime, it will be in the next few months.

Market Marks Time

By Sam Dawson

NEW YORK (AP) — Businessmen are sizing up the election results today. But except for some impressionable stock traders, most observers think whatever real effect there will be on the business climate is months away.

The winner's policies, as distinct from campaign promises, are yet to take concrete form. And even after the new occupant of the White House has made these clear, most of them will still be up for the Congress to decide whether they will or won't become realities.

The stock market's reaction for a few days will tell a lot about what some traders think is in store.

But the history of the market's initial reflexes to election returns hasn't been impressive. In almost all instances it has been short-lived—reflecting the enthusiasm of partisans of the winning side and the gloom and doom feelings of partisans of the losing side. Usually the market has resumed quickly the course it already was taking.

Actual business conditions and prospects will count more the rest of this year than will guesses as to what the new administration may do—either to spur industry or to enact policies it considers restrictive.

Even guesses as to whether a sound dollar or more inflation is in store will remain just that for some time—mere guesses.

Remember it is President Eisenhower who will deliver the State of the Union message next January. He will present the next budget to the new Congress. And while he is expected to consult his successor on the new budget, it's unlikely that President Eisenhower will propose any expenditures of which he strongly disapproves. They would have to wait until late in January at the earliest.

The incoming president has made it plain he expects to spend more money than the present one. Businessmen have already discounted this in advance, noting that in their campaign speeches both candidates had taken this stand.

The Federal Reserve Board has been moving since March — and especially in recent weeks — to make credit plentiful and interest rates lower. The U.S. Treasury, as a sort of counterbalance, has taken steps of late to keep short-term interest rates stable — and thus to retard the flow of U. S. dollars and gold abroad to more lucrative investment markets.

Moves to protect the dollar's stability already are under way. It will be some time before new administration policies could change this trend.

And international bankers note that both candidates during the closing weeks of the campaign promised, at least, to work for a sound dollar.

So the incoming president is pledged to be as much against inflation as he is against sin. The measures that will make or break his pledge are yet to be spelled out concretely.

Letter To Editor

I have been wondering where our tax money goes. Apparently not to fix the curbs on the sidewalks or drains on a hill belonging to the city.

I live on Bradshaw Ave. The city owns the hill behind my house. The rains have washed gutters out on the hill and it floods my basement if it rains.

Mr. Copenhaver and some of the Councilmen were up and said they would have to do something right away when we had that bad storm last summer and a grave marker was washed into my backyard from the hill. Then on Oct. 7 I got a letter from Owen D. Kountz saying it wasn't the city's responsibility.

There are three old locust trees on the hill that are damaging my roof, but I don't suppose that is their responsibility either. The hill is sure a disgrace to the city. It's never cleaned up, full of trash and dead trees. And then they talk about more taxes. I am sure if water was going into their basements something would have been done a long time ago.

Parking Ban Given Nudge

NEW CUMBERLAND — A tie-breaking vote cast by Mayor Albert Fuccy enabled Town Council to give first reading to an ordinance restricting parking on both sides of Ridge Ave. at Tuesday night's meeting.

Mayor Fuccy's vote broke a 3-3 deadlock on the ordinance, which would ban parking on the west and east sides of the narrow street designated as State Route 2 through the town.

Two more readings are required for the passage.

Mrs. Harry Newburn, clerk, was authorized to contact the Department of Motor Vehicles of West Virginia and secure a list of New Cumberland residents who hold operator's licenses. The list will be used in requiring motorists to purchase city driver's licenses. The action was taken at the request of a delegation from the Junior Women's Club.

The next meeting is Dec. 13.

Parking Ban Given Nudge

NEW CUMBERLAND — A tie-breaking vote cast by Mayor Albert Fuccy enabled Town Council to give first reading to an ordinance restricting parking on both sides of Ridge Ave. at Tuesday night's meeting.

Mayor Fuccy's vote broke a 3-3 deadlock on the ordinance, which would ban parking on the west and east sides of the narrow street designated as State Route 2 through the town.

Two more readings are required for the passage.

Mrs. Harry Newburn, clerk, was authorized to contact the Department of Motor Vehicles of West Virginia and secure a list of New Cumberland residents who hold operator's licenses. The list will be used in requiring motorists to purchase city driver's licenses. The action was taken at the request of a delegation from the Junior Women's Club.

The next meeting is Dec. 13.

Bernie Everson, who made fame as Native Dancer's exercise boy, now is devoted to It's a great Day.

Wrecks Havoc

DECATUR, Tenn. (AP)—A motorist plowed up Tom Wade's flower garden, trimmed J. T. Tarpley's hedge and left a third of Decatur without water. It happened when he lost control of his car, slammed through the two yards and crashed into a fireplug, sending a geyser into the air. With true southern hospitality, townspeople pushed the car to a garage for minor repairs.

As Legend Has It

Bucyrus, Ohio (AP) — Eight miles north of here is a village of 115 persons with the Western-sounding name of Broken Sword. According to legend, the village got its name after a soldier stuck his sword in the ground and broke the blade to keep it from the hands of Indians about to capture him.

Beaver

Their vote:

Stone	30,602
Klein	28,183
Webb	22,937

Hamilton	18,997
Lloyd	10,978

Some 83,977 Beaver voters cast ballots out of 95,625 eligible for a heavy turnout of 85 per cent, election officials said.

The vote for the Kennedy-Johnson ticket was 46,749 against the Nixon-Lodge total of 36,173.

Nearly 86 per cent of Midland's registered 3,198 voters — some 2,739 cast ballots and gave the Kennedy-Johnson ticket a 3-to-1 edge over Nixon-Lodge.

Kennedy received 2,062 votes to Nixon's 630. Midland had 2,087 Democratic and 1,088 Republican voters eligible. There were 23 registered for other parties.

Also giving the Democrats a lead were Glasgow Borough, Ohio Township and one precinct of Industry, whose othre precinct went Republican.

Industry Borough had 976 of its 1,066 voters balloting. The First Precinct gave all Democratic candidates a majority and the Second Precinct gave all Republican candidates a majority.

For both precincts, totals were 486 for Kennedy and 478 for Nixon. There Dr. Fred Obley had only a 6-vote margin over incumbent Rep. Frank Clark, Democrat, in the First Precinct in the race for 25th Congressional seat.

Glasgow Borough cast 51 votes, 30 for Kennedy and 21 for Nixon. The borough had 57 voters eligible.

Republicans won in other nearby Beaver County communities.

Some 101 of Hookstown's 134 eligible voters marked ballots giving Nixon a 6-to-1 edge. Hanover Township's totals, both East and West Precincts, showed 503 of its 547 registered as voting.

Greene Township had 405 of its 427 voters at the polls, and Georgetown 118 of its 127. Green gave the Republicans a 3-to-1 lead in the Presidential race. Hanover and Georgetown were 2-to-1 for Nixon.

Wellsville

The playground levy failed by 9 votes with 1,355 for and 1,363 against. It was to have been for three years. The levy was initiated by the Junior Chamber of Commerce. The program called for the money to be used for acquisition of sites and purchase of equipment.

The city's playgrounds presently are operated under the direction of the Playground Commission and money is received primarily through donations.

The 6.6-mill school levy is for operating expenses. It will be in effect for three years. The vote was 2,314 for and 1,120 against.

A mill in the school district returns about $10,000 while a mill in the city returns approximately $9,000 on full collection. The school district is larger than the city, the reason for the larger return.

The city street light levy is for five years.

The vote was 1,628 for and 1,136 against.

Waterford Votes Levy

NEW WATERFORD — A new 2-mill street light levy for 2 years was approved by village voters in Tuesday's general election, 247 to 71, according to complete but unofficial returns.

School Bonds Approved At East Palestine

EAST PALESTINE—The largest school construction program in the city's history was given a green light by voters in Tuesday's general election and street and park levies also were renewed for another two years, according to complete but unofficial returns.

The vote on the proposed $650,000 school bond issue in the 13 precincts in the school district was, for, 2,396, and, against, 1,379.

The measure, which required a majority, was given 63 per cent.

Plans call for work to start in the spring on construction of a new elementary structure at the rear of the present junior high school, an addition at the high school and cafeterias at all four city schools.

Voting in the city's eight precincts on the street levy was, for, 1,542, and against, 773.

Voting on the levy for City Park was, for, 1,429, and against, 924.

The city's vote amounted to 2,683, only 73 ballots under the record 2,756 cast in 1956.

Ducking For Members

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) — The Home Builders Assn., in an effort to double its size, gave a duck to John Smeed with orders to keep it within 60 feet of himself until a new member is signed up, then pass it along to someone else.

Wrecks Havoc

DECATUR, Tenn. (AP)—A motorist plowed up Tom Wade's flower garden, trimmed J. T. Tarpley's hedge and left a third of Decatur without water. It happened when he lost control of his car, slammed through the two yards and crashed into a fireplug, sending a geyser into the air. With true southern hospitality, townspeople pushed the car to a garage for minor repairs.

As Legend Has It

Bucyrus, Ohio (AP) — Eight miles north of here is a village of 115 persons with the Western-sounding name of Broken Sword. According to legend, the village got its name after a soldier stuck his sword in the ground and broke the blade to keep it from the hands of Indians about to capture him.

Beaver

Their vote:

Stone	30,602
Klein	28,183
Webb	22,937

Hamilton	18,997
Lloyd	10,978

Some 83,977 Beaver voters cast ballots out of 95,625 eligible for a heavy turnout of 85 per cent, election officials said.

The vote for the Kennedy-Johnson ticket was 46,749 against the Nixon-Lodge total of 36,173.

Nearly 86 per cent of Midland's registered 3,198 voters — some 2,739 cast ballots and gave the Kennedy-Johnson ticket a 3-to-1 edge over Nixon-Lodge.

Kennedy received 2,062 votes to Nixon's 630. Midland had 2,087 Democratic and 1,088 Republican voters eligible. There were 23 registered for other parties.

Also giving the Democrats a lead were Glasgow Borough, Ohio Township and one precinct of Industry, whose othre precinct went Republican.

Industry Borough had 976 of its 1,066 voters balloting. The First Precinct gave all Democratic candidates a majority and the Second Precinct gave all Republican candidates a majority.

For both precincts, totals were 486 for Kennedy and 478 for Nixon. There Dr. Fred Obley had only a 6-vote margin over incumbent Rep. Frank Clark, Democrat, in the First Precinct in the race for 25th Congressional seat.

Glasgow Borough cast 51 votes, 30 for Kennedy and 21 for Nixon. The borough had 57 voters eligible.

Republicans won in other nearby Beaver County communities.

Some 101 of Hookstown's 134 eligible voters marked ballots giving Nixon a 6-to-1 edge. Hanover Township's totals, both East and West Precincts, showed 503 of its 547 registered as voting.

Greene Township had 405 of its 427 voters at the polls, and Georgetown 118 of its 127. Green gave the Republicans a 3-to-1 lead in the Presidential race. Hanover and Georgetown were 2-to-1 for Nixon.

The playground levy failed by 9 votes with 1,355 for and 1,363 against. It was to have been for three years. The levy was initiated by the Junior Chamber of Commerce. The program called for the money to be used for acquisition of sites and purchase of equipment.

The city's playgrounds presently are operated under the direction of the Playground Commission and money is received primarily through donations.

The 6.6-mill school levy is for operating expenses. It will be in effect for three years. The vote was 2,314 for and 1,120 against.

A mill in the school district returns about $10,000 while a mill in the city returns approximately $9,000 on full collection. The school district is larger than the city, the reason for the larger return.

The city street light levy is for five years.

The vote was 1,628 for and 1,136 against.

Waterford Votes Levy

NEW WATERFORD — A new 2-mill street light levy for 2 years was approved by village voters in Tuesday's general election, 247 to 71, according to complete but unofficial returns.

School Bonds Approved At East Palestine

EAST PALESTINE—The largest school construction program in the city's history was given a green light by voters in Tuesday's general election and street and park levies also were renewed for another two years, according to complete but unofficial returns.

The vote on the proposed $650,000 school bond issue in the 13 precincts in the school district was, for, 2,396, and, against, 1,379.

The measure, which required a majority, was given 63 per cent.

Plans call for work to start in the spring on construction of a new elementary structure at the rear of the present junior high school, an addition at the high school and cafeterias at all four city schools.

Voting in the city's eight precincts on the street levy was, for, 1,542, and against, 773.

Voting on the levy for City Park was, for, 1,429, and against, 924.

The city's vote amounted to 2,683, only 73 ballots under the record 2,756 cast in 1956.

Outnumber Democrats 16-7

Ohio Republicans Win 2 More U.S. House Seats

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Republicans have gained two more seats on the Ohio delegation to the U.S. House of Representatives as a result of the general election. They now will outnumber the Democrats 16-7.

Until Tuesday's election, the Ohio delegation was divided 14-8 in favor of the Republicans. There was one vacancy, created by the death of Rep. James G. Polk, Highland County Democrat.

Neither of the state's United States senators had to run in this election.

One of the two additional seats surrendered by the Democrats was that of Robert W. Levering of the 17th District, the only incumbent defeated. Levering was beaten by John M. Ashbrook, an attorney and publisher of a weekly paper at Johnstown in Licking County.

Ironically, Ashbrook is the son of William A. Ashbrook, who represented the seven-county 17th District for almost 20 years — as a Democratic congressman.

Levering, an attorney and cattle breeder from Fredericktown and Mount Vernon who survived the World War II Bataan death march, tried five times before finally gaining the office in 1958. He defeated Lawrence Burns of Coshocton that year when Burns stepped in after the veteran J. Harry McGregor—Levering's perennial foe—died during the campaign.

And, as they had hoped, Republicans captured the Sixth District seat held by Polk until his death in April 1959. The Sixth is Ohio's largest congressional district geographically, spanning nine counties.

Republican William H. Harsha Jr. from Portsmouth, former Scioto County prosecutor and operator of a farm in Pike and Scioto counties, defeated Franklin E. Smith, also of Portsmouth, for the post. Smith has printing, drug store, restaurant and farming interests.

The 14 other victorious Republican congressional candidates are:

Rep. Clarence J. Brown of the Seventh District, an 11-term veteran and dean of Ohio Republicans in Congress. Brown, a farmer and publisher at Blanchester in Clinton County, put down for a third time the bid of Joseph A. Sullivan, an insurance underwriter supervisor from near London in Madison County, one of eight counties in the district.

Rep. Gordon H. Scherer of Cincinnati, who turned back W. Ted Osborne, a Cincinnati attorney and official of a milk sales organization, for the second time. Cincinnati and some outlying areas are in the district, the First.

Mayor Donald D. Clancy of Cincinnati, who defeated another mayor—H. A. Sand of Reading—for the Second District (Cincinnati and suburbs) seat held by Rep. William E. Hess for 28 years.

Rep. Paul F. Schenck of Dayton, who has held the Third District (Butler and Montgomery counties) seat since 1951. His opponent was Mayor R. William Patterson of Dayton.

Rep. William M. McCulloch, a Piqua attorney and 13-year veteran of Congress who defeated State Rep. Joseph J. Murphy of Piqua, only Democrat to win in Miami County in 1958. At stake was the Fourth District seat representing seven counties.

Rep. Delbert L. Latta of Bowling Green, who will represent the nine-county Fifth District for a second term. Port Clinton businessman Tom P. McRitchie was the challenger.

Rep. Jackson E. Betts of Findlay, a 19-year member from the seven-county Eighth District, who held off Fostoria insurance man Virgil M. Gase.

Rep. Samuel L. Devine, former prosecutor of Franklin County, the 12th District, who gained a second term over the opposition of Richard E. Liming of Worthington, an insurance executive.

Charles A. Mosher of Oberlin, a state senator and weekly newspaper publisher, who was the GOP nominee to succeed Rep. Albert D. Baumhart Jr. who decided not to run again from the 13th district of four counties. Mosher defeated J. William McRay, assistant Lorain County prosecutor from Elyria.

Rep. William Ayres of Akron, a five-term congressman, who defeated John H. Mihaly of Akron for the 14th District (Medina, Summit counties) seat.

Tom V. Mooreheat, former mayor of Zanesville and a state senator, who beat Herbert U. Smith, Marietta businessman for the seat of retiring Rep. John E. Henderson in the seven - county 15th District.

Rep. Frank T. Bow of Canton, a five-term veteran, who was challenged for a second time in the 16th District by John G. Freedom, a Canton attorney.

Rep. Frances P. Bolton of Lyndhurst, with 22 years in Congress from the 22nd District (Cleveland and suburbs), who defeated Chat Patterson of Cleveland Heights, a real estate developer.

Rep. William E. Minshall of Rocky River, a three-term veteran, who defeated University Heights estate planner Daniel Winston in the 23rd District (Cleveland suburbs).

The seven successful Democrats were:

Rep. Thomas Ludlow Ashley of Waterville in Lucas County, who becomes the first man from the single - county Ninth District to serve four terms since Gen. Isaac R. Sherwood, a Civil War hero. Howard C. Cook, a Toledo councilman and World War II Navy flier, opposed Ashley.

Rep. Walter H. Moeller, a Lutheran minister from Lancaster who won a close one from former State Sen. Oakley C. Collins of Ironton to represent the 10th District of eight counties for a second term.

Rep. Robert E. Cook of Bayenna, who defeated former one-term U. S. Rep. David Dennison of Warren, also hit his 1958 opponent, in a close race in the 11th District embracing five counties.

Rep. Wayne L. Hays of Flushing (Belmont County), who won a seventh term by defeating Walter Jay Hunston, Salem lawyer and businessman. Hays represents the five-county 18th district.

Rep. Michael J. Kirwan of Youngstown, re-elected for the 13th time in spite of a challenge from attorney Paul E. Stevens of Poland, Mahoning County. Kirwan, among the top 20 congressmen in seniority, has represented the 19th District longer than any other.

Rep. Michael A. Feighan of Cleveland, in Congress since 1943, who defeated Parma insurance man Leonard G. Richter for the 20th District (part of Cleveland) seat.

Rep. Charles A. Vanik of Cleveland, who has served three terms and defeated W. O. Walker, publisher of a weekly newspaper in Cleveland, for the 21st District (part of Cleveland) seat.

Hearings Set For 11 Adults

LISBON — Hearings will be held Monday in Juvenile Court for nine East Palestine area men and two women on charges of contributing to the delinquency of three teenage girls, involving morals offenses.

James Noel, 21, of Negley was sentenced to a year in the Columbiana County Jail earlier by Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin for statutory rape connected with a series of liquor and sex offenses involving the girls, aged 14, 16 and 17.

Nancy Straley, 21, of East Palestine pleaded guilty to a contributing charge Monday and is free on $500 bond until the hearing next Monday. Shirley Murphy, 23, also of East Palestine, pleaded not guilty, and will get a hearing on a similar charge.

Floyd Bowles, 61, pleaded innocent along with Robert Risinger, 18, awaiting sentencing on the contributing charge. Both are from East Palestine.

Cecil Blake, 27, and 6 others are also slated for hearings.

The case has been under investigation by East Palestine police for several months. The girls have been placed in the custody of the welfare department pending the hearings.

A restaurant owner in an Indiana city, faced with the problem of acquainting the public with his newly redecorated and enlarged establishment, decided to use local newspaper ads. As a result of his campaign, business in the restaurant increased 61 per cent within four weeks.

ment which occurs once in 10 years. At the end of the next biennium, the county's quota of seats will be cut back to one.

The extra seat brought out big fields from both parties in the May primaries. A total of 10 sought the nomination — five on each ticket.

Both Wetzel and Bettis carried East Liverpool. The city's 32 precincts gave Wetzel 4,230, with 4,293 for Bettis. Barrett received 3,684 and Todd was given 3,698.

At Wellsville, Barrett polled 1,877; Bettis, 2,174; Todd, 2,036, and Wetzel, 1,972. Barrett's home town gave him 4,582, with 3,537 for Bettis; 2,531 for Todd and 4,051 for Wetzel. At East Palestine, Bettis polled 2,168 and Wetzel received 2,541, while Barrett was given 1,259 and Todd received 1,421.

Lisbon showed 2,243 for Wetzel, with 2,174 for Bettis; 1,530 for Todd and 977 for Barrett.

Leetonia gave 1,139 to Barrett; 1,057 to Bettis; 989 to Todd and 1,289 to Wetzel. In the Hanoverton area's 5 precincts, the count showed 676 for Barrett; 1,374 for Bettis; 470 for Todd and 1,369 for Wetzel; In 4 Rogers area precincts, Barrett had 270; Bettis, 429; Todd, 327, and Wetzel, 497.

Seven East Rochester precincts gave Barrett 757; Bettis, 1,202; Todd, 694; and Wetzel, 1,265. Salineville showed 1,244 for Bettis; 334 for Barrett; 291 for Todd and 651 for Wetzel. Columbiana gave Bettis 1,942; Todd, 1,777; Wetzel, 2,185, and Barrett, 897.

Outnumber Democrats 16-7

Ohio Republicans Win 2 More U.S. House Seats

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Republicans have gained two more seats on the Ohio delegation to the U.S. House of Representatives as a result of the general election. They now will outnumber the Democrats 16-7.

Until Tuesday's election, the Ohio delegation was divided 14-8 in favor of the Republicans. There was one vacancy, created by the death of Rep. James G. Polk, Highland County Democrat.

One of the two additional seats surrendered by the Democrats was that of Robert W. Levering of the 17th District, the only incumbent defeated. Levering was beaten by John M. Ashbrook, an attorney and publisher of a weekly paper at Johnstown in Licking County.

Ironically, Ashbrook is the son of William A. Ashbrook, who represented the seven-county 17th District for almost 20 years — as a Democratic congressman.

Levering, an attorney and cattle breeder from Fredericktown and Mount Vernon who survived the World War II Bataan death march, tried five times before finally gaining the office in 1958. He defeated Lawrence Burns of Coshocton that year when Burns stepped in after the veteran J. Harry McGregor—Levering's perennial foe—died during the campaign.

And, as they had hoped, Republicans captured the Sixth District seat held by Polk until his death in April 1959. The Sixth is Ohio's largest congressional district geographically, spanning nine counties.

Republican William H. Harsha Jr. from Portsmouth, former Scioto County prosecutor and operator of a farm in Pike and Scioto counties, defeated Franklin E. Smith, also of Portsmouth, for the post. Smith has printing, drug store, restaurant and farming interests.

The 14 other victorious Republican congressional candidates are:

Rep. Clarence J. Brown of the Seventh District, an 11-term veteran and dean of Ohio Republicans in Congress. Brown, a farmer and publisher at Blanchester in Clinton County, put down for a third time the bid of Joseph A. Sullivan, an insurance underwriter supervisor from near London in Madison County, one of eight counties in the district.

Rep. Gordon H. Scherer of Cincinnati, who turned back W. Ted Osborne, a Cincinnati attorney and official of a milk sales organization, for the second time. Cincinnati and some outlying areas are in the district, the First.

Mayor Donald D. Clancy of Cincinnati, who defeated another mayor—H. A. Sand of Reading—for the Second District (Cincinnati and suburbs) seat held by Rep. William E. Hess for 28 years.

Rep. Paul F. Schenck of Dayton, who has held the Third District (Butler and Montgomery counties) seat since 1951. His opponent was Mayor R. William Patterson of Dayton.

Rep. William M. McCulloch, a Piqua attorney and 13-year veteran of Congress who defeated State Rep. Joseph J. Murphy of Piqua, only Democrat to win in Miami County in 1958. At stake was the Fourth District seat representing seven counties.

Rep. Delbert L. Latta of Bowling Green, who will represent the nine-county Fifth District for a second term. Port Clinton businessman Tom P. McRitchie was the challenger.

Rep. Jackson E. Betts of Findlay, a 19-year member from the seven-county Eighth District, who held off Fostoria insurance man Virgil M. Gase.

Rep. Samuel L. Devine, former prosecutor of Franklin County, the 12th District, who gained a second term over the opposition of Richard E. Liming of Worthington, an insurance executive.

Charles A. Mosher of Oberlin, a state senator and weekly newspaper publisher, who was the GOP nominee to succeed Rep. Albert D. Baumhart Jr. who decided not to run again from the 13th district of four counties. Mosher defeated J. William McRay, assistant Lorain County prosecutor from Elyria.

Rep. William Ayres of Akron, a five-term congressman, who defeated John H. Mihaly of Akron for the 14th District (Medina, Summit counties) seat.

Tom V. Mooreheat, former mayor of Zanesville and a state senator, who beat Herbert U. Smith, Marietta businessman for the seat of retiring Rep. John E. Henderson in the seven - county 15th District.

Rep. Frank T. Bow of Canton, a five-term veteran, who was challenged for a second time in the 16th District by John G. Freedom, a Canton attorney.

Rep. Frances P. Bolton of Lyndhurst, with 22 years in Congress from the 22nd District (Cleveland and suburbs), who defeated Chat Patterson of Cleveland Heights, a real estate developer.

Rep. William E. Minshall of Rocky River, a three-term veteran, who defeated University Heights estate planner Daniel Winston in the 23rd District (Cleveland suburbs).

The seven successful Democrats were:

Rep. Thomas Ludlow Ashley of Waterville in Lucas County, who becomes the first man from the single - county Ninth District to serve four terms since Gen. Isaac R. Sherwood, a Civil War hero. Howard C. Cook, a Toledo councilman and World War II Navy flier, opposed Ashley.

Rep. Walter H. Moeller, a Lutheran minister from Lancaster who won a close one from former State Sen. Oakley C. Collins of Ironton to represent the 10th District of eight counties for a second term.

Rep. Robert E. Cook of Ravenna, who defeated former one-term U. S. Rep. David Dennison of Warren, also hit his 1958 opponent, in a close race in the 11th District embracing five counties.

Rep. Wayne L. Hays of Flushing (Belmont County), who won a seventh term by defeating Walter Jay Hunston, Salem lawyer and businessman. Hays represents the five-county 18th district.

Rep. Michael J. Kirwan of Youngstown, re-elected for the 13th time in spite of a challenge from attorney Paul E. Stevens of Poland, Mahoning County. Kirwan, among the top 20 congressmen in seniority, has represented the 19th District longer than any other.

Rep. Michael A. Feighan of Cleveland, in Congress since 1943, who defeated Parma insurance man Leonard G. Richter for the 20th District (part of Cleveland) seat.

Rep. Charles A. Vanik of Cleveland, who has served three terms and defeated W. O. Walker, publisher of a weekly newspaper in Cleveland, for the 21st District (part of Cleveland) seat.

Hearings Set For 11 Adults

LISBON — Hearings will be held Monday in Juvenile Court for nine East Palestine area men and two women on charges of contributing to the delinquency of three teenage girls, involving morals offenses.

James Noel, 21, of Negley was sentenced to a year in the Columbiana County Jail earlier by Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin for statutory rape connected with a series of liquor and sex offenses involving the girls, aged 14, 16 and 17.

Nancy Straley, 21, of East Palestine pleaded guilty to a contributing charge Monday and is free on $500 bond until the hearing next Monday. Shirley Murphy, 23, also of East Palestine, pleaded not guilty, and will get a hearing on a similar charge.

Floyd Bowles, 61, pleaded innocent along with Robert Risinger, 18, awaiting sentencing on the contributing charge. Both are from East Palestine.

Cecil Blake, 27, and 6 others are also slated for hearings.

The case has been under investigation by East Palestine police for several months. The girls have been placed in the custody of the welfare department pending the hearings.

A restaurant owner in an Indiana city, faced with the problem of acquainting the public with his newly redecorated and enlarged establishment, decided to use local newspaper ads. As a result of his campaign, business in the restaurant increased 61 per cent within four weeks.

ment which occurs once in 10 years. At the end of the next biennium, the county's quota of seats will be cut back to one.

The extra seat brought out big fields from both parties in the May primaries. A total of 10 sought the nomination — five on each ticket.

Both Wetzel and Bettis carried East Liverpool. The city's 32 precincts gave Wetzel 4,230, with 4,293 for Bettis. Barrett received 3,684 and Todd was given 3,698.

At Wellsville, Barrett polled 1,877; Bettis, 2,174; Todd, 2,036, and Wetzel, 1,972. Barrett's home town gave him 4,582, with 3,537 for Bettis; 2,531 for Todd and 4,051 for Wetzel. At East Palestine, Bettis polled 2,168 and Wetzel received 2,541, while Barrett was given 1,259 and Todd received 1,421.

Lisbon showed 2,243 for Wetzel, with 2,174 for Bettis; 1,530 for Todd and 977 for Barrett.

Leetonia gave 1,139 to Barrett; 1,057 to Bettis; 989 to Todd and 1,289 to Wetzel. In the Hanoverton area's 5 precincts, the count showed 676 for Barrett; 1,374 for Bettis; 470 for Todd and 1,369 for Wetzel; In 4 Rogers area precincts, Barrett had 270; Bettis, 429; Todd, 327, and Wetzel, 497.

Seven East Rochester precincts gave Barrett 757; Bettis, 1,202; Todd, 694; and Wetzel, 1,265. Salineville showed 1,244 for Bettis; 334 for Barrett; 291 for Todd and 651 for Wetzel. Columbiana gave Bettis 1,942; Todd, 1,777; Wetzel, 2,185, and Barrett, 897.

Solid Majorities

Democrats Retain Congress Control

By JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON (AP) — Solid Democratic majorities will control the Senate and the House when the 87th Congress convenes Jan. 3.

The Democrats quickly nailed down control of the Senate in Tuesday's election. And by 3 o'clock this morning, they had captured more than half the 437 House seats.

Nonetheless, with returns still incomplete, it appeared the Republicans had dented the top-heavy margins the Democrats held in the out-going 86th Congress. In the Senate the old line-up was 66-34 and in the House 283-154.

With all of the Senate races settled except for a tight battle in Montana, the Republicans had picked up one seat in Delaware and another in Wyoming.

Sen. Karl Mundt, veteran South Dakota Republican, squeaked to victory over Rep. George McGovern, a Democrat who decided to give up his House seat to make the race for the Senate.

In Montana, Democratic Rep. Lee Metcalf and Republican former Rep. Owen B. Fjare were in a mid-and-tuck contest for the Senate seat being vacated by Sen. James E. Murray, D-Mont.

In the House, Republicans had gobbled up 18 seats held by Democrats but had lost 5 for a net gain of 13. In races still undecided, Democrats were ahead in 30 and Republicans in 27.

Over-all, however, the outlook was for a Congress similar in make-up and key figures to the one President Eisenhower had to deal with in the last two years of his administration.

Southern Democrats, most of whom supported Sen. John F. Kennedy even though strongly opposed to parts of the party platform, will continue to hold many of the committee chairmanships and be in position to team up with Republicans against legislation they dislike.

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas won re-election to the Senate, but was prepared to resign to assume the vice presidency.

The Big Three in the House, Speaker Sam Rayburn, D-Tex.; the majority leader, Rep. John W. McCormack, D-Mass., and the Republican leader, Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana, all won re-election.

Most of the overturns in the House were at the expense of freshman Democrats swept into office in the 1958 Democratic landslide from normally Republican areas.

Republican gains were chalked up in Connecticut, Vermont, Indiana, Maryland, Colorado, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Maine. The GOP lost seats in New York, New Jersey and Idaho.

In New York, the Democrats picked up three House seats and for the first time in 10 years won control of the state's 43-member delegation.

With 34 of the 100 Senate seats at stake in the election, Democrats had won 20 and Republicans 12 by the early morning hours. Only one incumbent, Sen. J. Allen Frear Jr., D-Del., had been toppled.

Frear's bid for a third term was turned back by Republican Gov. J. Caleb Boggs even as Kennedy captured Delaware's three electoral votes and the Democrats won the governorship.

The Republicans picked up a second Senate seat with the election of Rep. Keith Thomson to replace veteran Democratic Sen. Joseph C. O'Mahoney, retiring at the age of 76. Thomson's Democratic opponent was Raymond B. Whitaker.

The election of Maurine B. Neuberger, an Oregon Democrat, will give the Senate two women members. Sen. Margaret Chase Smith, a Republican, won overwhelming re-election in Maine.

The only Republican senator who did not seek re-election was Thomas Martin of Iowa. Republicans held on to his seat by electing State Sen. Jack Miller over Democratic Gov. Herschel Loveless.

In Rhode Island, Claiborne Pell, 41-year-old Democrat and Newport socialite, was elected to succeed Sen. Theodore Francis Green, retiring at the age of 93. Green is the oldest man ever to serve in the Senate.

Two Republican senators who won outstanding re-election victories were Leverett Saltonstall of Massachusetts and Clifford P. Case of New Jersey. Both overcame Democratic tides that gave their states' electoral votes to Kennedy.

Among the Democratic senators who won re-election were Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, John Sparkman of Alabama, Richard B. Russell of Georgia, John L. McClellan of Arkansas, Paul H. Douglas of Illinois, Allen J. Ellender of Louisiana, James O. Eastland of Mississippi, Patrick V. McNamara of Michigan, Clinton P. Anderson of New Mexico, Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, Robert S. Kerr of Oklahoma, A. Willis Robertson of Virginia, B. Everett Jordan of North Carolina, Strom Thurmond of South Carolina, Jennings Randolph of West Virginia and E. L. Bartlett of Alaska.

In Missouri, Edward V. Long, a Democrat appointed to the Senate this fall after the death of Sen. Thomas C. Hennings Jr., won over his Republican opponent, Lon Hocker.

Republican senators who won re-election included Gordon Allott of Colorado, Henry C. Dworshak of Idaho, Andrew F. Schoeppel of Kansas, Carl T. Curtis of Nebraska, Styles Bridges of New Hampshire and John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky.

Club At Chester Hears Custom Vehicle Maker

Doerr said the firm he represents constructs mainly funeral coaches and fire trucks. He said President Dwight Eisenhower's coach was built by the firm, and is a bullet-proof auto.

It was announced about $175 was netted from 2 public pancake suppers sponsored by the club Nov. 2-3. A team headed by Ray Stevens was winner of the ticket sales contest.

Alvin (Pete) Arner, president, presided.

Ex-Hancock Sheriff Is Kennedy Elector

Dick Wright of Chester, former Hancock County sheriff, became the first presidential elector from the county with Sen. John F. Kennedy heading the Democratic sweep of West Virginia in Tuesday's general election.

The names of the presidential electors do not appear on the ballot in West Virginia but they are elected if their candidate for president receives the majority vote in the state.

Wright, chairman of the county Democratic Executive Committee, was placed in the electoral college by the Democratic state convention last August.

The electors cast their votes for president in Charleston Dec. 19, and also are honored at a dinner in Washington during the inauguration of the new president.

Richmond outfielder Don Lock hit 35 homers for Binghamton, N. Y., last season. His total set an Eastern League record.

Students Vote For Nixon To Follow County

Following the trend of the city and Columbiana County in the presidential race, some 3,000 East Liverpool students in the High School, Westgate and East Junior High Schools gave Vice President Richard Nixon an edge over Sen. John Kennedy in a mock election held Tuesday under the auspices of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

But, in a surprise, students passed the defeated city income tax measure by a majority of almost 2-to-1. They also approvel the garbage levy, which was renewed.

The totals show 1,171 for Nixon and 1,119 for Kennedy. The High School vote was 480, Nixon, and 400, Kennedy. At Westgate, the tally showed 534, Nixon, and 511, Kennedy, while at East Junior High the vote was 157, Nixon, and 208, Kennedy.

A total of 1,425 voted for the income tax while only 746 opposed it. The breakdown was High School 504 for and 296 against; Westgate, 742 for, 308, against, and East Junior High, 179, for, 142, against.

The garbage levy total was, 1,185 for and 973 against.

The remaining total votes for all three schools follows:

State auditor, Ferguson, 1,170, and Rhodes, 1,044; congressman, Hays, 1,408, and Hunston, 782; state senator, Elliott, 1,090, and Sargus, 1,062; state representative, Barrett, 961, Bettis, 1,048, Todd, 974, and Wetzel, 884; county commissioner, Gard, 992, Greenisen, 831, Hunston, 929, and Wilk, 1,227.

Prosecuting attorney, Arfman, 1,061, and Brokaw, 1,112; clerk of courts, Brant, 877, and Stacey, 1,219; sheriff, Kittridge, 1,214, and VanFossan, 941; county recorder, Brian, 1,063, and Graham, 1,089; county treasurer, Dixon, 967, and Judge, 1,166; county engineer, Snyder, 1,047, and Ursu, 1;077; coroner, Kolozsi, 1,816, and probate court judge, Tobin, 1,960.

Key Club members aided in distributing, collecting and counting the mock ballots. The election was held as part of the Jaycee "get-Out-The Vote" campaign. Mike Roberts was chairman.

Woman Motorist Injured In Crash

A woman motorist was injured when her auto crashed into a parked truck Tuesday on Pennsylvania Ave., police reported.

Mrs. Ruth M. Mitcheson, 60, of 778 Woodlawn Ave. was treated at City Hospital for bruises of the lip, chest and lower right leg suffered when her 1949 two-door sedan struck a parked truck owned by the Braun Baking Co. of Pittsburgh, officers said. The crash was timed at 9:38 a. m.

A witness told police Mrs. Mitcheson was driving east "at a very reasonable speed" when her car suddenly veered to the right and hit the truck. Mrs. Mitcheson told officers she "blacked out" and doesn't remember anything that happened at the time of the crash.

The crash damaged the right side and front of the car and the rear and left side of the truck, officers said.

Civic Club Adjourns Early For Election

The Beleek St. Civic League met Tuesday evening at its East End home but adjourned early due to the election.

Mrs. Ella Gibson, president, presided. The league's record hop for teen-agers will be held Saturday evening. Mrs. Sarah Johnston of Chester, supervisor, and committee will be in charge.

Next meeting is Dec. 13.

Film Shown For Grangers

Joseph Endry, assistant principal of New Cumberland High School, screened a film, "American High Schools Today," at a meeting of the Fairview Grange Tuesday night at the Pughtown Grange Hall.

Reports of the West Virginia Grange convention in October were presented. Francis Berrie, Fairview Grange member, won a talent contest at the state meeting, playing a bagpipe. He will appear in the national talent competition.

Four committee chairmen named were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mills, project; Mr. and Mrs. Campbell Herron, social; Mr. and Mrs. Harley Ferguson, entertainment, and Mrs. William Hoffman,, home economics.

The Grange received $18.75 from membership shares, it was announced.

Solid Majorities

Democrats Retain Congress Control

By JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON (AP) — Solid Democratic majorities will control the Senate and the House when the 87th Congress convenes Jan. 3.

The Democrats quickly nailed down control of the Senate in Tuesday's election. And by 3 o'clock this morning, they had captured more than half the 437 House seats.

Nonetheless, with returns still incomplete, it appeared the Republicans had dented the top-heavy margins the Democrats held in the out-going 86th Congress. In the Senate the old line-up was 66-34 and in the House 263-154.

With all of the Senate races settled except for a tight battle in Montana, the Republicans had picked up one seat in Delaware and another in Wyoming.

Sen. Karl Mundt, veteran South Dakota Republican, squeaked to victory over Rep. George McGovern, a Democrat who decided to give up his House seat to make the race for the Senate.

In Montana, Democratic Rep. Lee Metcalf and Republican former Rep. Owen B. Fjare were in a mid-and-tuck contest for the Senate seat being vacated by Sen. James E. Murray, D-Mont.

In the House, Republicans had gobbled up 18 seats held by Democrats but had lost 5 for a net gain of 13. In races still undecided, Democrats were ahead in 30 and Republicans in 27.

Over-all, however, the outlook was for a Congress similar in make-up and key figures to the one President Eisenhower had to deal with in the last two years of his administration.

Southern Democrats, most of whom supported Sen. John F. Kennedy even though strongly opposed to parts of the party platform, will continue to hold many of the committee chairmanships and be in position to team up with Republicans against legislation they dislike.

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas won re-election to the Senate, but was prepared to resign to assume the vice presidency.

The Big Three in the House, Speaker Sam Rayburn, D-Tex.; the majority leader, Rep. John W. McCormack, D-Mass., and the Republican leader, Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana, all won re-election.

Most of the overturns in the House were at the expense of freshman Democrats swept into office in the 1958 Democratic landslide from normally Republican areas.

Republican gains were chalked up in Connecticut, Vermont, Indiana, Maryland, Colorado, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Maine. The GOP lost seats in New York, New Jersey and Idaho.

In New York, the Democrats picked up three House seats and for the first time in 10 years won control of the state's 43-member delegation.

With 34 of the 100 Senate seats at stake in the election, Democrats had won 20 and Republicans 12 by the early morning hours. Only one incumbent, Sen. J. Allen Frear Jr., D-Del., had been toppled.

Frear's bid for a third term was turned back by Republican Gov. J. Caleb Boggs even as Kennedy captured Delaware's three electoral votes and the Democrats won the governorship.

The Republicans picked up a second Senate seat with the election of Rep. Keith Thomson to replace veteran Democratic Sen. Joseph C. O'Mahoney, retiring at the age of 76. Thomson's Democratic opponent was Raymond B. Whitaker.

The election of Maurine B. Neuberger, an Oregon Democrat, will give the Senate two women members. Sen. Margaret Chase Smith, a Republican, won overwhelming re-election in Maine.

The only Republican senator who did not seek re-election was Thomas Martin of Iowa. Republicans held on to his seat by electing State Sen. Jack Miller over Democratic Gov. Herschel Loveless.

In Rhode Island, Claiborne Pell, 41-year-old Democrat and Newport socialite, was elected to succeed Sen. Theodore Francis Green, retiring at the age of 93. Green is the oldest man ever to serve in the Senate.

Two Republican senators who won outstanding re-election victories were Leverett Saltonstall of Massachusetts and Clifford P. Case of New Jersey. Both overcame Democratic tides that gave their states' electoral votes to Kennedy.

Among the Democratic senators who won re-election were Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, John Sparkman of Alabama, Richard B. Russell of Georgia, John L. McClellan of Arkansas, Paul H. Douglas of Illinois, Allen J. Ellender of Louisiana, James O. Eastland of Mississippi, Patrick V. McNamara of Michigan, Clinton P. Anderson of New Mexico, Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, Robert S. Kerr of Oklahoma, A. Willis Robertson of Virginia, B. Everett Jordan of North Carolina, Strom Thurmond of South Carolina, Jennings Randolph of West Virginia and E. L. Bartlett of Alaska.

In Missouri, Edward V. Long, a Democrat appointed to the Senate this fall after the death of Sen. Thomas C. Hennings Jr., won over his Republican opponent, Lon Hocker.

Republican senators who won re-election included Gordon Allott of Colorado, Henry C. Dworshak of Idaho, Andrew F. Schoeppel of Kansas, Carl T. Curtis of Nebraska, Styles Bridges of New Hampshire and John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky.

Club At Chester Hears Custom Vehicle Maker

Frank Doerr of Pittsburgh, sales manager for a custom-built vehicle concern, discussed various types of coaches and trucks manufactured at a meeting of the Chester Kiwanis Club Tuesday night at the Chester City Hall.

Doerr said the firm he represents constructs mainly funeral coaches and fire trucks. He said President Dwight Eisenhower's coach was built by the firm, and is a bullet-proof auto.

It was announced about $175 was netted from 2 public pancake suppers sponsored by the club Nov. 2-3. A team headed by Ray Stevens was winner of the ticket sales contest.

Alvin (Pete) Arner, president, presided.

Ex-Hancock Sheriff Is Kennedy Elector

Dick Wright of Chester, former Hancock County sheriff, became the first presidential elector from the county with Sen. John F. Kennedy heading the Democratic sweep of West Virginia in Tuesday's general election.

The names of the presidential electors do not appear on the ballot in West Virginia but they are elected if their candidate for president receives the majority vote in the state.

Wright, chairman of the county Democratic Executive Committee, was placed in the electoral college by the Democratic state convention last August.

The electors cast their votes for president in Charleston Dec. 19, and also are honored at a dinner in Washington during the inauguration of the new president.

Richmond outfielder Don Lock hit 35 homers for Binghamton, N. Y., last season. His total set an Eastern League record.

Students Vote For Nixon To Follow County

Following the trend of the city and Columbiana County in the presidential race, some 3,000 East Liverpool students in the High School, Westgate and East Junior High Schools gave Vice President Richard Nixon an edge over Sen. John Kennedy in a mock election held Tuesday under the auspices of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

But, in a surprise, students passed the defeated city income tax measure by a majority of almost 2-to-1. They also approvel the garbage levy, which was renewed.

The totals show 1,171 for Nixon and 1,119 for Kennedy. The High School vote was 480, Nixon, and 400, Kennedy. At Westgate, the tally showed 534, Nixon, and 511, Kennedy, while at East Junior High the vote was 157, Nixon, and 208, Kennedy.

A total of 1,425 voted for the income tax while only 746 opposed it. The breakdown was High School 504 for and 296 against; Westgate, 742 for, 308, against, and East Junior High, 179, for, 142, against.

The garbage levy total was, 1,185 for and 973 against.

The remaining total votes for all three schools follows:

State auditor, Ferguson, 1,170, and Rhodes, 1,044; congressman, Hays, 1,408, and Hunston, 782; state senator, Elliott, 1,090, and Sargus, 1,062; state representative, Barrett, 961, Bettis, 1,048, Todd, 974, and Wetzel, 884; county commissioner, Gard, 992, Greenisen, 831, Hunston, 929, and Wilk, 1,227.

Prosecuting attorney, Arfman, 1,061, and Brokaw, 1,112; clerk of courts, Brant, 877, and Stacey, 1,219; sheriff, Kittridge, 1,214, and VanFossan, 941; county recorder, Brian, 1,063, and Graham, 1,089; county treasurer, Dixon, 967, and Judge, 1,166; county engineer, Snyder, 1,047, and Ursu, 1;077; coroner, Kolozsi, 1,816, and probate court judge, Tobin, 1,960.

Key Club members aided in distributing, collecting and counting the mock ballots. The election was held as part of the Jaycee "get-Out-The Vote" campaign. Mike Roberts was chairman.

Woman Motorist Injured In Crash

A woman motorist was injured when her auto crashed into a parked truck Tuesday on Pennsylvania Ave., police reported.

Mrs. Ruth M. Mitcheson, 60, of 778 Woodlawn Ave. was treated at City Hospital for bruises of the lip, chest and lower right leg suffered when her 1949 two-door sedan struck a parked truck owned by the Braun Baking Co. of Pittsburgh, officers said. The crash was timed at 9:38 a. m.

A witness told police Mrs. Mitcheson was driving east "at a very reasonable speed" when her car suddenly veered to the right and hit the truck. Mrs. Mitcheson told officers she "blacked out" and doesn't remember anything that happened at the time of the crash.

The crash damaged the right side and front of the car and the rear and left side of the truck, officers said.

Civic Club Adjourns Early For Election

The Beleek St. Civic League met Tuesday evening at its East End home but adjourned early due to the election.

Mrs. Ella Gibson, president, presided. The league's record hop for teen-agers will be held Saturday evening. Mrs. Sarah Johnston of Chester, supervisor, and committee will be in charge.

Next meeting is Dec. 13.

Film Shown For Grangers

Joseph Endry, assistant principal of New Cumberland High School, screened a film, "American High Schools Today," at a meeting of the Fairview Grange Tuesday night at the Pughtown Grange Hall.

Reports of the West Virginia Grange convention in October were presented. Francis Berrie, Fairview Grange member, won a talent contest at the state meeting, playing a bagpipe. He will appear in the national talent competition.

Four committee chairmen named were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mills, project; Mr. and Mrs. Campbell Herron, social; Mr. and Mrs. Harley Ferguson, entertainment, and Mrs. William Hoffman,, home economics.

The Grange received $18.75 from membership shares, it was announced.

Lunch was served 23 by Mrs. Mills and committee. The next meeting is Nov. 22.

2 New Levies Are Approved At Salineville

SALINEVILLE—Voters Tuesday approved a new 2-mill street light levy, a new Woodland Cemetery levy for 1 mill and joined with other voters in Southern Local School District to renew two school operating levies, according to complete but unofficial returns.

Washington Township approved a new road maintenance levy for 2 mills.

The cemetery levy—first in the village's history—was approved 447 to 341, requiring only a majority vote. It will be for five years.

The street light levy, also for five years, was passed 493 to 286. It required only a majority vote.

The new road levy was supported in Washington Township 546 to 513. It was approved in all precincts except B where the vote was 138 against to 132 for.

The street levy also won support in all precincts, while the cemetery levy was opposed only in Precinct A, 73-72.

The proposed renewal of a current 2-mill operating levy for 5 years in the school district was backed 962 to 487.

Renewal of a current 5-mill operating levy for the schools was approved 1,009 to 502. Both levies were backed in all precincts.

North Side Man To Share Estate Of $1,022,782

James H. Rose, 934 Princeton Ave., is one of the recipients of the estate of Mrs. Adda Oliver Clancy, according to an inventory filed in Probate Court in Cincinnati Tuesday.

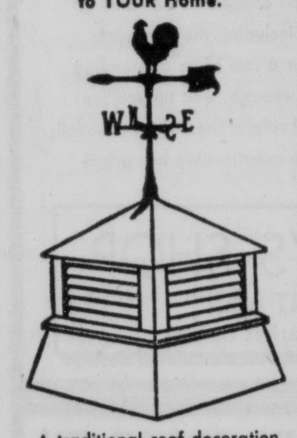

Mrs. Clancy, widow of Thomas P. Clancy, vice president of the Rudolph Wurlitzer Co., died Oct. 9 at Orlando, Fla.

The major portion of the estate will go to Rose and to a friend, Roland Tinker, and family of Cocoa Beach, Fla., the inventory shows.

Chester Club Has Event

Group Honors Charter Members

Reports were given on the Northern District convention Oct. 29 at Follansbee by Mrs. Hobbs, Mrs. Erlitz, Mrs. Alvin Arner and Mrs. James Shaw.

Plans were made to attend the community Thanksgiving service Nov. 24 at the Westminster United Presbyterian Church.

Refreshments were served 32 by Mrs. Arner and Miss Grayce Jackson, hostesses. The next meeting is Nov. 21.

2 Attending Farm Bureau Sessions

"The purpose of our representation is to help set the policies for the Farm Bureau in 1961," Mrs. Hoopes said. They will meet with delegates from 86 of Ohio's counties to decide the organization's stands on major national, state and local levels.

Miss Barbara Lowmiller of Minerva R.D. 2, a member of the Northeast Regional Youth Cabinet, and Ray Chamberlin of Leetonia R.D. 2, a member of the Ohio Farm Bureau Youth Chorus, are also attending. The chorus will participate tonight's program.

Several other youths from the county were to attend the youth session today and the banquet tonight at the Chittendon Hotel, Mrs. Hoopes said.

Charter Proposal Cleared At Salem

SALEM — Voters Tuesday approved a proposal that calls for a commission to draft a charter under which the municipal government would operate.

At the same time, a 15-member commission was chosen from a field of 26 to draft the charter.

The vote on the proposal for a charter commission was: Yes, 3,468, No, 2,383.

After the charter is drafted, it will be put to a vote. The city's total vote yesterday was 7,160.

Road Levy Approved For Knox Township

SALEM — Knox Township residents adopted a new 2-mill road levy to provide for improvements at Tuesday's general election, according to complete but unofficial returns.

The proposal is for two years. A total of 769 favored the levy while 668 were opposed. A majority was needed.

Man Receives Prison Term

Thomas Charles Merical, 30, of Brighton Township was sentenced Monday in Beaver County Court on a charge of rape and received 3-15 years in a prison to be designated by the Western Diagnostic Clinic.

Merical said that his action was caused by excessive drugs he took for a sinus condition. His wife said she thought it was true. His stepdaughter said he had never molested her in any way before taking the drugs.

Merical had entered a guilty plea. He gave himself up in East Liverpool Aug. 15 after escaping arresting officers 5 days. He was turned over to Beaver County authorities.

Bruno Porto, Jr., 18, of Smiths Ferry received 3 years probation, was ordered to pay costs and make restitution to two families for funeral and other expenses and fined $1.

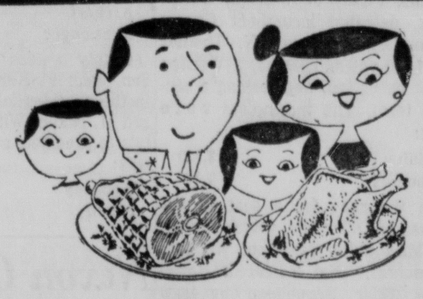

He was convicted recently on a charge of involuntary manslaughter. He was involved in a 3-car accident Jan. 30 on Route 68 near Midland which claimed the lives of Thomas S. May, 50, of the Elks Home here and Mark Deering Eaton of Burgettstown, a passenger in the May auto.

Harriett Buchanan of Harmony Township, who pleaded no defense, was placed on 5 years probation and ordered to make restitution of $7,500 to Harmony Township.

She was charged with embezzlement and had taken money from the township as its secretary. The loss was $16,000 but due to discrepancies in records, only $7,500 could be traced to her. The bonding company will pay the township $1,000.

Frank Robinson led Cincinnati in hitting with .297, in homers with 31 and in runs batted in with 83 last season. He also led in doubles with 32.

2 New Levies Are Approved At Salineville

SALINEVILLE—Voters Tuesday approved a new 2-mill street light levy, a new Woodland Cemetery levy for 1 mill and joined with other voters in Southern Local School District to renew two school operating levies, according to complete but unofficial returns.

Washington Township approved a new road maintenance levy for 2 mills.

The cemetery levy—first in the village's history—was approved 447 to 341, requiring only a majority vote. It will be for five years.

The street light levy, also for five years, was passed 493 to 286. It required only a majority vote.

The new road levy was supported in Washington Township 546 to 513. It was approved in all precincts except B where the vote was 138 against to 132 for.

The street levy also won support in all precincts, while the cemetery levy was opposed only in Precinct A, 73-72.

The proposed renewal of a current 2-mill operating levy for 5 years in the school district was backed 962 to 487.

Renewal of a current 5-mill operating levy for the schools was approved 1,009 to 502. Both levies were backed in all precincts.

North Side Man To Share Estate Of $1,022,782

James H. Rose, 934 Princeton Ave., is one of the recipients of the estate of Mrs. Adda Oliver Clancy, according to an inventory filed in Probate Court in Cincinnati Tuesday.

Mrs. Clancy, widow of Thomas P. Clancy, vice president of the Rudolph Wurlitzer Co., died Oct. 9 at Orlando, Fla.

The major portion of the estate will go to Rose and to a friend, Roland Tinker, and family of Cocoa Beach, Fla., the inventory shows.

Chester Club Has Event

Group Honors Charter Members

Reports were given on the Northern District convention Oct. 29 at Follansbee by Mrs. Hobbs, Mrs. Erlitz, Mrs. Alvin Arner and Mrs. James Shaw.

Plans were made to attend the community Thanksgiving service Nov. 24 at the Westminster United Presbyterian Church.

Refreshments were served 32 by Mrs. Arner and Miss Grayce Jackson, hostesses. The next meeting is Nov. 21.

2 Attending Farm Bureau Sessions

"The purpose of our representation is to help set the policies for the Farm Bureau in 1961," Mrs. Hoopes said. They will meet with delegates from 86 of Ohio's counties to decide the organization's stands on major national, state and local levels.

Miss Barbara Lowmiller of Minerva R.D. 2, a member of the Northeast Regional Youth Cabinet, and Ray Chamberlin of Leetonia R.D. 2, a member of the Ohio Farm Bureau Youth Chorus, are also attending. The chorus will participate tonight's program.

Several other youths from the county were to attend the youth session today and the banquet tonight at the Chittendon Hotel, Mrs. Hoopes said.

Charter Proposal Cleared At Salem

SALEM — Voters Tuesday approved a proposal that calls for a commission to draft a charter under which the municipal government would operate.

At the same time, a 15-member commission was chosen from a field of 26 to draft the charter.

The vote on the proposal for a charter commission was: Yes, 3,468, No, 2,383.

After the charter is drafted, it will be put to a vote. The city's total vote yesterday was 7,160.

Road Levy Approved For Knox Township

SALEM — Knox Township residents adopted a new 2-mill road levy to provide for improvements at Tuesday's general election, according to complete but unofficial returns.

The proposal is for two years. A total of 769 favored the levy while 668 were opposed. A majority was needed.

Ohio Wesleyan U.'s Vice President Quits

DELAWARE, Ohio (AP)—Ohio Wesleyan University vice president Dr. George W. Burns has resigned his post to return to full-time teaching and research, President David A. Lockmiller announced.

Dr. Burns asked that his resignation become effective Sept. 1, 1961.

Man Receives Prison Term

Thomas Charles Merical, 30, of Brighton Township was sentenced Monday in Beaver County Court on a charge of rape and received 3-15 years in a prison to be designated by the Western Diagnostic Clinic.

Merical said that his action was caused by excessive drugs he took for a sinus condition. His wife said she thought it was true. His stepdaughter said he had never molested her in any way before taking the drugs.

Merical had entered a guilty plea. He gave himself up in East Liverpool Aug. 15 after escaping arresting officers 5 days. He was turned over to Beaver County authorities.

Bruno Porto, Jr., 18, of Smiths Ferry received 3 years probation, was ordered to pay costs and make restitution to two families for funeral and other expenses and fined $1.

In what political observors considered the most startling upset, James Finley of Weirton, Democrat, defeated incumbent County Commissioner David N. Thomas by 1,500 votes. Thomas, a Weirton bank executive, was seeking a second term. The incomplete vote was:

Finley	8,920
Thomas	7,175

In the race for a seat in the House of Delegates, voters returned Miss Callie Tsapis of Weirton, Democrat, who defeated Harry Lyle Miller, Republican, by 4,000 votes. The incomplete vote was:

Miss Tsapis	10,160
Miller	5,892

The only other county office at stake was for surveyor and A. L. Stackpole of Newell, Democrat, was unopposed.

Squire W. Eugene Allison of Chester and Harry Lytton of Newell appeared to have won the two Grant District justice of the peace posts over Leland D. Fowler and William McCauley, according to complete returns. Allison and Lytton are Republicans and the others Democrats. The tabulations showed.

Allison	2,327
Lytton	1,999
McCauley	1,826
Fowler	1,815

For Grant District constable, the winners were both Republicans—Harold D. Davis of Chester and J. Carl Durham of Newell. They defeated Alvin R. Mooney and Roy E. Hart, both of Chester. The vote was:

Durham	2,108
Davis	2,103
Hart	1,939
Mooney	1,912

Nixon Carries Ohio As GOP Posts Gains

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Republicans captured Ohio for Vice President Richard M. Nixon, strengthened their Buckeye congressional majority and wrested control of the state legislature from Democrats in Tuesday's presidential election.

They also re-elected State Auditor James A. Rhodes in the only statewide race for executive office and won a seat from Democrats on the Ohio Supreme Court to restore a 4-3 GOP majority on that bench.

Sen. John F. Kennedy carried Democratic strongholds in northern Ohio, but his margins were too small to overcome downstate Republican margins, especially in rural areas.

Unofficial returns from 13,424 of 14,076 polling places gave Nixon 2,076,762, Kennedy 1,812,445. Four years ago President Eisenhower carried Ohio by more than 822,000 votes over Democrat Adlai E. Stevenson.

Kennedy carried Cuyahoga (Cleveland), Lucas (Toledo) and Mahoning (Youngstown) counties on the basis of nearly complete returns and squeaked through in Summit (Akron) County by barely 1,800 votes.

Republicans won Franklin (Columbus), Hamilton (Cincinnati), Montgomery (Dayton) and Stark (Canton) counties in major population areas. Democrats had expected to hold Montgomery and capture Hamilton County to help offset GOP margins.

In the state's 23 congressional races, Republicans won 16 and Democrats seven seats. In the present U.S. House, Republicans hold 14 seats, Democrats eight and there is one vacancy because of the death of a Democrat.

Republican State Chairman Ray C. Bliss attributed Ohio GOP victories to party teamwork from candidates down to precinct workers. He paid tribute to members of volunteer organizations for Nixon and his running-mate, Henry Cabot Lodge, former United Nations ambassador.

Republican Secretary of State Ted W. Brown said voting probably would top the 1956 record of 3,749,828 but might not top his prediction of 4,100,000.

Gov. Michael V. DiSalle shouldered most of the blame for Democrat losses in Ohio but said Kennedy's election as president "is going to mean a great deal to all of us".

Lisbon, Center Vote Wet By Big Margins

Lisbon went "wet" by a margin of over 3-to-1 in its vote on the 5-question local option ballot. In Center Township, the "wet" margin was more than 2-to-1. In a separate vote on the sale of 3.2 beer, Center Township voted affirmatively by a margin of close to 2-to-1.

The local option ballot covers: Sale of intoxicating liquor; sale of wine by the package for consumption off the premises; sale of wine for consumption on or off the premises; sale of spirituous liquor by the glass, and establishment of state liquor stores.

The village vote on the local option questions:

Wine On, Off Premises—Yes, 1,435, No, 429.

Liquor By The Glass—Yes, 1,433, No, 436.

State Liquor Stores — Yes, 1,462, No, 411.

The township's vote on local option:

Intoxicating Liquor — Yes, 687, No, 343.

Off-Premises Wine — Yes, 676, No, 340.

Liquor by Glass — Yes, 666, No, 344.

State Liquor Stores — Yes, 682, No, 327.

Sale of 3.2 Beer — Yes, 695, No, 357.

Class At Chester Has Program On 45th Anniversary

The 45th anniversary of the Queen Esther Class was marked at a meeting Monday night at the Westminster United Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Mary Sturgis, Mrs. Fred Dunn and Miss Ethel Allison, charter members, attended and Mrs. Sturgis reported on the class when it was known as "Class No. 2."

Highlights of class record were presented by Mrs. Ray Anderson, Mrs. Helen Pugh, Mrs. D. S. Craig and Mrs. Howard McCullough.

Mrs. Craig presented the original charter listing 16 members.

Mrs. Theodore Martin presented to the class a picture of Christ, which will be hung in the church parlors.

A contribution of $20 was authorized for the Bethany (Ky.) Orphanage. Local Christmas projects were discussed. Mrs. Julia Davis led devotions.

Lunch was served 18 by the hostesses, Mrs. E. C. Caughey and Mrs. McCullough. Mrs. Anderson, president, was in charge.

Much Of Farm Belt Winds Up On Losing Side

That was a region Democrats had hoped would revolt over controversial farm policies of the Eisenhower administration.

But there was little evidence of such a revolt despite pledges of Kennedy to push a new farm program designed to boost agricultural prices and incomes.

Class At Chester Has Program On 45th Anniversary

The 45th anniversary of the Queen Esther Class was marked at a meeting Monday night at the Westminster United Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Mary Sturgis, Mrs. Fred Dunn and Miss Ethel Allison, charter members, attended and Mrs. Sturgis reported on the class when it was known as "Class No. 2."

Highlights of class record were presented by Mrs. Ray Anderson, Mrs. Helen Pugh, Mrs. D. S. Craig and Mrs. Howard McCullough.

Mrs. Craig presented the original charter listing 16 members.

Mrs. Theodore Martin presented to the class a picture of Christ, which will be hung in the church parlors.

A contribution of $20 was authorized for the Bethany (Ky.) Orphanage. Local Christmas projects were discussed. Mrs. Julia Davis led devotions.

Lunch was served 18 by the hostesses, Mrs. E. C. Caughey and Mrs. McCullough. Mrs. Anderson, president, was in charge.

That was a region Democrats had hoped would revolt over controversial farm policies of the Eisenhower administration.

But there was little evidence of such a revolt despite pledges of Kennedy to push a new farm program designed to boost agricultural prices and incomes.

West Virginia Democrats Post Gains In Legislature

CHARLESTON (AP) — Democratic nominees for the State Legislature all but swept Republicans out of sight in Tuesday's election by adding to their overwhelming majorities in both houses.

They gained two Senate seats and were in strong contention for two others to run their majority to at least 25-7. A comparable Democratic majority was the 26-6 margin in 1941.

The Democratic majority in the House of Delegates in the last legislature was 85-15. There were indications early today that it would be changed little. All 100 House seats were at stake yesterday, for two-year terms.

The Republicans managed, on the basis of unofficial returns, to pick up one of five House seats in Cabell, but appeared certain of retaining only two of the three they have held in Ohio County.

The GOP lost the 8th and 13th District Senate seats and had a chance as additional returns were tabulated in the 3rd and 4th. Republican incumbents in the latter two didn't run this year.

Democrat Paul J. Kaufman of Charleston piled up a 57,971 to 49,772 edge in returns from 284 of 285 precincts in the 8th District, made up entirely of Kanawha County, to defeat Sen. Wilson Anderson, R-Kanawha.

William R. Sharpe Jr. of Sutton, leading 17,555 to 12,276 in 120 of 181 precincts reported, unseated the 13th's Sen. Raymond J. Vassar, R-Lewis.

In the 3rd, former GOP Del. J. C. Powell of St. Marys was leading H. E. Matics of Cairo, 16,753 to 16,053, in returns from 115 of 171 precincts. It was Sen. Harry E. Moats, R-Ritchie, who didn't seek renomination in May.

The 4th where Sen. R. L. McCulty, R-Roane, retired showed Republican Jack Johnson leading fellow Point Pleasant resident Randall A. Taylor by 13,636 to 13,391 in tabulations from 103 of 167 precincts.

Half of the Senate's 32 seats were at stake for four-year terms yesterday and eight new faces were assured as a result of last May's primary balloting. After yesterday that number will become at least 10.

Ten of the seats up for decision were held by Democrats and six by Republicans. Three incumbents, Sens. Theodore M. Bowers, R-Wetzel, in the 2nd District; Howard W. Carson, D-Fayette, 11th, and Hans McCourt, D-Webster, 12th, had no opposition.

Other winners included:

Former Democratic Del. William Tompos of Weirton in the 1st District Sen. H. H. McDown, D-Wayne, in the 5th.

Democrat Glen D. Hatcher of War, also a former House member, in the 6th; Del. Dan Dahill, D-Logan, a primary victor over Sen. Glenn Jackson, D-Logan, in the 7th.

Sen. Ward Wylie, D-Wyoming, in the 9th; R. E. Barnett of Bluefield, who won a primary victory over Sen. O. H. Ballard, D-Mercer, in the 10th; Sen. O. G. Hedrick, D-Marion, in the 14th.

Dallas Wolfe, Republican in the 15th, where Sen. A. L. Reed, R-Preston, did not seek renomination; and Democrat Charles A. Millar in the 16th, where Senate President Ralph J. Bean, D-Hardy, didn't run again.

Tompos exploded what had been somewhat high Republican votes in the 1st by trouncing Mrs. Ruth Cox Turner, 36-year-old mother of two who was Hancock County's first woman prosecutor in 1953-57.

For Wylie, victory was the oldest story. He first was elected to a two-year term in 1938.

Man Injured In Stair Fall

A city man hurt in a fall down stairs and a Wellsville man injured in a minor work mishap were among six adults and youngsters treated at City Hospital Tuesday.

Robert Wilson, 23, of 346 Fairview St. suffered a dislocated right shoulder in a fall at home. He was treated at 11:30 p. m.

Beth Ann Schneider, 1½-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schneider of Lang St., was treated for a cut of the forehead suffered in a fall against a table.

Gregory Stacey, 3, son of Mr. and Mrs. Laurin Stacey, 1325 Fairmont St., received a cut of the lip in a fall from a stool.

CROP Collection Starts In County

LISBON — The Christian Rural Overseas program has been launched in Columbiana County, according to the Rev. Joseph Varner of Salineville R.D. 1, chairman. It is known familiarly as CROP.

This program of the Church World Service organized through the Ohio Council of Churches last year provided 400 pounds of food for each dollar contributed to the needy people in 30 foreign countries.

Thousands of people are self-sufficient today because CROP gifts provided food, seeds, fertilizer, tools, or livestock as a part of this self-help program, Rev. Varner said.

The Ohio goal for 1960 is $140,000 with major emphasis in obtaining food for refugees and victims of disaster.

To help reach this goal, the support of all Columbiana County organizations, churches and individuals, both rural and urban, is being asked by the county committee.

Contributions should be forwarded to Mrs. Rebecca Umstead, 113 Market St., Lisbon, county CROP treasurer.

Nightly Services Held

LISBON — A series of gospel meetings are being held nightly at 7:30 at the Church of Christ with Cecil Willis of Akron in charge. Gerald Crihfield is pastor.

When you are planning to use asparagus (from cans or jars) as the filling for rolled sandwiches, it's a good idea to marinate the spears in French dressing. Drain the asparagus well before the buttered bread is rolled around them.

Daw Speaker At PTA Event

"The enriched program of the primary school system, known as the ungraded schools, promotes the progress and education of the child," Supt. Seward E. Daw told the MacDonald Parent-Teacher Association Monday night.

He explained that the individual differences such as the motor, language and adaptive skills and social behavior are all of equal importance in the full development of the child.

Supt. Daw was introduced by Mrs. Nell Piatt, program chairman, who also presented Earl Bake, president of the Board of Education, and Police Chief John Hephner. Bake asked for support of renewal of the school levy and announced a meeting of the State House Conference will be held Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. in the high school cafeteria. Hephner sought support for the 40-hour work week for police.

Aguin Bowling, president, conducted business during which the ways and means committee, Mrs. Mary Clark and Mrs. Floreine Broderick, announced plans for a carnival Nov. 18 at 8 p. m. in the all-purpose room of the school. Rag bags given to the school children are to be picked up today.

Mrs. Ethel Clark reported on the County PTA Council meeting and Mrs. William Palmer, membership chairman, reported 164 paidup members to date. Hostesses were fifth grade homeroom mothers. The program for the meeting Dec. 5 will be an original operetta composed by Mrs. Louise Lawton, elementary music supervisor.

Ashland Oil Sales And Income Gain

The Ashland Oil & Refining Co. of Ashland, Ky., has announced sales and earnings for the fiscal year ended Sept. 30 were the second highest in the company's history.

Net income was $14,926,916 on sales of $303,673,336, compared with 1959 income of $14,349,025 on sales of $300,644,158, according to Rexford S. Blazer, board chairman, and Everett F. Wells, president.

Publications On Farm Problems Available

LISBON — Three Ohioans are among a group of leading economists who have written a series of publications on the farm problem and alternative solutions, according to Floyd Lower, county extension agent in agriculture.

Principal reason for development of the farm problem series was to furnish to public affairs specialists in agricultural extension work comprehensive and unbiased materials for their educational work in public farm policy. The series, however, can be used by civic groups, farm organizations, or other groups interested in agricultural policy.

The series, "The Farm Problem: What Are the Choices?", analyzes nature and extent of the income problem in agriculture and examines alternative approaches to a solution. Copies of the series are available at the county extension offices.

County's Trash Dumping Problem Seen Widespread

LISBON — Three of every four townships and municipalities in Columbiana County report a problem of improper dumping of garbage and rubbish, according to the Columbiana County Health and Safety Council.

In May, council appointed a committee to make a countywide survey of refuse disposal. This included rubbish and garbage in both township and municipal operations. Seventy-five percent of the political subdivisions completed questionnaires on the subject.

Of great significance is the fact that although roughly two-thirds of the replies indicated that they had a public dump, only one-third had an ordinance or regulation for collection and disposal. One sixth of the subdivisions have no collection facilities, either public or private, and of those with collection services, 80 per cent were private haulers.

According to the answers on the questionnaires, the greatest problem over the county is illegal dumping along highways. Apparently this problem is due in large measure to lack of ordinances in the municipalities. The communities where unauthorized dumping is a major problem are those without ordinances.

"No community can afford to shrug off the dangers of open dumps, nor condone such eyesores. Proper methods of refuse disposal pay great dividends as the most effective control of disease carrying rats and flies," the council said.

Chester Girl Improves From Crash Injuries

Janice Lyle, 19, of Montana Ave., Chester, remains in the Ohio Valley General Valley Hospital at McKees Rocks, where she was admitted Sunday night with injuries suffered in an auto accident on Route 30 about 4 miles east of Clinton.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Graven Lyle, she is improving with head and shoulder injuries and cuts and bruises.

She was in a car driven by Steve Smith, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smith of Tinsonville, which skidded on ice, hit an embankment then struck a guardrail, demolishing the 1955 sedan.

Fire Levy Renewed For West Township

HANOVERTON — The renewal of a half-mill fire levy for West Township passed easily in Tuesday's election, according to complete but unofficial returns.

The levy will be for five years. A majority vote was required and 619 voted for the levy while only 249 were opposed.

Publications On Farm Problems Available

LISBON — Three Ohioans are among a group of leading economists who have written a series of publications on the farm problem and alternative solutions, according to Floyd Lower, county extension agent in agriculture.

Principal reason for development of the farm problem series was to furnish to public affairs specialists in agricultural extension work comprehensive and unbiased materials for their educational work in public farm policy. The series, however, can be used by civic groups, farm organizations, or other groups interested in agricultural policy.

The series, "The Farm Problem: What Are the Choices?", analyzes nature and extent of the income problem in agriculture and examines alternative approaches to a solution. Copies of the series are available at the county extension offices.

Women of the Church will meet Tuesday at 8:15 p. m. in the hall. Mrs. Ed Kramer will be public thank - offering chairman. Mrs. Charles Newcomb will present the program and Mrs. Kenneth Berkley will lead devotions. Mrs. Paul Brucker, president, will preside.

County's Trash Dumping Problem Seen Widespread

LISBON — Three of every four townships and municipalities in Columbiana County report a problem of improper dumping of garbage and rubbish, according to the Columbiana County Health and Safety Council.

In May, council appointed a committee to make a countywide survey of refuse disposal. This included rubbish and garbage in both township and municipal operations. Seventy-five percent of the political subdivisions completed questionnaires on the subject.

Of great significance is the fact that although roughly two-thirds of the replies indicated that they had a public dump, only one-third had an ordinance or regulation for collection and disposal. One sixth of the subdivisions have no collection facilities, either public or private, and of those with collection services, 80 per cent were private haulers.

According to the answers on the questionnaires, the greatest problem over the county is illegal dumping along highways. Apparently this problem is due in large measure to lack of ordinances in the municipalities. The communities where unauthorized dumping is a major problem are those without ordinances.

"No community can afford to shrug off the dangers of open dumps, nor condone such eyesores. Proper methods of refuse disposal pay great dividends as the most effective control of disease carrying rats and flies," the council said.

Chester Girl Improves From Crash Injuries

Janice Lyle, 19, of Montana Ave., Chester, remains in the Ohio Valley General Valley Hospital at McKees Rocks, where she was admitted Sunday night with injuries suffered in an auto accident on Route 30 about 4 miles east of Clinton.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Graven Lyle, she is improving with head and shoulder injuries and cuts and bruises.

She was in a car driven by Steve Smith, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smith of Tinsonville, which skidded on ice, hit an embankment then struck a guardrail, demolishing the 1955 sedan.

Fire Levy Renewed For West Township

HANOVERTON — The renewal of a half-mill fire levy for West Township passed easily in Tuesday's election, according to complete but unofficial returns.

The levy will be for five years. A majority vote was required and 619 voted for the levy while only 249 were opposed.

County's 48,830 Ballots Is Record

Columbiana County set a new record with the 48,830 ballots it cast in the general election Tuesday.

The turnout in the 152 precincts was 2,740 ahead of the previous high of 46,090 recorded in 1952, when interest was stirred by the first Presidential race between Eisenhower and Stevenson.

In the 1956 Presidential race, the county cast 43,727 ballots. Prior to 1952, the record vote was the 44,267 cast in 1940 when Franklin D. Roosevelt ran for a third term, opposed by Wendell Willkie.

But East Liverpool's total vote was far from setting a record. Of 11,376 qualified, 9,323 went to the polls. In 1952, the city cast 10,233. Its turnout in 1956 was 8,937.

The Presidential election was given the major share of the credit for the big vote yesterday. But other factors played a part — a growing county population; ideal election weather and the fact that 44 special questions and issues were to be decided.

For the fifth consecutive time, Columbiana County went Republican in the Presidential balloting. It gave a margin of more than 8,000 to Richard M. Nixon over Sen. John F. Kennedy. Nixon scored 28,293 to the 10,031 given Kennedy. Beginning in 1944, the county has supported the GOP nominee in every Presidential race.

East Liverpool also went the GOP column in the presidency, giving Nixon 4,776 to Kennedy's 4,547.

Columbiana County also gave strong support to State Auditor James A. Rhodes, Republican, in his race for re-election over James D. Ferguson, Democrat. Rhodes polled 26,723 to Ferguson's 17,754.

The record number of absentee ballots issued for the election yesterday was the strongest clue pointing to a new high in voting. The demand for the absentee tickets exceeded both the 1952 and the 1956 elections.

Despite the tremendous vote and the large number of ballots used in most communities, the County Election Board finished ahead of schedule in its tabulation of returns. Complete county returns were entered on the charts and totaled by 3:50 this morning.

In the last similar election in 1956, the tabulation was not completed until 4:30. The board worked until 3:40 a. m. after the 1952 election to tabulate only the "top of the ticket" places. The "top of the ticket" count in yesterday's election was finished at 12:30 this morning and returns on the city income tax and garbage levy were finished at the same time.

The second installment of the count covered offices from state senator through coroner. This section of the count was completed by 2 a. m., except for the returns from Wellsville and Salem.

Wellsville's returns were reported at 2:30. At about 3:30 the Salem returns came in, allowing the board's staff to wind up the long job.

The board completed the count on the Presidential voting in all 43 East Liverpool district precincts just an hour and 32 minutes after the polls closed. The tabulation covered the 32 city precincts and others in adjoining Liverpool and St. Clair Townships.

An NBC newsman told Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk of the Board, that Columbiana County was the first in Ohio to file its complete returns on the Presidential race.

First East Liverpool precinct to report on the "flash" presidential election count was 3-E, located in Lincoln School. It reported the result at 6:41 p. m., just 11 minutes after the polls close.

The Election Board will begin work at the Courthouse in Lisbon Thursday on the official canvass of the returns. The official count may be finished Saturday or the work may extend until Monday. The official canvass produces the figures which are certified to Secretary of State Ted W. Brown at Columbus.

lican nominee Harold E. Neely ran well behind that in the presidential and Senate races. It appeared that Barron's final margin over the 42-year-old Neely, a Hinton resident running for office for the first time, would be about the same as Underwood's 63,000 over Democrat Robert H. Mollohan four years ago.

The latest unofficial Associated Press tabulations in the three top races showed these results:

President 2,343 of 2,751 precincts:
Kennedy, 410,966
Nixon, 336,551
Senate, 2,343 precincts:
Randolph, 422,339
Underwood, 312,142
Governor, 2,343 precincts:
Barron 384,913
Neely 320,050

Two incumbent Democrats — Judges Chauncey Browning and Harlan M. Calhoun — were re-elected to 12-year terms on the State Supreme Court of appeals by wide margins. They defeated Republican challengers E. Franklin Pauley, a Charleston corporation lawyer, and Dayton R. Stemple of Philippi, a state senator since 1946.

Democrats also took the five other statehouse offices at stake—attorney general, auditor, treasurer, agriculture commissioner and secretary of state.

The election left West Virginia's delegation in the House of Representatives unchanged. All six incumbents — five Democrats and one Republican — were re-elected.

The Democrats increased their lopsided control in the State Senate, where they already outnumbered Republicans 23-9. The Democrats definitely picked up two seats which have been GOP-held and two others still were in doubt. Sixteen of the 32 seats were up for election.

The voters ratified three relatively non-controversial constitutional amendments by margins somewhere between 2 to 1 and 3 to 1.

Clear, sunny weather prevailed in most of the state for the voting. The turnout exceeded that of four years ago, but the final total will fall short of 1952's record total of 882,000.

Democrats were jubilant over their comeback from 1956, which began two years later in the off-year voting.

In 1956, the Republicans swept the top offices in West Virginia for the first time in a presidential year since 1928. They carried the state for President Eisenhower, took the U. S. Senate seat which was at stake, elected Underwood, and won two of the six congressional contests.

Two years later the Democrats regained the Senate seat and one of the two lost House seats. Registration this year again heavily favored the Democrats, 678,000 to 405,000.

a resident in the Senate since John Mason of East Liverpool served a term in the early 1950's in a previous reapportionment. Sargus will serve two years.

Atty. Elliott carried his home county but the Belmont lawyer amassed strength in Jefferson and Belmont. Four counties make up the senatorial district, without Carroll.

The district contains 457 precincts and 4 had not reported early today. Their vote:

Elliott	59,714
Sargus	67,781

The vote by counties: Elliott—Columbiana, 25,974; Jefferson, 16,451; Harrison, 4,164, and Belmont, 13,125.

Griffith Wins; Brown Named

Judge Lynn B. Griffith of Warren, incumbent member of the 7th District Court of Appeals, was re-elected in Tuesday's balloting, and Atty. Paul W. Brown of Youngstown was named to succeed incumbent Judge William T. Allmon, according to complete but unofficial returns.

Judge Griffith received 226,974 votes over 160,186 for former Appellate Judge John B. Nichols of St. Clairsville, according to returns from the 13-county district.

Atty. Brown received 257,900 votes, defeating Judge Allmon, who had 125,910 votes. Judge Allman was appointed by Gov. Michael DiSalle to fill the seat of the late Elmer T. Phillips until the election could decide who would complete the late jurist's term.

In Columbiana County, Judge Griffith received 16,565 to 15,383 for Nichols, and Brown was given 23,168 to 12,174 for Judge Allmon.

Tax

The tax was abolished in mid-November of 1958—as soon as the result of the voting had been certified officially by the County Election Board. Despite its life of less than six months, it produced about $160,000 in new revenue for the city.

Council enacted the second ordinance without an emergency clause—and providing for a lower rate—to meet the two principal objections raised by the oppponents in the first campaign. The procedure allowed a referendum, which meant that the tax would not be collected pending the outcome of the vote at the polls.

Ohio New, Continued Jobless Claims Up

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Both new and continuing claims for unemployment benefits increased in the week ended Nov. 5 over the previous week, the Bureau of Unemployment Compensation reported today.

New claims filed last week totaled 25,600, up from the 20,977 reported for the week ended Oct. 29. The average number of new claims filed weekly in November of last year was 21,395.

Continuing claims of those unemployed one week or more increased from 116,241 to 121,157. In the same month last year, the average number of weekly claims was 90,036.

Hearings Set Monday For 2 Cited Motorists

Hearings are scheduled Monday in Municipal Court for two motorists cited on traffic violations Monday night in West End.

They are Otto Thomas Jenkins III of LaCroft, cited at 10:07 for crashing the traffic light at W. 8th and Jefferson Sts., and James E. Lowe of Shadyside Ave., arrested at 10:02 for ignoring a stop sign at W. 8th and Lisbon Sts.

John Romeo of Struthers was fined $10 and costs when he pleaded guilty today before Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on a charge of speeding 55 miles an hour in a 35-mile zone on W. 8th St. He was cited Monday night at 9:08. The fine was suspended on payment of the $6 costs.

Also scheduled to appear in the city court is Dexter G. Weaver of Wellsville R. D. 1, cited Monday on Route 7 by the State Highway Patrol on a charge of operating an auto without a muffler.

Judge Lynn B. Griffith of Warren, incumbent member of the 7th District Court of Appeals, was re-elected in Tuesday's balloting, and Atty. Paul W. Brown of Youngstown was named to succeed incumbent Judge William T. Allmon, according to complete but unofficial returns.

Judge Griffith received 226,974 votes over 160,166 for former Appellate Judge John B. Nichols of St. Clairsville, according to returns from the 13-county district.

Atty. Brown received 257,900 votes, defeating Judge Allmon, who had 125,910 votes. Judge Allman was appointed by Gov. Michael DiSalle to fill the seat of the late Elmer T. Phillips until the election could decide who would complete the late jurist's term.

In Columbiana County, Judge Griffith received 18,565 to 15,383 for Nichols, and Brown was given 23,168 to 12,174 for Judge Allmon.

The tax was abolished in mid-November of 1958—as soon as the result of the voting had been certified officially by the County Election Board. Despite its life of less than six months, it produced about $160,000 in new revenue for the city.

Council enacted the second ordinance without an emergency clause—and providing for a lower rate—to meet the two principal objections raised by the oppponents in the first campaign. The procedure allowed a referendum, which meant that the tax would not be collected pending the outcome of the vote at the polls.

Ohio New, Continued Jobless Claims Up

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Both new and continuing claims for unemployment benefits increased in the week ended Nov. 5 over the previous week, the Bureau of Unemployment Compensation reported today.

New claims filed last week totaled 25,600, up from the 20,977 reported for the week ended Oct. 29. The average number of new claims filed weekly in November of last year was 21,395.

Continuing claims of those unemployed one week or more increased from 116,241 to 121,157. In the same month last year, the average number of weekly claims was 90,036.

Hearings Set Monday For 2 Cited Motorists

Hearings are scheduled Monday in Municipal Court for two motorists cited on traffic violations Monday night in West End.

They are Otto Thomas Jenkins III of LaCroft, cited at 10:07 for crashing the traffic light at W. 8th and Jefferson Sts., and James E. Lowe of Shadyside Ave., arrested at 10:02 for ignoring a stop sign at W. 8th and Lisbon Sts.

John Romeo of Struthers was fined $10 and costs when he pleaded guilty today before Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on a charge of speeding 55 miles an hour in a 35-mile zone on W. 8th St. He was cited Monday night at 9:08. The fine was suspended on payment of the $6 costs.

Also scheduled to appear in the city court is Dexter G. Weaver of Wellsville R. D. 1, cited Monday on Route 7 by the State Highway Patrol on a charge of operating an auto without a muffler.

Likened U.S. To Great Ship

Kennedy Campaigned On Anchors Aweigh Idea

By JAMES DEVLIN
Associated Press Staff Writer

John F. Kennedy is a former naval officer who campaigned for the presidency on a theme of "anchors aweigh."

He likened the United States to a great ship lying at anchor and held that she should be sailing on to new frontiers—with Kennedy at the helm.

Kennedy rode some rough seas of his own in his drive for the White House, chiefly a bitter controversy as to whether the nation was ready for a Catholic president for the first time.

He also faced some objections to his youth—43 years—but this issue appeared to fade as the campaign wore on.

The trim, slim millionaire entered the campaign with a background as a war hero, a Pulitzer Prize-winning author and a phenomenal vote-getter, and with a family tradition of public life.

Kennedy, who speaks with a combination of a Harvard accent and a New England twang, was born in Brookline, Mass., a Boston suburb, on May 29, 1917.

His maternal grandfather, for whom he is named, John F. Fitzgerald, was mayor of Boston and a congressman.

His father, Joseph P. Kennedy, was ambassador to London, chairman of the Securities and Exchange Commission and chairman of the Maritime Commission.

The elder Kennedy earlier had built up a fortune, through finance and business, that has been estimated unofficially at from 200 to 400 million dollars.

The boy was only 9 when his father set up a million-dollar trust fund for him—as he did for each of the other eight Kennedy children.

Kennedy was graduated cum laude from Harvard in 1940 and later attended the London School of Economics.

Also in 1940, he wrote "Why England Slept," an analysis of British thinking prior to World War II. He won the Pulitzer Prize for biography in 1957 for another book, "Profiles in Courage."

Kennedy got into the war as a junior grade naval lieutenant commanding a patrol boat in the South Pacific. A Japanese destroyer sliced through the small craft on Aug. 2, 1943. Two crewmen were lost.

Though he suffered a spinal injury, Kennedy led in rescue efforts among the survivors, towing one wounded man on a five-hour, three-mile swim to an island. The group was rescued five days later.

Kennedy won the Navy and Marine Corps medals and the Purple Heart.

His spinal injury eventually required two operations, one in 1945 and another in 1954, the latter requiring eight months convalescence.

He was elected to the House of Representatives in 1946 at the age of 29 and served three terms.

The Democrat attracted wide political attention in 1952 when he was elected senator. He beat Henry Cabot Lodge by 70,000 votes while Republican Dwight D. Eisenhower was taking Massachusetts by 210,000 votes.

Kennedy became better known nationally when he almost beat out the veteran campaigner, Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, for the vice presidential nomination in the 1956 Democratic National Convention.

The setback was fortunate for Kennedy, for if he had won the nomination on what proved to be a losing ticket his chances for the presidential nomination this year might have been lessened.

Kennedy bounced back from his 1956 experience by winning reelection as a senator in 1958 by almost 900,000 votes, the largest plurality ever in a Massachusetts senate race.

Then he sailed through seven successive state primaries on his way to the presidential nomination.

Kennedy and Jacqueline Bouvier, a member of a socially prominent Newport, R.I., family, were married in 1953. They have a daughter, Caroline, 3, and are expecting another child.

Chamber Launches Planning To Pick 7 For Posts On Board

A six-man nominating committee was appointed by T. Fred Edwards, president, at the board's monthly meeting. It is comprised of retiring members of the board —Dr. J. A. Fraser, Atty. Francis H. Lang, Charles Taylor, Wendell H. Vodrey, Bertram Wakefield and Norman Nicely.

The committee will draw up a slate of 14 nominees, reporting at the board's next meeting on Dec. 13. Following approval of the slate by the board, ballots will be mailed to all Chamber members.

The ballots will be returned late in December, in time for a tellers' committee to make tabulations and report the results at a special meeting of the board prior to Jan. 1. The new members will meet with the board at its first January session, when new Chamber officers will be elected for 1961.

Names of seven new members were reported to the board for approval by the membership committee, result of a recent drive. They are: Fithian Cement Products Co., Adkins Lumber Co., Parts Service Co., Tice's Restaurant, National Lunch, New York Restaurant and Watson Motors.

Reports were presented on the progress of plans for the annual Rural-Urban Day program Nov. 16, when farm residents in nearby sections of Beaver, Hancock and Columbiana Counties will be guests of the Chamber for plant tours and a luncheon. A report also was presented on a meeting at Lisbon Nov. 21 for a countywide discussion on area state forests and parks.

E. R. Chandler, secretary-manager, reported on a Community Development Conference last Friday and Saturday at Ohio State University, which a district delegation attended.

Reports also were presented on recent activities of the East Liverpool Merchants Association, including the "Auto Mall" show last Thursday through Saturday on E. 5th St. and plans for the community Christmas program.

Second Conference On School Problems To Be Held Tuesday

When East Liverpool residents interested in school problems attend the second in a series of local conferences Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. at Westgate School library, they will be asked to determine how to secure what they want from the schools.

Questionnaires will be given each person and they will be asked to express their opinion regarding such phases as school organization, higher education organization, local finance, state finance, federal finance and financing of higher education.

Supt. Ralph W. Betts emphasized any resident of the school district may participate in the conference even if they were unable to attend the first meeting last month.

A general discussion will open the program and the group then will be divided into smaller groups to discuss various points.

Following the discussion, delegates to the state meeting will be elected. Based on its school enrollment, the city school district is entitled to 12 delegates.

The conferences are being held locally to precede the second State House Conference on Education scheduled Jan. 26 in Columbus. Tabulation of the answers to the questionnaires will be forwarded for consideration in the state meeting.

Forty-two attended the first conference in mid-October when the discussion centered around the general theme, "What Do We Want from Our Schools?"

Lot Cleanup Ordered By Georgetown Council

After complaints of residents of weed-grown lots, Georgetown Borough Council Monday evenng agreed to send notices to owners to clean-up the properties.

Council approved payment of $4,017 for recent blacktopping of several streets. Beaver County commissioners supplied $3,000 and the borough paid $1,000 from its share of liquid fuel tax refunds.

Teachers End 1-Day Strike In New York

Delegates of the striking United Federation of Teachers (UFT) voted at a closed meeting to accept an offer from the Board of Education to return to work.

The board, with the backing of Mayor Robert F. Wagner, had guaranteed that no reprisals would be taken against striking teachers —if they returned to work today.

The union also agreed to meet with three top labor leaders acting as intermediaries in the dispute.

The walkout started Monday when the UFT struck over demands for improved working conditions and other issues. About 250 of the city's 837 schools were picketed. Some of the city's one million students refused to cross picket lines and there were reports of minor vandalism.

The UFT, which claims a membership of 10,000 among the city's 40,000 teachers, had asserted the strike was picking up momentum. But the Board of Education, while admitting disruptions in operations, said all the schools had remained open and would continue to do so. Supervisory personnel had been pressed into service, and classes doubled up.

The schools were closed Tuesday, Election Day.

Wagner, on advice from the City Central Labor Council and George Meany, president of the AFL-CIO, recommended these labor leaders as intermediaries in the dispute: David Dubinsky and Jacob Potofsky, vice presidents of the AFL-CIO, and Harry Van Arsdale Jr., president of the City Central Labor Council.

The UFT has sought duty-free lunch periods, more sick pay and higher salaries than the current range of $4,800 to $8,300 a year.

The Board of Education already has agreed in principle to two other demands, a union checkoff system and steps toward collective bargaining.

Planning Session Speakers Named

LISBON—Two prominent speakers are scheduled for the countywide regional planning meeting to be held at St. George's Parish Hall on W. Chestnut St. Monday at 8:30 p.m., according to Floyd Lower, county extension agent in agriculture.

Walter Myers Jr., executive manager of the Upper Ohio Development Council at Steubenville, and Nicholas G. Kaschak of the Department of Industrial and Economic development at Columbus. They will discuss the advantages and disadvantages of regional planning, as well as the procedures to be followed in organizing and operating a Regional Planning Commission.

The meeting has been planned by the public affairs committee of the Columbiana County Agricultural Council and is aimed at presenting facts and information on the subject so that residents may intelligently decide upon the question if presented to them. Much interest is developing for regional planning in Columbiana County, sponsors of the session said, but the County Agricultural Council is not promoting regional planning but rather presenting facts on the subject.

The meeting is open to the public and local organizations interested in the subject have been urged to send representatives. Galen Greenisen of Salem R. D. 3 is chairman of the public affairs committee sponsoring the meeting. This will be a followup to a meeting held last spring on rural zoning, Lower said.

NEW YORK (AP)—The city's first teachers' strike ended Tuesday night, the day after it began.

Delegates of the striking United Federation of Teachers (UFT) voted at a closed meeting to accept an offer from the Board of Education to return to work.

The board, with the backing of Mayor Robert F. Wagner, had guaranteed that no reprisals would be taken against striking teachers —if they returned to work today.

The union also agreed to meet with three top labor leaders acting as intermediaries in the dispute.

The walkout started Monday when the UFT struck over demands for improved working conditions and other issues. About 250 of the city's 837 schools were picketed. Some of the city's one million students refused to cross picket lines and there were reports of minor vandalism.

The UFT, which claims a membership of 10,000 among the city's 40,000 teachers, had asserted the strike was picking up momentum. But the Board of Education, while admitting disruptions in operations, said all the schools had remained open and would continue to do so. Supervisory personnel had been pressed into service, and classes doubled up.

The schools were closed Tuesday, Election Day.

Wagner, on advice from the City Central Labor Council and George Meany, president of the AFL-CIO, recommended these labor leaders as intermediaries in the dispute: David Dubinsky and Jacob Potofsky, vice presidents of the AFL-CIO, and Harry Van Arsdale Jr., president of the City Central Labor Council.

The UFT has sought duty-free lunch periods, more sick pay and higher salaries than the current range of $4,800 to $8,300 a year.

The Board of Education already has agreed in principle to two other demands, a union checkoff system and steps toward collective bargaining.

Planning Session Speakers Named

LISBON—Two prominent speakers are scheduled for the county-wide regional planning meeting to be held at St. George's Parish Hall on W. Chestnut St. Monday at 8:30 p.m., according to Floyd Lower, county extension agent in agriculture.

Walter Myers Jr., executive manager of the Upper Ohio Development Council at Steubenville, and Nicholas G. Kaschak of the Department of Industrial and Economic development at Columbus. They will discuss the advantages and disadvantages of regional planning, as well as the procedures to be followed in organizing and operating a Regional Planning Commission.

The meeting has been planned by the public affairs committee of the Columbiana County Agricultural Council and is aimed at presenting facts and information on the subject so that residents may intelligently decide upon the question if presented to them. Much interest is developing for regional planning in Columbiana County, sponsors of the session said, but the County Agricultural Council is not promoting regional planning but rather presenting facts on the subject.

The meeting is open to the public and local organizations interested in the subject have been urged to send representatives. Galen Greenisen of Salem R. D. 3 is chairman of the public affairs committee sponsoring the meeting. This will be a followup to a meeting held last spring on rural zoning, Lower said.

Teacher Given Guidance Post

The Southern Beaver County Joint Board of Education Monday evening accepted the resignation of the guidance counseler and elected a teacher to the post.

The resignation of Pat Yanni was accepted. He will take a position at Burgettstown. Ronald Delaney, social studies and driver training instructor, was elected as counseler.

Board members discussed a proposed addition of four classrooms to the South Side school. The board is now seeking approval of the site. The state has given its approval for four rooms on the basis of pupil population but the school would like to have more rooms based on curriculum.

Victor Thomas, supervising principal, said the next step will be scheduling rooms for the addition near Hookstown. Bills, exclusive of transportation, which were sent to the state for approval, amounted to $4,228.12 and were ordered paid.

Parents Visitation Set For South Side

Visitation by parents will be held all day Thursday at South Side High School near Hookstown in an "open house" observance of National Education Week.

Victor Thomas, supervising principal, said refreshments will be served from 2 to dismissal time at 3:45 p. m.

An "open house" was held today at the elementary school. The Parent-Teacher Association served refreshments from 1:45 to dismissal time at 3 p. m.

There will be no school Friday—Veterans Day.

Tennessee holds a 19-18 edge in its football series with Alabama. The rivals first met in 1901. Six games were ties.

Kennedy Aware Of Election, Waits Statement From Nixon

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy is aware that he is the president-elect, his press secretary said today. Pierre Salinger said the senator was told by a campaign aide that he has carried California and therefore has won the election.

The word was given to Kennedy shortly after he awoke at 9:30 a.m. EST today, Salinger said.

He said Kennedy would not have anything to say, however, until he hears from Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

Salinger said he understood from a statement made by Nixon's press secretary, Herbert G. Klein, in Los Angeles, that Nixon would not have anything to say until 9 a.m. Pacific time—noon Eastern time.

Therefore, Salinger said he doubted Kennedy would have anything to say before noon.

California has 32 electoral votes which, if he won it, would give Kennedy 293. It takes 269 to win.

The senator, wearing striped pajamas, could be seen in the house. He waved through a window.

Salinger joshed that he knew that Kennedy had "made it" when he found Secret Service agents at the senator's home today.

Veteran Judges In Panhandle Defeated In New Term Races

Two veteran judges whose combined years of service in the 1st Judicial Circuit totals 61 years were defeated in Tuesday's general election, according to the incomplete returns from Hancock, Brooke and Ohio counties.

Judge J. Harold Brennan, 76, who has served the three-county area since 1923, and Judge J. P. O'Brien, 85, who served 24 years, lost races for new terms.

Atty. Ralph E. Pryor of Wellsburg and James G. McClure of Triadelphia were elected to the two judgeships for eight-year terms.

Atty. Pryor is a Democrat and is Brooke County prosecuting attorney. McClure, Republican, was formerly Municipal Court judge in Wheeling.

Atty. Pryor, 40, pulled the heaviest vote in the three-county area. He received over 10,000 in Hancock, with only 33 of 36 precincts counted, 9,566 in Brooke and 20,503 in Ohio.

McClure, 47, polled about 5,769 votes in Hancock, 4,758 in Brooke and 20,119 in Ohio.

Judge Brennan was given 6,535 Hancock votes, 3,719 in Brooke and 12,636 in Ohio. Judge O'Brien showed 8,020 votes in Hancock, 6,165 in Brooke and 14,486 in Ohio County. The incomplete vote was::

Pryor	40,080
McClure	30,646
O'Brien	28,671
Brennan	22,890

School Levy Approved

NEW WATERFORD — A new 3-mill levy for Fairfield-Waterford School District was approved by voters in Tuesday's general election 1,059 to 500, according to incomplete and unofficial returns. The five-year measure required only a majority.

Chicken stock on hand? Team with tomato juice and heat, seasoning with salt and freshly-ground black pepper. Nice garnished with a thin slice of lemon. The lemon can be fancied up by inserting whole cloves around the edges of the slices.

Leetonia Bond Issue Okayed

LEETONIA—Voters Tuesday approved a $69,000 bond issue to finance construction of a fire station and acquisition of a fire truck and a service truck.

Requiring a 55 per cent affirmative vote for passage, the issue won easily. The complete unofficial count showed: Yes, 1,495, No, 1,045.

The Leetonia School District also approved renewal of a 5-mill operating levy for an indefinite term of years. It required only a majority for passage. The vote showed: Yes, 1,244, No, 642.

Two more issues were decided in Salem and adjoining Perry Township. Salem defeated an initiative ordinance that would have cut the fire department's work week to 56 hours. The unofficial totals: Yes, 3,235, No, 3,390.

Perry Township approved a zoning plan. A bare majority was required for passage. The totals: Yes, 759, No, 613.

A 1½-mill road levy apparently squeezed through by a 9-vote margin in Salem Township. Requiring a majority for passage, the new 3-year measure received this vote: Yes, 1,031, No, 1,022.

Winter Blooming Rose Named After Kennedy

Mrs. J. Henry Shepherd, 611 Harrison St., Newell, whose four rose bushes are in bloom despite the cold, has decided to name them the "Kennedy Rose" in honor of the apparent Presidential winner.

The bushes were a gift to Mr. and Mrs. Shepherd four years ago and since no one seems to know what type of flowers they are, Mrs. Shepherd decided to name them after the Democrat ticket head. They are a deep red.

Bobby Hull, National Hockey League scoring champion last season, became the first player to score three goals in one game this season. He's starring for the Chicago Black Hawks.

Club To Provide Rest Home Cheer

Plans to package gifts for the aged in city rest homes were outlined by members of the Wellsville Women's Civic Club Tuesday night at the Elks Lodge.

The committee includes Miss Marjorie Harkins, Mrs. Jean Broderick, Mrs. Maxine Wellington, Mrs. Evelyn Nightingale and Mrs. Mary Stone.

Mrs. Broderick, president, presided. Donations were made to the Boy Scout Fund drive and the Christmas Seal Fund. The club went on record endorsing a plan by the Fraternal Order of Police Lodge to set up a central blood type file for use in emergencies. A letter will be sent to the FOP.

Plans were outlined for a Christmas dinner and gift exchange at the next meeting Dec. 13. The refreshment committee includes Mrs. Nightingale, Mrs. Helen Welch, Mrs. Kathryn Hutchinson, Mrs. Marjorie Dysert, Mrs. Martha McCune and Mrs. Ruth Fitzsimmons.

Mrs. Louis Lawton will be in charge of the program. Mrs. Lawton won a prize. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Peggy Todd, Mrs. Floreine Broderick and Mrs. Doris McMorrow.

County Jobs Slip But Wages Mount

Employment among 1,100 businesses and industries in Columbiana County declined 3.7 per cent in the 1958-59 period, while wages rose 0.6 per cent, a report from the Ohio Bureau of Unemployment Compensation showed today.

Among major industrial divisions showing a decline were manufacturing, 4.7 per cent, transportation and utilities, 13.6 per cent, services 3.2 per cent, contract construction, 8.4 per cent, and wholesale and retail trade 0.6 per cent.

EMPLOYMENT rose in mining and quarrying 0.2 per cent, and finance, insurance and real estate 3.7 per cent.

Payrolls rose in manufacturing 0.8 per cent, mining, 4.2 per cent, wholesale and retail trade, 2.3 per cent, finance, insurance and real estate, 6.8 per cent, and services, 4.9 per cent.

Wages fell in contract construction — minus 10 per cent — and transportation and utilities — minus 6.1 per cent.

The report covers only those business and industries which filed quarterly tax reports, and does not include such groups as agricultural labor, interstate railroads, government and domestic service, employers with less than three workers and some non-profit organizations.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I most easily remove the talcum powder that has been spilled on a rug?

A. Don't try to sweep it up, since that will only spread it. Hold your vacuum cleaner over the powder to draw off the loose powder. What's left can be removed by rubbing the spot very gently with a damp cloth. Rinse the cloth frequently so the powder that sticks will not go back into the rug.

Q. How can I facilitate the job of ripping out a long seam in a dress I am working on?

A. You can make this job much easier if you hold the material under the pressure foot of your sewing machine, making the pressure foot serve as a "third hand."

Q. How can I prevent some of my gold-plated costume jewelry from tarnishing?

A. You can do this with a coating of colorless fingernail polish. The polish will not harm the finish and will protect it from scratches.

Ohio Farmers Open Annual 3-Day Parley

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio farmers meeting in Columbus today have a chance to express their views about farm program, taxes, highways and other issues. More than 2,000 farm bureau members are expected to attend the 42nd annual three-day meeting of the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation.

Today's topic of discussion revolves around problems directly relating to Ohio's major farm products: livestock, poultry, dairy items, field crops, fruits and vegetables.

About 20 young farm people will compete in a talent contest for expense-free trips to Denver this December to attend the American Farm Bureau Federation's annual meeting.

Raymond A. Ioanes, deputy administrator, foreign agricultural service of the U.S. Department of Agriculture, will be the main speaker at today's session.

Featured speakers Thursday will be American Farm Bureau Federation president Charles B. Shuman and Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, president of the American Red Cross.

Five counties will be honored Thursday with advisory council awards for securing the most new advisory councils. They are Portage, Williams, Clark, Morgan and Pickaway.

Each county was picked from one of the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation's five regional territories of 16 to 20 counties each.

Franklin Local's Levy Is Renewed

SUMMITVILLE — Franklin Local School District voters approved the renewal of a school levy while residents of Franklin Township turned down a new levy but renewed another in Tuesday's general election, according to complete but unofficial returns.

The 4-mill levy for the school district was renewed for 5 years. With a majority vote required, a total of 192 favored the levy while 91 were opposed.

Township voters turned down the proposed new four-tenths-mill police levy. The vote was 122 for and 161 against.

A 2-mill road levy was renewed for 2 years. The vote was 170 in favor and 116 against.

Shippingport Council May Hire Dog Warden

The possibility of hiring a dog catcher was discussed at a meeting of Shippingport Borough Council Monday evening.

Council took no action on filling a councilman's post vacated due to numerous absences of one member. A decision was deferred until the next meeting to be held early on Dec. 1.

Bonds Approved For Columbiana

COLUMBIANA — Exempted village school district voters, turning out in large numbers for the national election Tuesday, approved a $454,000 bond issue and an additional 2-mill school operating levy.

Both questions received about a 60 per cent favorable vote. Only a majority was required.

The vote from the 12 precincts showed 1,621 for the bond issue and 1,097 against, and the levy, 1,651 for and 1,071 against.

An elementary school will be erected on the South Side where a 10-acre site has been optioned.

The additional levy will provide funds to equip and staff the 12-room building.

About $18,000 from the bond issue will be added to $12,000 in Public Library funds to finance and addition to enlarge the library space about a third.

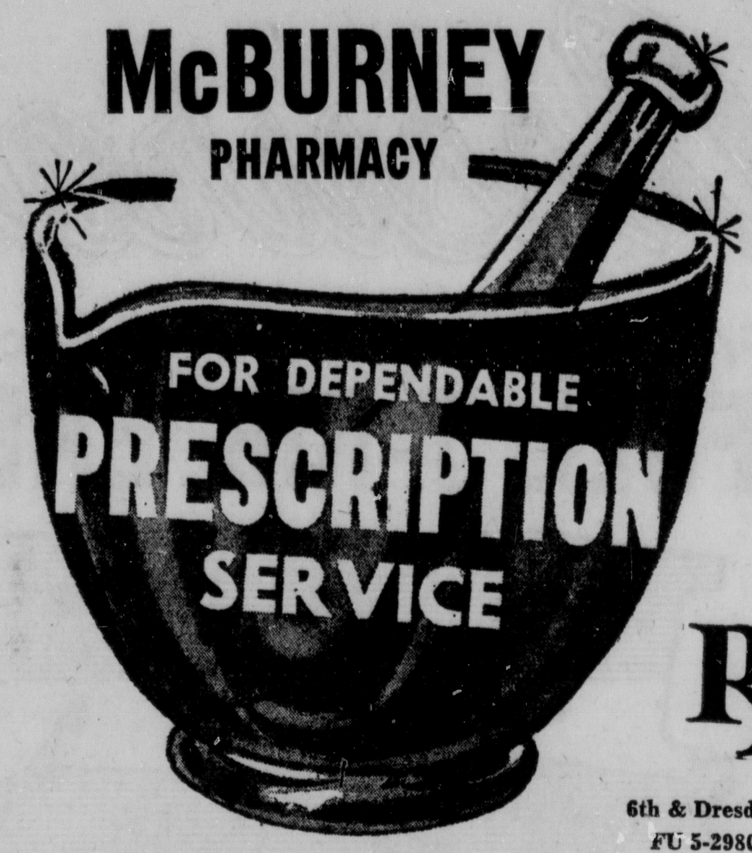

The new school building is required by the continuing growth of enrollment, which school officials figure will require 3 additional classrooms a year, at least until 1966.

Nixon's Near To Defeat But Delays Concession

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon appeared close to defeat today in his bid for the presidency, but he held off on any formal concession to Sen. John F. Kennedy.

With his wife Pat sobbing heartbrokenly at his side, he went before about 1,000 campaign workers shortly after midnight and declared: "If the present trend continues, Sen. Kennedy will be the next president of the United States."

As millions of Americans watched the dramatic spectacle on television and listened on radio, Nixon went on: "I want Sen. Kennedy to know—and I want all of you to know—that certainly, if this trend does continue, and he does become our next president, he will have my wholehearted support . . .

". . .My congratulations to Sen. Kennedy for his fine race in this campaign."

About an hour after Nixon and his wife had made their appearance before the workers, many of them crying audibly, press secretary Herbert G. Klein told a news conference that the election still was undecided. As Nixon had done earlier, Klein kept talking about "if" Kennedy should win in the end.

Mrs. Nixon, however, gave some indication that she felt the race was lost.

While her husband conferred with aides before making his statement in a ballroom of the Ambassador Hotel, Mrs. Nixon suddenly burst through the door and kissed each of three Secret Service men who had been assigned to the vice president during the campaign.

"I love you all," she said, and then added with a wry smile: "I guess I'll have to get a job teaching again."

The vice president seemed on the verge of his first defeat in his 14 years in politics—first as a member of the House, then as a senator and finally holder of the second highest elective office in the land.

When he finally was able to speak, Nixon started off: "I was going to say that I thought we had the last rally of the campaign, but here we go again."

He said it normally is the custom for a candidate not to make a public appearance until the outcome is definite, "and all the votes are counted beyond doubt." Nixon noted it was 3:25 a.m. in the East and said he wanted to speak to his workers and those watching television.

"As I look at the (bulletin) board here, while there are still some results to come in, if the present trend continues, Sen. Kennedy will be the next president of the United States," Nixon said.

Nixon said he had only two hours sleep the previous night, and only two hours the night before.

"So, I am going to bed, and I hope you do too."

At his news conference, Klein was asked whether the vice president was ready to concede election of Kennedy.

"I believe that the vice president's statement covered the entire subject," Klein replied. Asked whether Nixon still had any hope of winning, the press secretary noted that not all the votes had been counted.

"There are states still in doubt," he added, specifying California and Illinois as examples.

Nixon originally had intended to fly back to Washington Thursday. But Klein announced that the vice president would change his plans and start back across the continent about midday today.

Insurance Aide To Talk To PTA At Hookstown

Scout Camp To Be Planned

Plans for a winter encampment Jan. 6-8 at Camp McKinley will be outlined at a monthly meeting of the Cherokee Boy Scout Roundtable tonight at 7:30 at the YMCA.

Over 100 are expected at the meeting, Robert Gray, executive, said.

A report on Boy Scout Fund drives in areas not connected with Community Chest organizations was given at a meeting of the district committee Tuesday night at the Chester American Legion home.

The drives at West Point and Salineville are to be completed this week, and the campaign at Wellsville — about 75 per cent finished — should end shortly.

A total of $110 was collected in the drive at Summitville.

Thomas Snow, chairman, presided at last night's meeting at which Ray Elliott of East Liverpool, new member of the campaign camping activities committee, was introduced. Ten institutional representatives also attended.

"No one did more for the Yankees than you did," ex-Postmaster General Jim Farley told Casey Stengel when the New York baseball writers feted the Old Professor.

Third base coach Bill Hitchcock served five managers in his six-year tenure with the Detroit Tigers. He was released at the close of the 1960 campaign.

Biggest wagering day in Maryland history occured at Laurel on International Day in 1958. A total of $2,645,834 was bet.

Elkton Church Film Planned

A film, "John Wesley," will be screened at the Elkton Methodist Church Monday night by the Senior Methodist Youth Fellowship. A goodwill offering will be taken.

Mrs. Leland Baker held a family party Sunday night in honor of the birthday anniversary of her mother, Mrs. Raymond Apple.

Mr. and Mrs. George Clay of Girard were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Crawford. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Deville of Salem visited Mr. and Mrs. Crawford Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Westover have returned from a two-week vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Williams and family of Cave Creek, Ariz.

Mrs. Robert Huffman is convalescing after an appendectomy at the Osteopathic Hospital.

Wellsville Boy Hurt When Struck By Car

A 7-year-old Wellsville boy was hospitalized with injuries suffered when struck by a car on Broadway, Wellsville, Tuesday afternoon at 3:45.

Police said the boy darted from behind a parked car into the path of a car driven by James D. Elliott, 817 Broadway, Wellsville. The mishap occurred near 8th St., police said.

The youth was knocked to the pavement.

Nixon's Near To Defeat But Delays Concession

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon appeared close to defeat today in his bid for the presidency, but he held off on any formal concession to Sen. John F. Kennedy.

With his wife Pat sobbing heartbrokenly at his side, he went before about 1,000 campaign workers shortly after midnight and declared: "If the present trend continues, Sen. Kennedy will be the next president of the United States."

As millions of Americans watched the dramatic spectacle on television and listened on radio, Nixon went on: "I want Sen. Kennedy to know—and I want all of you to know—that certainly, if this trend does continue, and he does become our next president, he will have my wholehearted support . . .

About an hour after Nixon and his wife had made their appearance before the workers, many of them crying audibly, press secretary Herbert G. Klein told a news conference that the election still was undecided. As Nixon had done earlier, Klein kept talking about "if" Kennedy should win in the end.

Mrs. Nixon, however, gave some indication that she felt the race was lost.

While her husband conferred with aides before making his statement in a ballroom of the Ambassador Hotel, Mrs. Nixon suddenly burst through the door and kissed each of three Secret Service men who had been assigned to the vice president during the campaign.

"I love you all," she said, and then added with a wry smile: "I guess I'll have to get a job teaching again."

The vice president seemed on the verge of his first defeat in his 14 years in politics—first as a member of the House, then as a senator and finally holder of the second highest elective office in the land.

When he finally was able to speak, Nixon started off: "I was going to say that I thought we had the last rally of the campaign, but here we go again."

He said it normally is the custom for a candidate not to make a public appearance until the outcome is definite, "and all the votes are counted beyond doubt." Nixon noted it was 3:15 a.m. in the East and said he wanted to speak to his workers and those watching television.

"As I look at the (bulletin) board here, while there are still some results to come in, if the present trend continues, Sen. Kennedy will be the next president of the United States," Nixon said.

Nixon said he had only two hours sleep the previous night, and only two hours the night before.

"So, I am going to bed, and I hope you do too."

At his news conference, Klein was asked whether the vice president was ready to concede election of Kennedy.

"I believe that the vice president's statement covered the entire subject," Klein replied. Asked whether Nixon still had any hope of winning, the press secretary noted that not all the votes had been counted.

"There are states still in doubt," he added, specifying California and Illinois as examples.

Nixon originally had intended to fly back to Washington Thursday. But Klein announced that the vice president would change his plans and start back across the continent about midday today.

Scout Camp To Be Planned

Plans for a winter encampment Jan. 6-8 at Camp McKinley will be outlined at a monthly meeting of the Cherokee Boy Scout Roundtable tonight at 7:30 at the YMCA.

Over 100 are expected at the meeting, Robert Gray, executive, said.

A report on Boy Scout Fund drives in areas not connected with Community Chest organizations was given at a meeting of the district committee Tuesday night at the Chester American Legion home.

The drives at West Point and Salineville are to be completed this week, and the campaign at Wellsville — about 75 per cent finished — should end shortly.

A total of $110 was collected in the drive at Summitville.

Thomas Snow, chairman, presided at last night's meeting at which Ray Elliott of East Liverpool, new member of the campaign camping activities committee, was introduced. Ten institutional representatives also attended.

"No one did more for the Yankees than you did," ex-Postmaster General Jim Farley told Casey Stengel when the New York baseball writers feted the Old Professor.

Third base coach Bill Hitchcock served five managers in his six-year tenure with the Detroit Tigers. He was released at the close of the 1960 campaign.

Biggest wagering day in Maryland history occured at Laurel on International Day in 1958. A total of $2,645,834 was bet.

Elkton Church Film Planned

A film, "John Wesley," will be screened at the Elkton Methodist Church Monday night by the Senior Methodist Youth Fellowship. A goodwill offering will be taken.

Mrs. Leland Baker held a family party Sunday night in honor of the birthday anniversary of her mother, Mrs. Raymond Apple.

Mr. and Mrs. George Clay of Girard were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Crawford. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Deville of Salem visited Mr. and Mrs. Crawford Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Westover have returned from a two-week vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Williams and family of Cave Creek, Ariz.

Mrs. Robert Huffman is convalescing after an appendectomy at the Osteopathic Hospital.

Wellsville Boy Hurt When Struck By Car

A 7-year-old Wellsville boy was hospitalized with injuries suffered when struck by a car on Broadway, Wellsville, Tuesday afternoon at 3:45.

Police said the boy darted from behind a parked car into the path of a car driven by James D. Elliott, 817 Broadway, Wellsville. The mishap occurred near 8th St., police said.

The youth was knocked to the pavement.

District Gridders To Stage Last Big Fling This Weekend

Salem Needs Nod To Become Area's Winningest Team

The last big weekend of football on the local scene begins this Friday with eight games, followed by the East Liverpool-Canton Central clash Saturday night at Canton.

The Potter-Alliance battle at East Liverpool and Columbiana's encounter with Louisville then will wind up the 1960 slate Nov. 18.

The only schools which could tie Salem for the title are Beaver Local and Columbiana. Both have posted 7-2 records.

Beaver Local will travel to Northwest Friday night while Columbiana must face the perennial Tri-County champions, East Palestine.

Palestine has a record of 6-1-1 and must win Friday to keep pace with Poland. Palestine and Poland are deadlocked for the league lead with 5 victories and 1 defeat.

The Wellsville Tigers can finish up with one of their best marks in more than a decade when they travel to Leetonia Friday night. Wellsville will be a heavy favorite, since the Bears have captured only one of eight games.

Two Hancock County rivals hook up in what should be a spine-tingler Friday night at Chester's City Park.

Coach Dom Amedeo's team enters the fray with a 3-5 mark, while New Cumberland sports a 3-6 record.

Stanton Local (5-4) winds up its season Friday at Springfield, while Lisbon, winner of its last three games, plays its finale at Canton-Jackson.

Fairfield-Waterford will be battling to finish the season above the .500 mark when it travels to McDonald. The Rebels of Coach Bruce Weber are 4-4 going into their final contest.

East Liverpool, assured of a winning season after battling through a tough schedule, faces a big test at Canton Central Saturday. Central shows a 7-1 record and was ranked 17th in the state this week.

The Potters were voted 24th, climbing higher after knocking Salem from the unbeaten list and out of the top 10 last Friday.

Scribe Picks OSU Over Iowa; Vols In Upset Of Miss.

NEW YORK (AP) — Who says political forecasters are the only ones who have trouble with close November contests? In 56 college football decisions last week this corner sank to a 17-year low and was right only 32 times. That's an average of .507. The seasonal record now is 282-105—.730.

So starting on a new campaign:

Ohio State over Iowa: Hawkeyes have the support of their own fans plus the incentive of trying to give coach Evashevski a victory in his final home game. But Ohio State has Tom Mattte and Bob Ferguson. They are more important. This one is on TV.

Minnesota over Purdue: The fictional Tom Brown went to Rugby and Oxford, but Purdue will become the eighth team this season to learn there is nothing fictional about the Tom Brown who anchors the Minnesota line.

Duke over Wake Forest: If Duke wins, the Blue Devils are the Atlantic Coast Conference champs.

Navy over Virginia: The Cavaliers are the losingest team in college football. Joe Bellino adds another setback to their string.

Pittsburgh over Army; The Panthers probably are the best team in the East—and quite likely have been all season despite their 4-2-2 record.

Baylor over Southern California: They have a different type of sunshine in Texas.

Yale over Princeton: The championship of the venerable Big Three goes to the winner; probably the Ivy League title as well.

Sword Dancer Dropped From International

LAUREL, Md. (AP)—It never rains but it pours around Laurel Park, and the brass was chewing fingernails and taking double aspirins today as the hour for the $100,000 Washington D.C. International neared.

The Brookmeade Stables' Sword Dancer, 1959 horse of the year, was withdrawn — and retired — Tuesday due to an ankle injury.

Then the stewards at Aqueduct disqualified a horse ridden by Manuel Ycaza, the Panamanian pepperpot. Ycaza is the jockey who won the 1959 International with the Cain Hoy Stable's Bald Eagle. He is scheduled to pilot the horse again Friday in the 1½-mile grass-course classic.

The nine horses from five foreign countries who complete the field presently are hale and hearty along with their riders.

Steelers' Rechichar Sidelined For Season

PITTSBIRGH (AP) — A torn leg muscle has sidelined place kicker Bert Rechichar of the Pittsburgh Steelers for the rest of the year.

The Steelers said Tuesday Rechichar has been placed on the injured reserve list.

Wellsville Lists 3 New Cage Foes

Three new opponents are listed on Wellsville High's 1960-61 basketball schedule announced today by Don Lowe, faculty manager.

Coach Jack McDevitt's Sectional runners-up (16-5 last season) tackle a new foe in their opening season test—Dec. 6 at home against Youngstown Woodrow Wilson.

providing Central's new gymnasium under construction is completed by Feb. 7. The return date with Central will be played in Wellsville if the new facility is not finished.

The Tigers again list old rivals in East Liverpool, Chester, and Toronto, on a home-and-home basis. Single dates are lined up with Midland and Salem.

The 17-game schedule includes 9 home games and 8 away. The Tigers have open dates Dec. 13 and Jan. 20.

The schedule follows:

Dec. 6 Youngstown Wilson, home
Dec. 9 Lisbon, home
Dec. 13 Open
Dec. 20 Freedom, away
Jan. 3 East Liverpool, away
Jan. 6 Toronto, away
Jan. 10 Steubenville Central, home
Jan. 13 Chester, away

Feb. 17 Toronto, home
Feb. 21 East Liverpool, home

City Industrial Loop Will Meet Tonight

Sponsors of teams interested in playing in the City Industrial League are requested to attend a meeting tonight at 8:30 at the Travelers Hotel. Officials of the Little Potters organization, sponsor of the league, request all sponsors or team captains to turn in their entry fee tonight.

The Tigers also face new opponents in Freedom and Ambridge, both Pennsylvania clubs.

Dropped from the Wellsville schedule of last year are Beaver Local, Mingo, and Tink Healey's Northwest Indians.

Wellsville will play two games this year with Steubenville Central Catholic on a home-and-home basis

Coach Fought Alumni, Fans

Warmath's Gophers Touched Bottom Before Going To Top

By JIM KLOBUCHAR

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Murray Warmath is a large, robust Tennessean who was brought up to appreciate the value of a square meal and who therefore asks no one to dine on crow.

The coach wants none of it.

"I didn't have any quarrels with anyone one two years ago and I don't have any now," he said. "I'm just happy the state is united behind this fine football team of their's."

Warmath is a man of pride and oaken will who bears his torment inwardly and his triumphs the same way. His dignified restraint in the face of clamoring criticism brought neutralists to his side in the state's football feud two years ago.

Murray Warmath's great achievement at Minnesota does not actually show on the scoreboard, although it is reflected there.

Confronted with a virtual civil war among alumni, fans and school officials over his stewardship in 1958 and '59, he held his losing team's morale together and—at a time he was losing 15 to 18 games—built the foundation for his current Big Ten title contender.

MURRAY WARMATH

Warmath would not express it this was publicly. He wants no impression of rejoicing in the discomfort of his would-be executioners.

"I don't want to reopen old sores," he said.

Warmath came to Minnesota from Mississippi State in 1954 a total stranger. The alumni and fans wanted Oklahoma's Bud Wilkinson, a former Gopher hero, but the school let him slip away.

Warmath off winging to a 7-2 start in 1954. He was 3-6 in 1955 and missed the Rose Bowl by one touchdown in 1956. Then he ran into catastrophe.

His 1957 team, a pre-season favorite, won three in a row but was run over in its last five conference games. What damaged Warmath more than anything was a breakdown in squad morale.

College Football In '60 Doesn't Need To Apologize

By FOREST EVASHEVSKI
Iowa Football Coach
(Written for the Associated Press)

Don't believe some of the critics who are long on lungs and short on knowledge: College football in 1960 does not need to apologize for any aspect of it.

It is well-regulated and administered, a healthy rallying point for students, a tie between the alumni and their alma mater and a Saturday afternoon outlet for the public.

Because a young man is a good football player he can earn a scholarship which might not otherwise be available to him. Football, therefore, provides his means of securing a college education.

Eligibility regulations are a motivating factor in causing the player to improve his grade-point average. If he wants to play, of course, he must achieve the necessary standards and so he must exert himself mentally more than the average student.

The approach to the game is more thorough and scientific than ever before. Our coaching staffs are meticulous in preparation of the players. The game has become so complex that a player must keep mentally alert if he is to master the various situations.

Because of the impact of television and radio, more people than ever before are college football-conscious. Seeing it or listening to it, they become attracted and the next move is to be present at the game itself.

Equipment companies are constantly making improvement in their products. This serves to reduce injuries.

Sometimes it seems strange that is has become fashionable to criticize football. Unfortunately, most of these critics do not bother to recognize the true facts. There are many cases where the critic actually has an ax to grind, makes no pretense of being fair and is against football on general principles.

Plum Holds No. 1 Spot In Passing; Jim Brown Slips

NEW YORK (AP) —Milt Plum of the Cleveland Browns threw his 99th pass of the season without an interception last Sunday and held his place as No. 1 passer in the National Football League. But teammate Jimmy Brown bounced back off the New York Giants defensive platoon too often and dropped from first to third in rushing.

Plum, the Browns quarterback held the top spot for the third straight week. He has completed 68 out of 99 attempts, and has gained a total of 1,075 yards and passed for eight touchdowns.

When Cleveland was limited to six yards net on the ground by the Giants, Brown was passed by Jim Taylor of Green Bay and John Crow of St. Louis. Taylor has gained 540 yards on 128 attempts, Crow 524 yards and Brown 521. Brown has the best average of the three, 5.5 yards a carry.

Scribe Picks OSU Over Iowa; Vols In Upset Of Miss.

NEW YORK (AP) — Who says political forecasters are the only ones who have trouble with close November contests? In 56 college football decisions last week this corner sank to a 17-year low and was right only 32 times. That's an average of .507. The seasonal record now is 282-105—.730.

So starting on a new campaign:

Ohio State over Iowa: Hawkeyes have the support of their own fans plus the incentive of trying to give coach Evashevski a victory in his final home game. But Ohio State has Tom Mattte and Bob Ferguson. They are more important. This one is on TV.

Minnesota over Purdue: The fictional Tom Brown went to Rugby and Oxford, but Purdue will become the eighth team this season to learn there is nothing fictional about the Tom Brown who anchors the Minnesota line.

Duke over Wake Forest: If Duke wins, the Blue Devils are the Atlantic Coast Conference champs.

Navy over Virginia: The Cavaliers are the losingest team in college football. Joe Bellino adds another setback to their string.

Pittsburgh over Army; The Panthers probably are the best team in the East—and quite likely have been all season despite their 4-2-2 record.

Baylor over Southern California: They have a different type of sunshine in Texas.

Yale over Princeton: The championship of the venerable Big Three goes to the winner; probably the Ivy League title as well.

Sword Dancer Dropped From International

LAUREL, Md. (AP)—It never rains but it pours around Laurel Park, and the brass was chewing fingernails and taking double aspirins today as the hour for the $100,000 Washington D.C. International neared.

The Brookmeade Stables' Sword Dancer, 1959 horse of the year, was withdrawn — and retired — Tuesday due to an ankle injury.

Then the stewards at Aqueduct disqualified a horse ridden by Manuel Ycaza, the Panamanian pepperpot. Ycaza is the jockey who won the 1959 International with the Cain Hoy Stable's Bald Eagle. He is scheduled to pilot the horse again Friday in the 1½-mile grass-course classic.

The nine horses from five foreign countries who complete the field presently are hale and hearty along with their riders.

Steelers' Rechichar Sidelined For Season

PITTSBIRGH (AP) — A torn leg muscle has sidelined place kicker Bert Rechichar of the Pittsburgh Steelers for the rest of the year.

The Steelers said Tuesday Rechichar has been placed on the injured reserve list.

Rechichar tore the muscle last Sunday in the game against the Philadelphia Eagles. He has been admitted to Mercy Hospital in Pittsburgh for treatment.

City Industrial Loop Will Meet Tonight

Sponsors of teams interested in playing in the City Industrial League are requested to attend a meeting tonight at 8:30 at the Travelers Hotel. Officials of the Little Potters organization, sponsor of the league, request all sponsors or team captains to turn in their entry fee tonight.

The Tigers also face new opponents in Freedom and Ambridge, both Pennsylvania clubs.

Wellsville will play two games this year with Steubenville Central Catholic on a home-and-home basis

Coach Fought Alumni, Fans

By JIM KLOBUCHAR

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Murray Warmath is a large, robust Tennessean who was brought up to appreciate the value of a square meal and who therefore asks no one to dine on crow.

The coach wants none of it.

"I didn't have any quarrels with anyone one two years ago and I don't have any now," he said. "I'm just happy the state is united behind this fine football team of their's."

Warmath is a man of pride and oaken will who bears his torment inwardly and his triumphs the same way. His dignified restraint in the face of clamoring criticism brought neutralists to his side in the state's football feud two years ago.

Murray Warmath's great achievement at Minnesota does not actually show on the scoreboard, although it is reflected there.

Confronted with a virtual civil war among alumni, fans and school officials over his stewardship in 1958 and '59, he held his losing team's morale together and—at a time he was losing 15 to 18 games—built the foundation for his current Big Ten title contender.

MURRAY WARMATH

Warmath would not express it this was publicly. He wants no impression of rejoicing in the discomfort of his would-be executioners.

"I don't want to reopen old sores," he said.

Warmath came to Minnesota from Mississippi State in 1954 a total stranger. The alumni and fans wanted Oklahoma's Bud Wilkinson, a former Gopher hero, but the school let him slip away.

Warmath off winging to a 7-2 start in 1954. He was 3-6 in 1955 and missed the Rose Bowl by one touchdown in 1956. Then he ran into catastrophe.

His 1957 team, a pre-season favorite, won three in a row but was run over in its last five conference games. What damaged Warmath more than anything was a breakdown in squad morale.

College Football In '60 Doesn't Need To Apologize

By FOREST EVASHEVSKI
Iowa Football Coach
(Written for the Associated Press)

Don't believe some of the critics who are long on lungs and short on knowledge: College football in 1960 does not need to apologize for any aspect of it.

It is well-regulated and administered, a healthy rallying point for students, a tie between the alumni and their alma mater and a Saturday afternoon outlet for the public.

Because a young man is a good football player he can earn a scholarship which might not otherwise be available to him. Football, therefore, provides his means of securing a college education.

Eligibility regulations are a motivating factor in causing the player to improve his grade-point average. If he wants to play, of course, he must achieve the necessary standards and so he must exert himself mentally more than the average student.

The approach to the game is more thorough and scientific than ever before. Our coaching staffs are meticulous in preparation of the players. The game has become so complex that a player must keep mentally alert if he is to master the various situations.

Because of the impact of television and radio, more people than ever before are college football-conscious. Seeing it or listening to it, they become attracted and the next move is to be present at the game itself.

Equipment companies are constantly making improvement in their products. This serves to reduce injuries.

Sometimes it seems strange that is has become fashionable to criticize football. Unfortunately, most of these critics do not bother to recognize the true facts. There are many cases where the critic actually has an ax to grind, makes no pretense of being fair and is against football on general principles.

Plum Holds No. 1 Spot In Passing; Jim Brown Slips

NEW YORK (AP) —Milt Plum of the Cleveland Browns threw his 99th pass of the season without an interception last Sunday and held his place as No. 1 passer in the National Football League. But teammate Jimmy Brown bounced back off the New York Giants defensive platoon too often and dropped from first to third in rushing.

Plum, the Browns quarterback held the top spot for the third straight week. He has completed 68 out of 99 attempts, and has gained a total of 1,075 yards and passed for eight touchdowns.

When Cleveland was limited to six yards net on the ground by the Giants, Brown was passed by Jim Taylor of Green Bay and John Crow of St. Louis. Taylor has gained 540 yards on 128 attempts, Crow 524 yards and Brown 521. Brown has the best average of the three, 5.5 yards a carry.

Browns Are Picked By 11 Over Cards

CLEVELAND (AP)--The Cleveland Browns are rated 11-point favorites over the St. Louis Cardinals for Sunday's National Football League game here, but the Browns aren't looking for an easy victory.

There are two reasons for the wholesome respect the Browns are according the Cards:

1. The 20-13 victory St. Louis scored over the New York Giant two weeks ago.

2. Halfback John David Crow, 25-year-old former Texas A & M star who last weekend moved ahead of Cleveland's Jim Brown and into the runnerup spot in rushing gains.

Coach Paul Brown said after watching the film of the Cards-Giants game: "They really whipped 'em. The Giants were lucky to be that close."

Crow, in his third season of professional football, has gained 524 yards in 107 carries for a 4.9-yard average. That compares with Jim Brown's 521 yards in 95 attempts and 5.5 - yard average. Green Bay's Jim Taylor is the league leader with 540 yards in 126 attempts, an average of 4.2 yards.

Cleveland's Bobby Mitchell has slipped down to ninth, with 349 yards on 68 carries for an even five-yard average.

Crow, a 6-foot-2, 219-pounder, was a high school track star. In addition to his running threat, he can pass. Last Sunday against Washington he ran 30 and four yards for two touchdowns and passed for two others. He has a total of eight touchdowns in seven game.

Only Two Teams Near Offense Of Past Champions

By The Associated Press

With the 1960 major college football season heading into the homestretch, only two teams are even close to the total offense figure that has been standard for champions for nearly 20 years.

Latest figures from the NCAA Service Bureau show that for seven games New Mexico State has averaged 394.6 yards by runnning and passing. Memphis State 384.5 for eight games.

For the past 19 years, every total offense champion has averaged at least 400 yards a game.

OSU Alumni Club To Meet Nov. 16

Ohio State University's role in meeting the future needs of higher education will be the theme of a meeting of the Ohio State Alumni Club of Columbiana County Nov. 16 at the Country Club.

Dr. John E. Corbally Jr., director of the university's personnel budget, will be the principal speaker. The affair will begin at 6:30 p. m.

He will discuss Ohio State's "missions" of instruction, research and service, pointing out how the comprehensive university provides quality opportunity for study in nearly every field. He will illustrate his talk with color slides.

Dr. Myer Alpern, president, said the county meeting is one of a series of special alumni programs to be held in all 88 counties within the next 4 months.

Celtics Late Bid Earns 136-120 Win

CINCINNATI (AP)—Bob Cousy, Bill Sharman and Sam Jones went on late-game scoring sprees Tuesday night that helped the Boston Celtics to a 136-120 National Basketball Association victory over the Cincinnati Royals before an election night crowd of 9,202.

The Celtics pulled away after the Royals had drawn into a tie at 109-109. In the third quarter, Cousy racked up 12 points to keep his team out in front when Cincinnati rallied from a seven-point halftime deficit and took the lead at 80-79.

Aces Nips Springfield To Close On Leaders

QUEBEC (AP) — The Quebec Aces pulled within two points of the first place Springfield Indians in the American Hockey League by beating the league leaders 3-2 Tuesday night.

A crowd of 7,907 saw Jackie LeClair slam home what proved to be the winning goal at 13:08 of the second period after Springfield had rallied to tie at 2-2.

It was the second time in three days the Aces beat the Indians.

264-Pound Tackle Counts On Own Rooting Section

A pizza cook, mill worker, bartender and one-time band leader, Big Daddy attends college at the age of 29 because he wants to become a teacher.

"A good education is the only security," declares Manuel, who daily must study, work and find time for football since Humboldt has no athletic scholarships. Currently he puts in a 48-hour working week as a bartender.

It isn't easy to keep playing football. A few weeks ago the Lumberjacks were scheduled to play a Friday night game against the Cal Aggies at Davis.

Simas worked the night shift Thursday, slept three hours and drove his own car to catch up with the team at its luncheon stop. He played the game, and then drove back home to be ready for work at 10 a.m. after a round trip of about 600 miles.

He and his 105-pound wife, Jean provide a comfortable home for their brood. There are David Manuel, 11; Diana Marie, 10; Dennis Michael, 9; Donald Mark, 7; Douglas Matthew, 6; Daniel Marvin, 5; and Debra Marie, 3.

Simas has proved himself versatile. At school he majors in speech and foreign languages and for a living the 5-foot-11 gridder has been most everything from a cook to a bandleader, playing the saxophone and clarinet.

3 Set Out OSU Drill

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Three Buckeyes sat out Ohio State rough two-hour football practice Tuesday, while the rest of the team worked against Iowa offensive and defensive patterns. But the three—end Tom Perdue, tackle Daryl Sanders and end Chuck Bryant—are expected to be ready for play against the Hawkeyes Saturday in the nationally televised clash.

The Cleveland Indians released coaches Ralph Kress and Ed Fitz-Gerald when the baseball season closed.

Conference Planned On Forests And Parks

Representatives of local rural and urban organizations in the south half of the county, including Lisbon, East Liverpool, Wellsville, Salineville and 10 townships, will meet in the city hall at Lisbon, Nov. 21 at 8 p.m. to discuss the development of state parks and forests located in the county.

Floyd Lower, county extension agent in agriculture, said officials of the Ohio Department of Natural Resources will participate in the discussion.

A proposed council will probably be organized to promote the work. Interested individuals may attend. The meeting has been called by officers of an old committee which functioned some years ago.

Browns Are Picked By 11 Over Cards

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Browns are rated 11-point favorites over the St. Louis Cardinals for Sunday's National Football League game here, but the Browns aren't looking for an easy victory.

There are two reasons for the wholesome respect the Browns are according the Cards:

1. The 20-13 victory St. Louis scored over the New York Giant two weeks ago.

2. Halfback John David Crow, 25-year-old former Texas A & M star who last weekend moved ahead of Cleveland's Jim Brown and into the runnerup spot in rushing gains.

Coach Paul Brown said after watching the film of the Cards-Giants game: "They really whipped 'em. The Giants were lucky to be that close."

Crow, in his third season of professional football, has gained 524 yards in 107 carries for a 4.9-yard average. That compares with Jim Brown's 521 yards in 95 attempts and 5.5 - yard average. Green Bay's Jim Taylor is the league leader with 540 yards in 126 attempts, an average of 4.2 yards.

Cleveland's Bobby Mitchell has slipped down to ninth, with 349 yards on 68 carries for an even five-yard average.

Crow, a 6-foot-2, 219-pounder, was a high school track star. In addition to his running threat, he can pass. Last Sunday against Washington he ran 30 and four yards for two touchdowns and passed for two others. He has a total of eight touchdowns in seven game.

Only Two Teams Near Offense Of Past Champions

By The Associated Press

With the 1960 major college football season heading into the homestretch, only two teams are even close to the total offense figure that has been standard for champions for nearly 20 years.

Latest figures from the NCAA Service Bureau show that for seven games New Mexico State has averaged 394.6 yards by runnning and passing. Memphis State 384.5 for eight games.

For the past 19 years, every total offense champion has averaged at least 400 yards a game.

OSU Alumni Club To Meet Nov. 16

Ohio State University's role in meeting the future needs of higher education will be the theme of a meeting of the Ohio State Alumni Club of Columbiana County Nov. 16 at the Country Club.

Dr. John E. Corbally Jr., director of the university's personnel budget, will be the principal speaker. The affair will begin at 6:30 p. m.

He will discuss Ohio State's "missions" of instruction, research and service, pointing out how the comprehensive university provides quality opportunity for study in nearly every field. He will illustrate his talk with color slides.

Dr. Myer Alpern, president, said the county meeting is one of a series of special alumni programs to be held in all 88 counties within the next 4 months.

Celtics Late Bid Earns 136-120 Win

CINCINNATI (AP)—Bob Cousy, Bill Sharman and Sam Jones went on late-game scoring sprees Tuesday night that helped the Boston Celtics to a 136-120 National Basketball Association victory over the Cincinnati Royals before an election night crowd of 9,202.

The Celtics pulled away after the Royals had drawn into a tie at 109-109. In the third quarter, Cousy racked up 12 points to keep his team out in front when Cincinnati rallied from a seven-point halftime deficit and took the lead at 80-79.

Aces Nips Springfield To Close On Leaders

QUEBEC (AP) — The Quebec Aces pulled within two points of the first place Springfield Indians in the American Hockey League by beating the league leaders 3-2 Tuesday night.

A crowd of 7,907 saw Jackie LeClair slam home what proved to be the winning goal at 13:08 of the second period after Springfield had rallied to tie at 2-2.

It was the second time in three days the Aces beat the Indians.

OSU Athletic Council Picks Alternate Member

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Dr. Elmer F. Baumer of Columbus has been elected an alternate member of the Ohio State University Athletic Council.

Dr. Baumer, an associate professor in the department of agricultural economics and rural sociology, will serve in place of Elliot L. Whitaker, who is on leave of absence until Oct. 1, 1961.

264-Pound Tackle Counts On Own Rooting Section

A pizza cook, mill worker, bartender and one-time band leader, Big Daddy attends college at the age of 29 because he wants to become a teacher.

"A good education is the only security," declares Manuel, who daily must study, work and find time for football since Humboldt has no athletic scholarships. Currently he puts in a 48-hour working week as a bartender.

It isn't easy to keep playing football. A few weeks ago the Lumberjacks were scheduled to play a Friday night game against the Cal Aggies at Davis.

Simas worked the night shift Thursday, slept three hours and drove his own car to catch up with the team at its luncheon stop. He played the game, and then drove back home to be ready for work at 10 a.m. after a round trip of about 600 miles.

He and his 105-pound wife, Jean provide a comfortable home for their brood. There are David Manuel, 11; Diana Marie, 10; Dennis Michael, 9; Donald Mark, 7; Douglas Matthew, 6; Daniel Marvin, 5; and Debra Marie, 3.

Simas has proved himself versatile. At school he majors in speech and foreign languages and for a living the 5-foot-11 gridder has been most everything from a cook to a bandleader, playing the saxophone and clarinet.

3 Set Out OSU Drill

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Three Buckeyes sat out Ohio State rough two-hour football practice Tuesday, while the rest of the team worked against Iowa offensive and defensive patterns. But the three—end Tom Perdue, tackle Daryl Sanders and end Chuck Bryant—are expected to be ready for play against the Hawkeyes Saturday in the nationally televised clash.

The Cleveland Indians released coaches Ralph Kress and Ed Fitz-Gerald when the baseball season closed.

Conference Planned On Forests And Parks

Representatives of local rural and urban organizations in the south half of the county, including Lisbon, East Liverpool, Wellsville, Salineville and 10 townships, will meet in the city hall at Lisbon, Nov. 21 at 8 p.m. to discuss the development of state parks and forests located in the county.

Floyd Lower, county extension agent in agriculture, said officials of the Ohio Department of Natural Resources will participate in the discussion.

A proposed council will probably be organized to promote the work. Interested individuals may attend. The meeting has been called by officers of an old committee which functioned some years ago.

By R. L. LIDE

Ducks are very scarce in this area for some reason. Could be that we haven't had enough rough weather for the main migration to get under way.

Either that or they are passing us up. At any rate, ducks are practically non-existent on our local waters.

Both Canada and snow geese have been seen circling Lake Guilford and the Salem Reservoir without landing. I don't think you have to be a hunter to get a thrill out of seeing a large flock of wild geese honking away while they fly high overhead.

PLANS ARE to release 50 cock pheasants on both the Highlandtown and Zepernick area shortly before the hunting season opens Nov. 15 at 9 a. m. The two commercial shooting preserves will provide the birds according to law under the provisions which they operate.

These pheasants are released in hope the hunters will bag them. It is not a restocking operation. It is doubtful that the hunters will get them all, but it should stimulate a little hunting on these public hunting areas. There are also a few quail on both areas which become legal quarry when the season opens.

At this time I would like to request all honest trappers to cooperate with the game protectors in a special effort to bring as many out-of-season trappers before our county judges as possible.

Most all trappers look over the various streams and ditches before the season opens and they will find traps set that I know nothing about.

MAKE NO mistake about it, if I have a list of the "most wanted" illegal trappers they have a surprise coming to them sooner or later. Don't be afraid to report them. The only way they will ever learn will be the hard way. A man or boy trapping out of season is stealing furs that belong to all the trappers on equal basis during the legal season.

I hope I am reporting in good taste when I say that we have three fine county judges in this county. One thing I know as far as fish or game violations are concerned is the penalty has suited the circumstances and might not be understood by the public when one subject is fined with the fine suspended while the next one is rapped $50 and costs for the same offense.

One subject tried to get by with a back-dated license that not only cause the aggravation in his case but got a license agent in trouble along with him. Under such conditions the subject got no leniency.

The Beaver Creek Sportsmen Club of Washingtonville, entertained the local farmers with a banquet at their clubhouse Monday night.

The Petersburg Fish and Game Association will do likewise on the 10th, with good speakers provided. The purpose of both events is a simple "thank you" for their allowing hunters to hunt on their farms. You won't find any "hunting hoodlums" attending such occasions.

UCLA's Kilmer Named Back-Of-Week

By The Associated Press

For the second time this season, Bill Kilmer, who plays tailback in UCLA's single-wing formation, has been named the Associated Press back of the week for doing everything a tailback is supposed to do.

Kilmer, who runs, passes, kicks and confuses the opposition by faking one of these maneuvers and performing another, was first named for his feats against Purdue in the second game of the season. He was named again today for an even more impressive performance in last Saturday's 28-0 victory over California.

Kilmer barely beat out Ed Dyas, Auburn's record-smashing place kicker, on the basis of recommendations of sports writers and broadcasters.

Set up all four UCLA touchdowns, scoring two himself on short line smashes.

Passed and ran for 225 yards for a six-game average of 191 yards a game. Gained 109 yards on 16 running attempts and completed 8 of 11 passes for 116 yards.

Got off a quick kick of 73 yards from scrimmage and completed a couple of long passes on fake kick maneuvers.

Dyas broke one NCAA record and tied another when he kicked two field goals against Mississippi State and barely missed another when his 49-yard effort bounced off the crossbar. His nine field goals for the season established a record, and his career total of 13 tied the NCAA mark.

The Auburn fullback also scored two touchdowns on runs of 22 and 52 yards, set up another with a 25-yard run, caught a pass for 16 yards and kicked three extra points. That was a 21-point performance in a 27-12 victory.

Supply Of Small Game Seen Average For Ohio Hunters

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Division of Wildlife says Ohio hunters will find average wildlife populations when they go afield on upland game season opening day Nov. 15. The pheasant population will be about the same statewide as last year, according to the division, but it will vary from region to region. Western Ohio will be better than last year, other areas will be about the same.

Rabbits, still the top game in Ohio, will be down slightly from last year's numbers, and so will quail.

Roger McElroy, Wildlife Division game management supervisor, says he has seen 10 times more blue and snow geese already this season than he has in recent years in northwestern Ohio. He said that more than a week ago flights of blues and snows began coming into the Grand Lake St. Mary's area. Friday Reservoir has been harboring a flock of about 250 geese and ducks. The kill to date in the Mercer County waterfowl refuge area is estimated at 250—more than was shot there during the entire season last year, the division said.

The Wildlife Division says this year's fall stream fishing has been one of the best in a number of years. All streams have been good, but the Maumee and Sandusky rivers were exceptionally fine for smallmouth bass, said officials.

The Division of Forestry says at least 1,000 farms in each northwestern Ohio county need windbreak tree plantings. Such plantings are used in the flat sections of the state to tame winter winds, the division explained. The plantings are placed around farm houses and buildings, and in some cases along roads. The division recommends four trees for windbreaks—Austrian pine, white pine, Norway spruce and arbor vitae.

For the first time since 1955, pheasant hunting will be permitted on the 1,482-acre Indian Creek Wildlife Area, Perry Twp., Brown County. Persicus pheasants from Iraq and Iran will be released in the area during the season. The division said these birds have an unusual, erratic flight pattern, similar to a grouse.

Four West Virginia Jail Escapees Captured

GRAFTON, W. Va. (AP) — Four escapees from the Taylor County jail, objects of an intense manhunt yesterday, were back behind bars today.

Arrested last night, strolling along a country road near Knottsville, were: Wilson Jenkins of Clarksburg, William Chipps and Harold Shaver, both of Salem, and Don Lambert of Grafton.

The four had been transferred here from the Harrison County jail for "safekeeping." But the men, all of whom earlier had escaped the Harrison County jail, overpowered a guard Monday and broke out.

HAVE FUN—HAVE A BURGER

By R. L. LIDE

Ducks are very scarce in this area for some reason. Could be that we haven't had enough rough weather for the main migration to get under way.

Either that or they are passing us up. At any rate, ducks are practically non-existent on our local waters.

Both Canada and snow geese have been seen circling Lake Guilford and the Salem Reservoir without landing. I don't think you have to be a hunter to get a thrill out of seeing a large flock of wild geese honking away while they fly high overhead.

PLANS ARE to release 50 cock pheasants on both the Highlandtown and Zepernick area shortly before the hunting season opens Nov. 15 at 9 a. m. The two commercial shooting preserves will provide the birds according to law under the provisions which they operate.

These pheasants are released in hope the hunters will bag them. It is not a restocking operation. It is doubtful that the hunters will get them all, but it should stimulate a little hunting on these public hunting areas. There are also a few quail on both areas which become legal quarry when the season opens.

At this time I would like to request all honest trappers to cooperate with the game protectors in a special effort to bring as many out-of-season trappers before our county judges as possible.

Most all trappers look over the various streams and ditches before the season opens and they will find traps set that I know nothing about.

MAKE NO mistake about it, if I have a list of the "most wanted" illegal trappers they have a surprise coming to them sooner or later. Don't be afraid to report them. The only way they will ever learn will be the hard way. A man or boy trapping out of season is stealing furs that belong to all the trappers on equal basis during the legal season.

I hope I am reporting in good taste when I say that we have three fine county judges in this county. One thing I know as far as fish or game violations are concerned is the penalty has suited the circumstances and might not be understood by the public when one subject is fined with the fine suspended while the next one is rapped $50 and costs for the same offense.

One subject tried to get by with a back-dated license that not only cause the aggravation in his case but got a license agent in trouble along with him. Under such conditions the subject got no leniency.

The Beaver Creek Sportsmen Club of Washingtonville, entertained the local farmers with a banquet at their clubhouse Monday night.

The Petersburg Fish and Game Association will do likewise on the 10th, with good speakers provided. The purpose of both events is a simple "thank you" for their allowing hunters to hunt on their farms. You won't find any "hunting hoodlums" attending such occasions.

As Nation's Representative

Seat In U.N. For Congo's President To Be Proposed

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —The U.N. Credentials Committee was expected to recommend today that Congo President Joseph Kasavubu be seated in the General Assembly as his chaotic young nation's representative.

Kasavubu still faced a battle in the General Assembly, which must approve the committee's action. The nine-nation Soviet bloc and at least eight Asian and African nations were spearheading a move to give U.N. recognition to Kasavubu's chief rival, deposed Premier Patrice Lumumba.

The Credentials Committee had not been scheduled to meet until December on the Congo seating question. But it suddenly decided to act after Kasavubu, in a speech to the 99-nation assembly Tuesday appealed for the immediate seating of a delegation headed by himself.

The Credentials Committee is made up of Costa Rica, Haiti, Morocco, New Zealand, the Philippines, Spain, Soviet Union, the United Arab Republic and the United States. Only three of the nine nations—Russia, the U.A.R. and Morocco—are known supporters of Lumumba.

Kasavubu, in a 15-minute speech opening assembly debate on the Congo, said only the Congo's chief of state has the right to nominate the nation's representatives to the assembly.

To loud applause from most members except the Soviet bloc and the Asian-African group supporting Lumumba, Kasavubu said his delegation would include representatives of all Congolese factions, including the rebellious provinces of Katanga and Kasai.

Kasavubu said also that Foreign Minister Justin Bomboko, a leader of the technicians' government installed by army chief Col. Joseph Mobutu, would be the second-ranking member of his delegation. Bomboko accompanied Kasavubu here from Leopoldville. He was also foreign minister under Lumumba although the two never got along.

Puerto Rico Snubs Bishops To Give Gov. Marin Big Vote

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP)—Puerto Rico's predominately Roman Catholic voters rejected the instructions of their bishops and re-elected Gov. Luis Munoz Marin by a landslide in final unofficial returns today.

Munoz Marin, himself a Catholic, captured 456,317 votes to 325,757 for his three opponents. He won his fourth term as head of this U.S. commonwealth island.

The results of the record poll were a sharp rebuff to the island's three Roman Catholic bishops, who in pastoral letters had warned that a vote for Munoz Marin's Popular Democrats would be a sin because the party did not oppose birth control.

By re-electing Munoz Marin, the voters also approved Puerto Rico's continuance as a commonwealth under the American flag.

Luis Ferre, the Republican candidate, who campaigned for Puerto Rican statehood, was outdistanced almost 2-1. Ferre received 250,638 votes.

Salvador Perea, the Christian Action party candidate backed by the Catholic hierarchy, and Julio Garcia Diaz of the Independence party ran far behind.

Perea received 51,072 votes. Diaz, who campaigned for independence from the United States, got 24,047.

The legislature will continue to be dominated by the Popular Democrats, who have no official link with the mainland Democratic party. The Republicans are affiliated with the Republican party in the United States.

Puerto Rico, as a commonwealth, does not vote in the U.S. presidential elections. It also pays no U.S. taxes.

Better than 83 per cent of the 937,531 registered voters turned out to choose the governor and legislature. The island is 90 per cent Catholic.

Midland To Hold Patrolmen Tests

Midland Borough is accepting applications until next Wednesday at 4 p. m. for an examination for the position of borough patrolman to renew an eligibility list that has expired.

Benny Pultanovich, secretary of the Midland Police Civil Service Commission, said there are no openings now. The list is renewed each year to fill a vacancy should one occur.

Applications may be obtained at the police department in the Borough Building. They will be received in the office of the borough secretary each Monday through Friday between 10 a. m. and 4 p. m.

After applications are turned in, applicants will be told where to take the examination. It had been scheduled in Council Chambers Nov. 17 but a Planning Commission hearing will be held then.

Applicants must pass a satisfactory physical and medical examination before the written and oral tests will be given. American citizens over 21 and under 35 are eligible.

The Boston Bruins have four new hockey players — Billy Carter, Dallas Smith, Jimmy Bartlett and Orval Tessier.

Rural-Urban Day Open To Farmers

Farm men and women of the East Liverpool area are being invietd to participate in the Rural-Urban Day to be sponsored jointly by the Chamber of Commerce and the Rural-Urban committee of the Columbiana County Agricultural Council Nov. 16 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., according to Floyd Lower, county extension agent in agriculture.

The visitors will meet at the Community Parking Lot at 6th and Walnut Sts., ready to leave by bus at 10 a.m. The Harker Pottery Co. in Chester will be visited in the forenoon. The group will return to the Travelers Hotel at 12:30 for lunch when brief talks will be given on business developments in East Liverpool of interest to the group.

Following the luncheon, the party will tour the Golden Star Dairy plant to complete the day's event.

The Chamber is host to the group in return for the rural tour and meeting given last year by the farm people. This is the fourth year of the rural-urban relationship aimed at creating a better understanding of farm and city problems and programs, Lower said.

ORRVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Sign beside the road near here: Antiques —4 Miles Back.

West Virginia's Delegation In Next Congress To Be Same

CHARLESTON (AP) — West Virginia will have exactly the same delegation in the next Congress as in the last.

Democrat Jennings Randolph of Elkins was re-elected to the Senate yesterday to continue serving with holdover Democrat Robert C. Byrd. All six West Virginia incumbents in the House of Representatives — five Democrats and one Republican — were re-elected.

Randolph defeated Gov. Underwood, the Republicans' Senate nominee, by better than 110,000 votes. It will be the first full six-year Senate term for the 58-year-old Randolph.

He was first elected to the Senate in 1958 for the two years remaining of the term of the late Sen. Matthew M. Neely. Randolph represented the 2nd District in the House for 14 years (1933-47) before being defeated in his bid for an eighth term. He spent the next 11 years on the political sidelines as an airline executive.

The only House race that was even moderately close was in the 4th District, where Rep. Ken Hechler, Democrat, won a second term by defeating Republican Clyde B. Pinson, a fellow Huntington resident.

Unofficial Associated Press tabulations from 398 of the district's 432 precincts showed 69,657 for Hechler and 61,051 for Pinson.

In the 1st District, Rep. Arch A. Moore Jr. of Glen Dale, the only Republican incumbent from West Virginia, defeated Democrat Steven B. Narick, Moundsville lawyer and onetime West Virginia University football star. Moore's margin over Narick was running better than 20,000.

Democratic incumbents in the other four districts were re-elected by wide margins over their Republican rivals.

Syracuse won its first soccer game of the 1959 season then dropped its remaining eight games. The Orange beat Clarkson 2-1.

Family Management School Will Be Held

LISBON — A family management school for young couples of Columbiana County, both farm and non-farm, has been scheduled by the County Agricultural Extension Service to be held on six successive Thursday nights beginning Jan. 5.

Persons interested may enroll by contacting the extension service office in Lisbon.

Topics to be discussed will include planning for family expenditures and investments, problems in rearing of family and safeguarding the family's future. Advance enrollment is necessary to plan for the series, according to Floyd Lower, county extension agent.

As Nation's Representative

Seat In U.N. For Congo's President To Be Proposed

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —The U.N. Credentials Committee was expected to recommend today that Congo President Joseph Kasavubu be seated in the General Assembly as his chaotic young nation's representative.

Kasavubu still faced a battle in the General Assembly, which must approve the committee's action. The nine-nation Soviet bloc and at least eight Asian and African nations were spearheading a move to give U.N. recognition to Kasavubu's chief rival, deposed Premier Patrice Lumumba.

The Credentials Committee had not been scheduled to meet until December on the Congo seating question. But it suddenly decided to act after Kasavubu, in a speech to the 99-nation assembly Tuesday appealed for the immediate seating of a delegation headed by himself.

The Credentials Committee is made up of Costa Rica, Haiti, Morocco, New Zealand, the Philippines, Spain, Soviet Union, the United Arab Republic and the United States. Only three of the nine nations—Russia, the U.A.R. and Morocco—are known supporters of Lumumba.

Kasavubu, in a 15-minute speech opening assembly debate on the Congo, said only the Congo's chief of state has the right to nominate the nation's representatives to the assembly.

To loud applause from most members except the Soviet bloc and the Asian-African group supporting Lumumba, Kasavubu said his delegation would include representatives of all Congolese factions, including the rebellious provinces of Katanga and Kasai.

Kasavubu said also that Foreign Minister Justin Bomboko, a leader of the technicians' government installed by army chief Col. Joseph Mobutu, would be the second-ranking member of his delegation. Bomboko accompanied Kasavubu here from Leopoldville. He was also foreign minister under Lumumba although the two never got along.

Puerto Rico Snubs Bishops To Give Gov. Marin Big Vote

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP)— Puerto Rico's predominately Roman Catholic voters rejected the instructions of their bishops and re-elected Gov. Luis Munoz Marin by a landslide in final unofficial returns today.

Munoz Marin, himself a Catholic, captured 456,317 votes to 325,757 for his three opponents. He won his fourth term as head of this U.S. commonwealth island.

The results of the record poll were a sharp rebuff to the island's three Roman Catholic bishops, who in pastoral letters had warned that a vote for Munoz Marin's Popular Democrats would be a sin because the party did not oppose birth control.

By re-electing Munoz Marin, the voters also approved Puerto Rico's continuance as a commonwealth under the American flag.

Luis Ferre, the Republican candidate, who campaigned for Puerto Rican statehood, was outdistanced almost 2-1. Ferre received 250,638 votes.

Perea received 51,072 votes. Diaz, who campaigned for independence from the United States, got 24,047.

The legislature will continue to be dominated by the Popular Democrats, who have no official link with the mainland Democratic party. The Republicans are affiliated with the Republican party in the United States.

Puerto Rico, as a commonwealth, does not vote in the U.S. presidential elections. It also pays no U.S. taxes.

Better than 83 per cent of the 937,531 registered voters turned out to choose the governor and legislature. The island is 90 per cent Catholic.

Midland To Hold Patrolmen Tests

Midland Borough is accepting applications until next Wednesday at 4 p. m. for an examination for the position of borough patrolman to renew an eligibility list that has expired.

Benny Pultanovich, secretary of the Midland Police Civil Service Commission, said there are no openings now. The list is renewed each year to fill a vacancy should one occur.

Applications may be obtained at the police department in the Borough Building. They will be received in the office of the borough secretary each Monday through Friday between 10 a. m. and 4 p. m.

After applications are turned in, applicants will be told where to take the examination. It had been scheduled in Council Chambers Nov. 17 but a Planning Commission hearing will be held then.

Applicants must pass a satisfactory physical and medical examination before the written and oral tests will be given. American citizens over 21 and under 35 are eligible.

The Boston Bruins have four new hockey players — Billy Carter, Dallas Smith, Jimmy Bartlett and Orval Tessier.

Rural-Urban Day Open To Farmers

Farm men and women of the East Liverpool area are being invietd to participate in the Rural-Urban Day to be sponsored jointly by the Chamber of Commerce and the Rural-Urban committee of the Columbiana County Agricultural Council Nov. 16 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., according to Floyd Lower, county extension agent in agriculture.

The visitors will meet at the Community Parking Lot at 6th and Walnut Sts., ready to leave by bus at 10 a.m. The Harker Pottery Co. in Chester will be visited in the forenoon. The group will return to the Travelers Hotel at 12:30 for lunch when brief talks will be given on business developments in East Liverpool of interest to the group.

Following the luncheon, the party will tour the Golden Star Dairy plant to complete the day's event.

The Chamber is host to the group in return for the rural tour and meeting given last year by the farm people. This is the fourth year of the rural-urban relationship aimed at creating a better understanding of farm and city problems and programs, Lower said.

West Virginia's Delegation In Next Congress To Be Same

CHARLESTON (AP) — West Virginia will have exactly the same delegation in the next Congress as in the last.

Democrat Jennings Randolph of Elkins was re-elected to the Senate yesterday to continue serving with holdover Democrat Robert C. Byrd. All six West Virginia incumbents in the House of Representatives — five Democrats and one Republican — were re-elected.

Randolph defeated Gov. Underwood, the Republicans' Senate nominee, by better than 110,000 votes. It will be the first full six-year Senate term for the 58-year-old Randolph.

He was first elected to the Senate in 1958 for the two years remaining of the term of the late Sen. Matthew M. Neely. Randolph represented the 2nd District in the House for 14 years (1933-47) before being defeated in his bid for an eighth term. He spent the next 11 years on the political sidelines as an airline executive.

The only House race that was even moderately close was in the 4th District, where Rep. Ken Hechler, Democrat, won a second term by defeating Republican Clyde B. Pinson, a fellow Huntington resident.

Unofficial Associated Press tabulations from 398 of the district's 482 precincts showed 69,657 for Hechler and 61,051 for Pinson.

In the 1st District, Rep. Arch A. Moore Jr. of Glen Dale, the only Republican incumbent from West Virginia, defeated Democrat Steven B. Narick, Moundsville lawyer and onetime West Virginia University football star. Moore's margin over Narick was running better than 20,000.

Democratic incumbents in the other four districts were re-elected by wide margins over their Republican rivals.

Syracuse won its first soccer game of the 1959 season then dropped its remaining eight games. The Orange beat Clarkson 2-1.

Family Management School Will Be Held

LISBON — A family management school for young couples of Columbiana County, both farm and non-farm, has been scheduled by the County Agricultural Extension Service to be held on six successive Thursday nights beginning Jan. 5.

Persons interested may enroll by contacting the extension service office in Lisbon.

Topics to be discussed will include planning for family expenditures and investments, problems in rearing of family and safeguarding the family's future. Advance enrollment is necessary to plan for the series, according to Floyd Lower, county extension agent.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: We are a family of educated, middle-class people for whom grooming, gracious manners and correct grammar are a natural part of our lives.

A year ago our daughter married an amiable chap whose background is uncultured and whose education is limited. He frequently says "they have went" and "I don it."

I'm writing because of last night. In the presence of guests, he said, "I'm sorry I flang the bread. I shudda shoved it."

Lisa was aware of all this when she married him over our protest. She was sure she could teach him. Her theory was if a person is exposed to good manners and correct grammar he will pick them up.

My husband and I die a thousand deaths whenever we are among relatives and friends. The big oaf embarrasses us every time he opens his mouth.

We are not snobbish people, Ann, we only want to help this ignorant clod to fit into our life. How can we do it?—TEARFUL MOTHER-IN-LAW.

Dear Tearful: Accept the boy for what he is. It is doubtful that he's going to change. He's in the family now and you must do what you can to make him feel comfortable, for your daughter's sake.

Too much in-law pressure can be disastrous. It's your daughter's responsibility to help him improve his grammar (if she can). Really, it's not your problem.

Too Old For Teens

Dear Ann: My husband and I are 25 and have been married two years. We have a baby 3 weeks old.

Yesterday my husband's oldest sister phoned and asked him to take her daughter, age 17, to a very fancy teen-age hop. The girl's date cannot go because his grandmother died.

My husband eagerly accepted. Then he said to me, "I knew you wouldn't mind because you couldn't go out anyway—too soon after the baby."

I'm so bewildered and hurt I don't know what to do. I tried to hide my feelings but didn't succeed.

Please tell me if you think I'm jealous, narrow-minded or dumb.—RELATED SITTER.

Dear Sitter: A married man is out of place at a teen-age hop. His sister showed less than good judgment to ask him to take the girl—and he should not have accepted. Now that he has, however, forget it. But if it's any comfort, you're not dumb—he is.

Double Duty

Dear Ann: A very close friend of mine announced her engagement to a rather irresponsible fellow last year. I was invited to their wedding and sent a beautiful gift. It was engraved with her fiance's last initial.

The wedding was called off when the fellow ran into trouble with the law. His divorce was not legal and his wife appeared on the scene and made a big stink.

The girl sent back the wedding gifts but I could not return mine to the store because of the engraving, so I simply put it away.

The girl is now engaged to a swell fellow and I am invited to the wedding. His last initial is the same as the other guy's. Would it be proper to send that same gift?—DAISY.

Dear Daisy: I see nothing wrong with sending the same gift. If she has a sense of humor you might tell her it was darned considerate of her! If she hasn't a sense of humor, forget it.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Chester Girl Wins At Composition

Miss Reukauf, daughter of Eugene Reukauf of Indiana Ave., competed against nine others and will enter the Northern Panhandle contest, whose winner will be announced Thursday.

Nancy Brewer won second place and Sam Pipes third. Compositions were read over the high school public adress system and winners were selected by Mrs. Everett Chandler, Mrs. Carl Drum and Charles Morris.

The annual event is sponsored by the National Association of Broadcasters and the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Alabama hasn't beaten Tennessee in football since 1954. That year the score was 27-0.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. Have you any suggestions on the repair of leaking waterpipe joints?

A. Often you can effect a good repair without the necessity of taking the pipe apart, just by smearing the joint with any of several prepared pipe cements, which cost very little and are procurable at any hardware store.

Q. How can I improvise a good metal polish?

A. A stick of ordinary blackboard chalk proves a capable substitute for regular metal polish. Just rub a little soft-grade chalk onto a dry or damp cloth and apply to the metal surface. There is just enough abrasive quality to the chalk to remove dirt and grease without scratching and it leaves a nice glossy finish on the metal.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: We are a family of educated, middle-class people for whom grooming, gracious manners and correct grammar are a natural part of our lives.

A year ago our daughter married an amiable chap whose background is uncultured and whose education is limited. He frequently says "they have went" and "i don it."

I'm writing because of last night. In the presence of guests, he said, "I'm sorry I flang the bread. I shudda shoved it."

Lisa was aware of all this when she married him over our protest. She was sure she could teach him. Her theory was if a person is exposed to good manners and correct grammar he will pick them up.

My husband and I die a thousand deaths whenever we are among relatives and friends. The big oaf embarrasses us every time he opens his mouth.

We are not snobbish people, Ann, we only want to help this ignorant clod to fit into our life. How can we do it?—TEARFUL MOTHER-IN-LAW.

Dear Tearful: Accept the boy for what he is. It is doubtful that he's going to change. He's in the family now and you must do what you can to make him feel comfortable, for your daughter's sake.

Too much in-law pressure can be disastrous. It's your daughter's responsibility to help him improve his grammar (if she can). Really, it's not your problem.

Too Old For Teens

Dear Ann: My husband and I are 25 and have been married two years. We have a baby 3 weeks old.

Yesterday my husband's oldest sister phoned and asked him to take her daughter, age 17, to a very fancy teen-age hop. The girl's date cannot go because his grandmother died.

My husband eagerly accepted. Then he said to me, "I knew you wouldn't mind because you couldn't go out anyway—too soon after the baby."

I'm so bewildered and hurt I don't know what to do. I tried to hide my feelings but didn't succeed.

Please tell me if you think I'm jealous, narrow-minded or dumb.—RELATED SITTER.

Dear Sitter: A married man is out of place at a teen-age hop. His sister showed less than good judgment to ask him to take the girl—and he should not have accepted. Now that he has, however, forget it. But if it's any comfort, you're not dumb—he is.

Double Duty

Dear Ann: A very close friend of mine announced her engagement to a rather irresponsible fellow last year. I was invited to their wedding and sent a beautiful gift. It was engraved with her fiance's last initial.

The wedding was called off when the fellow ran into trouble with the law. His divorce was not legal and his wife appeared on the scene and made a big stink.

The girl sent back the wedding gifts but I could not return mine to the store because of the engraving, so I simply put it away.

The girl is now engaged to a swell fellow and I am invited to the wedding. His last initial is the same as the other guy's. Would it be proper to send that same gift?—DAISY.

Dear Daisy: I see nothing wrong with sending the same gift. If she has a sense of humor you might tell her it was darned considerate of her! If she hasn't a sense of humor, forget it.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Chester Girl Wins At Composition

Miss Reukauf, daughter of Eugene Reukauf of Indiana Ave., competed against nine others and will enter the Northern Panhandle contest, whose winner will be announced Thursday.

Nancy Brewer won second place and Sam Pipes third. Compositions were read over the high school public adress system and winners were selected by Mrs. Everett Chandler, Mrs. Carl Drum and Charles Morris.

The annual event is sponsored by the National Association of Broadcasters and the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Alabama hasn't beaten Tennessee in football since 1954. That year the score was 27-0.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. Have you any suggestions on the repair of leaking waterpipe joints?

A. Often you can effect a good repair without the necessity of taking the pipe apart, just by smearing the joint with any of several prepared pipe cements, which cost very little and are procurable at any hardware store.

Q. How can I improvise a good metal polish?

A. A stick of ordinary blackboard chalk proves a capable substitute for regular metal polish. Just rub a little soft-grade chalk onto a dry or damp cloth and apply to the metal surface. There is just enough abrasive quality to the chalk to remove dirt and grease without scratching and it leaves a nice glossy finish on the metal.

Compliments Have Tonic Effect On Dieter

Oh, the tonic effect of a compliment while you are reducing! To hear, "You're looking slimmer," can keep you happy for weeks and enthusiastically on your regime. Dieters, stretch to slim your waist and take measures to improve your posture as you slim down and you will hear compliments.

By Ida Jean Kain

On the strength of the new figure you're cutting, stand proudly instead of settling for the slump. A "settled" posture gives the impression of weightiness and bulk. On the other hand, by standing beautifully you can look — and feel — pounds slimmer.

From the psychological angle, the figure improvement effects of good posture are particularly important for beginning dieters. As you know, it's the very dickens to change food habits, and those first few weeks of trying to cut appetite down to size are a challenge.

UNHAPPILY, WHEN the dieting is toughest, there are as yet no tangible rewards to help you feel the effort is worth the while. Do something quick! Make a spirited effort to "slim" your posture the very week you begin a diet.

It's not unlikely a friend will comment favorably on your appearance. In short, improving your posture can bring forth praise when it is urgently needed.

So — pull slim through the middle, forcing the middle muscles to take the action. This will give your figure a lift. Keep your shoulders relaxed and at ease. Lifting the shoulders makes for tension, not streamlines.

Hold your head proudly, with that line at the back of the neck almost straight. Never forget, style is the way you carry your head. An added bonus is that regal head carriage firms the chinline.

Daily stretch - bends can be wonderfully rewarding. The very day you start whittling the waist you'll feel slimmer! Moreover, rhythm slimmers can do as much for the mind as for the muscles. Turn on a tune, arch arms overhead, ballerina style, then stretch up, pulling the waist away from the hips and the ribs away from the waist...bending to alternate sides.

To put bracing tone in the girdle muscles, you will need to take some strongly contractive exercises. The following is my favorite for toning abdominals and straightening posture.

MOVEMENT: Flex right knee to chest as both arms are circled around on floor overhead. Return foot to bench and swing arms straight down to sides.

Continue bending alternate knees and circling arms. Keep arms on floor as you circle, and pull up-and-in strongly with girdle muscles.

Send a long, self - addressed, stamped envelope for "Get A Lift With Posture." Address your request to Ida Jean Kain, in care of this newspaper. Postcard requests cannot be answered.

Magazine Sale Seen Lagging

A tremendous surge will be required in the final report today to meet the goal of $6,000 in the annual magazine sale being conducted by East Liverpool High School students.

Sales reported Tuesday reached $996 to bring the total for 7 days to $2,909, which school authorities said is "far less" than was anticipated.

Marvin Feldman won the $5 cash prize as the top salesman by reporting $142. Other leading salesmen were Bruce Weiner, $121; Kathy Kaufman, $60, and Lloyd Watson, $33.

Miss Mary Anna Lindsey's room won a candy bar party for reaching the $300 goal yesterday while an ice cream party was won by Mrs. Patricia Steele's room.

Rooms reaching the $100 goal yesterday and winning candy bar parties were those taught by Mrs. Grace Brown, Mrs. Laura Ashbaugh, Mrs. Ruth Earl, Mrs. Steele and Miss Isabel Clouse.

The other top rooms by classes were:

Seniors — Miss Mary Underwood, 961 points; Miss Clouse, 419; Mrs. Ashbaugh, 369; juniors—Robert Hedmond, 910; Mrs. Steele, 619, and Miss Carol Hand, 327, and sophomores — Mrs. Earl, 363, and Harold Bricker, 309.

Proceeds will go toward the expenses of the Junior-Senior prom, visual aid program and other student activities.

Five capital prizes ranging from $50 to $20 will be awarded the top individual salesmen while the room will win steak dinners for two.

Road Crews Get Ready For Winter

The Division 11 office of the State Highway Department said a recent inspection shows the seven-county area is prepared to provide ice and snow control this winter.

The inspection covered all equipment needed for maintaining highways in accordance with a "Bare Roads" policy for the winter months. Trucks and snowplows were found in good mechanical shape. Lights and cinder and salt spreaders were also rated in very good condition at each of the division's county garages.

Division Deputy Director William P. McKenna noted that since the inspection a considerable number of new snow plows have been delivered. Snow fences are being placed with delivery expected soon on additional new fence. Cinders and chemicals are being delivered. Stockpiles of these items are now sufficient for anticipated immediate needs.

A 24 hour radio service will be maintained, beginning Nov. 15, between the division office in New Philadelphia and the county garages and maintenance vehicles.

U. S. Weather Bureau reports will be issued by the operator as they are transmitted from Columbus. This will enable road patrols to be maintained day and night when storms and icy conditions threaten.

Parents Attend College 'Dad-Daughter' Dinner

Leland Pittenger gave the toast to the daughters and Miss Judy Pittenger offered the one for the fathers. A band concert followed.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Pittenger of Blackmore St., Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dawson of Mayberry Ln, for their daughter, Debbie Dawson, and W. F. McWhorter of Curry St., for his daughter, Bonnie McWhorter.

Reverses Trend, Cuyahoga Passes Most Bond Issues

CLEVELAND (AP)— Reversing a trend of recent years, Cleveland and Cuyahoga County voters Tuesday approved almost all bond issues.

In Cleveland, where a 55 per cent affirmative vote was needed for passage, voters gave more than 60 per cent support to a $10 million issue for expansion of Public Auditorium; $3 million for two urban renewal projects; and $4 million for harbor and Burke Lakefront Airport improvements.

In the county, also with 55 per cent needed for approval, voters passed a bond issue for grade separations for Cleveland Hopkins Airport and extension of the rapid transit to the airport.

One levy apparently defeated by voters was a levy to transfer control of the Cleveland Zoo from the city to the county. But the same voters were casting ballots to approve a .084-mill Cleveland Metropolitan Park District operating levy.

Cleveland city voters also gave endorsement to two school levies —one for operating and the other for building. Both led by 3-1 margins, and only a simple majority was needed.

Lincoln PTA Sees School Need Film

A film, "Our Schools In the 60's," was shown at the meeting of the Lincoln Parent-Teacher Association Monday night when American Education Week was observed.

Jud English screened the film, concerning the series of conferences on school needs which will culminate in the White House Conference.

During business conducted by Ralph Compa, president, a donation of $50 was made to the Child Counseling Center and $20 authorized for each teacher to spend on whatever room supplies are needed.

Devotions on "Thanksgiving" were conducted by Mrs. Donald Ogilvie and the attendance award was won by Mrs. Esther Thomas' Room 1-B and Mrs. Beryl Lightner's Room 5-A.

Some 45 attended.

C. L. Doty Takes Over Cincinnati Radio Post

CINCINNATI (AP)—C. L. Doty has taken over as vice president and general manager of Cincinnati's radio station WSAI. He succeeds Howard Eicher who resigned for what he said were personal reasons.

Doty, formerly associated with several New York stations, has been national sales director for WSAI. The station is owned by Consolidated Sun Ray Inc., of Philadelphia.

Spanking Effective In Teaching Safety

News, safety news of saving little children's lives! The American Academy of Pediatrics has come out approving spanking as a means of teaching safety to the tot. Some of us have supposed we never would live long enough to read or hear such news! Prepared by the Accident Prevention Committee of the American Academy of Pediatrics (association of baby doctors) is a new bulletin, "Obedience Means Safety for Your Child", to be had free from the American Academy of Pediatrics, Evanston, Illinois.

Dr. Garry Meyers

To quote: "The prick of a pin, a kitten's scratch, a broken dish, a bruise or bump — some such natural consequence of disobedience may make a child hesitate to repeat a performance. But when nothing happens, as is often and happily the case, you will do well to render punishment of some kind.

—:—

"WHAT KIND of punishment does not matter as long as it serves to influence future behavior. A spanking is quick, often effective."

You who have read this column for many years, know that I have been consistently entreating parents to employ pain to teach the tot, as soon as he can move about under his own steam, to avoid certain specific known dangers as the first and essential step in keeping him whole and alive.

Hundreds of thousands of young parents have written for my free pamphlets, "The First Steps in Safety" and "How To Teach Tot the Meaning of No", written many years ago.

The foregoing quotation is somewhat similar to the following, which appeared in my book, "The Modern Parent", published in 1930:

"Life provides its punishments. No one escapes always. The child will be punished by the natural consequences of his own acts. But such punishment may be delayed indefinitely and may be very costly. The penalty may be a leg, or hand, or eye or a life.

"WE PARENTS, knowing more than the child, can step in and provide pain which will teach the little child to avoid specific dangers. We can provide harmless pain which will save him from natural punishments that are often very much more costly.

"Is it not better that a little child should have a good burning spank than that his body should be burned by a conflagration or that he should be ruined for a lifetime by pulling down upon his head a pot of boiling liquid or that he should be crushed by a passing motor car?

"It is all very well to urge adults to prevent dangers to little children, but these children can be made much safer still if, through pain properly applied, they learn always to avoid certain dangers.

Awards Presented Hancock Members Of 4-H At 'School'

Spanking Effective In Teaching Safety

News, safety news of saving little children's lives! The American Academy of Pediatrics has come out approving spanking as a means of teaching safety to the tot. Some of us have supposed we never would live long enough to read or hear such news! Prepared by the Accident Prevention Committee of the American Academy of Pediatrics (association of baby doctors) is a new bulletin, "Obedience Means Safety for Your Child", to be had free from the American Academy of Pediatrics, Evanston, Illinois.

Dr. Garry Meyers

To quote: "The prick of a pin, a kitten's scratch, a broken dish, a bruise or bump — some such natural consequence of disobedience may make a child hesitate to repeat a performance. But when nothing happens, as is often and happily the case, you will do well to render punishment of some kind.

—:—

"WHAT KIND of punishment does not matter as long as it serves to influence future behavior. A spanking is quick, often effective."

You who have read this column for many years, know that I have been consistently entreating parents to employ pain to teach the tot, as soon as he can move about under his own steam, to avoid certain specific known dangers as the first and essential step in keeping him whole and alive.

Hundreds of thousands of young parents have written for my free pamphlets, "The First Steps in Safety" and "How To Teach Tot the Meaning of No", written many years ago.

The foregoing quotation is somewhat similar to the following, which appeared in my book, "The Modern Parent", published in 1930:

"Life provides its punishments. No one escapes always. The child will be punished by the natural consequences of his own acts. But such punishment may be delayed indefinitely and may be very costly. The penalty may be a leg, or hand, or eye or a life.

"WE PARENTS, knowing more than the child, can step in and provide pain which will teach the little child to avoid specific dangers. We can provide harmless pain which will save him from natural punishments that are often very much more costly.

"Is it not better that a little child should have a good burning spank than that his body should be burned by a conflagration or that he should be ruined for a lifetime by pulling down upon his head a pot of boiling liquid or that he should be crushed by a passing motor car?

"It is all very well to urge adults to prevent dangers to little children, but these children can be made much safer still if, through pain properly applied, they learn always to avoid certain dangers.

Godfrey Has An Operation

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. Arthur Godfrey, the original "indestructible man," soaked up the life-blooming element of this "sunny clime" over the weekend before keeping a second hospital date in 20 months.

Marie Torre

It is conceivable — nay, it is a certainty — that he will look far healthier than the doctors and attendants who will care for him during the hospital sojourn for what is described as "minor surgery" — removal of a fatty tumor from the right side, below the armpit.

The medical experts hold that there is "no indication of any relationship with the lobectomy" he underwent in April 1959, when part of his left lung was removed in a cancer operation.

IN OTHER WORDS, the prognosis augurs a rapid recovery, and Godfrey's manifold activities under the sun over the weekend attested to the faith he's placed in what the doctors say.

He was, as usual, the carefree, sports - loving Godfrey. He went boating in choppy Atlantic waters with a small party that included his wife, Mary, and daughter, Pat. He fished, swam, played cards, indulged in small talk, laughed heartily and easily.

It had been his hope to conceal word of the operation even from his family, but the news leaked out last Friday and it was then that he revealed to us, without evidence of fear or concern, news of the operation.

IT WAS GODFREY'S decision to delay the operation 10 days so he would have time to tape radio shows through Monday, at which time he expects to return to work without interruption of his regularly scheduled CBS radio shows and weekly "Candid Camera" program.

Two other reasons for the delay were (1) his desire to vote and (2) his wish for a weekend with the family.

Godspeed, Arthur!

PERRY COMO will enjoy the distinction, as of late this month, of having the only important American variety program to be seen on British television (BBC) . . .

The durable Don McNeill ("Breakfast Club") and the American Broadcasting Co. have entered into a new pact running through 1965. McNeill's morning klatsch, incidentally, is in its 27th year and is the oldest show on network radio, now that "Ma Perkins" has been put to rest. . .

The timely "CBS Reports" will document the hardships of life on the Chinese Nationalist - held islands of Quemoy and Matsu during sporadic shelling by the Chinese Communists in a program early next year. Ed Murrow will narrate. . .

A repeat of the TV version of "Harvey," a 1958 show which failed to fire our enthusiams, will be repeated on "Show of the Month" Dec. 13.

WHAT'S WRONG with educational TV? A University of Michigan professor pinpoints the trouble with amazing accuracy.

"Not all of us are yet willing to admit," said speech professor Edward Stasheff, "that much of what is called educational television today is really televised instruction—the turning of a camera on a teacher who then proceeds to do just what he would in the classroom.

"This is not making proper use of the medium . . . We must face the fact that TV cannot do the job alone. It (TV) must be understood, planned for, and used with competence and discernment."

West Virginia Ratifies Three Amendments

CHARLESTON (AP) — West Virginians today had three new amendments to their state constitution, including one affirming their faith in, and reliance upon, God.

The three were ratified by margins of between two and three to one in Tuesday's general election, and — according to other constitutional language — "shall be in force from the time of such ratification. . ."

The reference to God is in a new preamble to the constitution and recognizes that "through Divine Providence we enjoy the blessings of civil, political and religious liberty."

Another amendment empowers the legislature to take any action it might deem necessary for the continuity of local and state governmental operations in time of such emergency as an enemy attack.

The third is a procedural one. It specifically will permit revision of more than one constitutional section or article dealing with a single subject, or to related matters, with a single future amendment.

The procedural proposal was put on the ballot for ratification after some had questioned, after passage of the Better Schools Amendment two years ago, whether it properly could change more than one constitutional section.

Returns also from 1,834 precincts showed a 141,213 to 66,272 - vote approval for the procedural change.

That involving continuity of government drew a favorable vote of 148,254 to 58,297 in 1,834 precincts.

2 IN MEMORIAM

IN loving memory of our father, Ray Estell, who died 4 years ago today, Nov. 9th:
Loving and kind in all ways, Upright and just to the end of his days, Sincere and kind in heart and mind, What a beautiful memory he left behind.
From his loving daughters: Dorothy, Edith and Bonnie.

IN memoriam of Roy D. Mellott, passed away 1 year, November 9, 1953. He bade none a last farewell. He said goodby to none. The Heavenly gates had opened, a lovely voice said come and with farewell unspoken, He gently entered home, our dear husband and daddy sleeps in silence. We not disturb his rest, sad and lonely are the hearts of those who loved him best.
Loving Wife, Diana & Children

Out Of The Air

By MARIE TORRE

Godfrey Has An Operation

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. Arthur Godfrey, the original "indestructible man," soaked up the life-blooming element of this "sunny clime" over the weekend before keeping a second hospital date in 20 months.

Marie Torre

It is conceivable — nay, it is a certainty — that he will look far healthier than the doctors and attendants who will care for him during the hospital sojourn for what is described as "minor surgery" — removal of a fatty tumor from the right side, below the armpit.

The medical experts hold that there is "no indication of any relationship with the lobectomy" he underwent in April 1959, when part of his left lung was removed in a cancer operation.

IN OTHER WORDS, the prognosis augurs a rapid recovery, and Godfrey's manifold activities under the sun over the weekend attested to the faith he's placed in what the doctors say.

He was, as usual, the carefree, sports - loving Godfrey. He went boating in choppy Atlantic waters with a small party that included his wife, Mary, and daughter, Pat. He fished, swam, played cards, indulged in small talk, laughed heartily and easily.

It had been his hope to conceal word of the operation even from his family, but the news leaked out last Friday and it was then that he revealed to us, without evidence of fear or concern, news of the operation.

IT WAS GODFREY'S decision to delay the operation 10 days so he would have time to tape radio shows through Monday, at which time he expects to return to work without interruption of his regularly scheduled CBS radio shows and weekly "Candid Camera" program.

Two other reasons for the delay were (1) his desire to vote and (2) his wish for a weekend with the family.

Godspeed, Arthur!

PERRY COMO will enjoy the distinction, as of late this month, of having the only important American variety program to be seen on British television (BBC) . . .

The durable Don McNeill ("Breakfast Club") and the American Broadcasting Co. have entered into a new pact running through 1965. McNeill's morning klatsch, incidentally, is in its 27th year and is the oldest show on network radio, now that "Ma Perkins" has been put to rest. . .

The timely "CBS Reports" will document the hardships of life on the Chinese Nationalist - held islands of Quemoy and Matsu during sporadic shelling by the Chinese Communists in a program early next year. Ed Murrow will narrate. . .

A repeat of the TV version of "Harvey," a 1958 show which failed to fire our enthusiams, will be repeated on "Show of the Month" Dec. 13.

WHAT'S WRONG with educational TV? A University of Michigan professor pinpoints the trouble with amazing accuracy.

"Not all of us are yet willing to admit," said speech professor Edward Stasheff, "that much of what is called educational television today is really televised instruction—the turning of a camera on a teacher who then proceeds to do just what he would in the classroom.

"This is not making proper use of the medium . . . We must face the fact that TV cannot do the job alone. It (TV) must be understood, planned for, and used with competence and discernment."

Ohio 5-Day Forecast

Temperatures will average 3-6 degrees below normal. Normal high 50 north to 52 south, normal low 35. Only minor day-to-day changes in temperatures. Precipitation will average one-half to three-quarters inch as occasional showers or snow flurries throughout the period.

Woman Votes, Dies

CINCINNATI (AP)—Mrs. Julia Yates, 65, cast her vote in the election Tuesday, then collapsed and died a few minutes later. Mrs. Yates was stricken as she walked up steps to the porch at her home as she returned from the polls.

Engagement Told For Lisbon Girl To Resident Of Minerva

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Shaw of Lisbon R. D. 4 have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Sandra Ilene Shaw, to Garth R. French, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold French of Minerva.

Miss Shaw, a 1958 graduate of Lisbon High School, is employed as a deputy clerk in the office of Columbiana County commissioners.

Her fiance attended Minerva High School, served three years in the Army, including two years in Hawaii, and works at the Republic Steel Corp. at Massillon.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Past Chief Club Meets

The Past Chiefs Club met Monday night at the Pythias Temple with Mrs. Kenneth Hult and Mrs. Forest McClintock hostesses.

Scoring honors at 500 went to Mrs. Charles Mitchell and Mrs. James Berry.

The next meeting will be a Christmas party Dec. 5 when the group will go out for dinner and hold a gift exchange.

Mrs. Charles Pike of Prospect St. was hostess to the Monday Club.

Mrs. R. V. Parry, president, conducted business and Miss Dorothy Cameron had the program and told the story of San Simeon.

Roll call response was a "Pet Antipathy."

Plans were made to attend the combined Christmas dinner and party at which time the club will lead devotions.

Next Session Nov. 21

The Coterie met Monday night with Mrs. Guy Fuhrman of N. Market St. with 22 present.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster Shattuck were guests and he showed pictures of trips taken by them, particularly of the New England coast. Lunch was served by the hostess.

Sixteen members of the auxiliary of American Legion Post attended the "Holiday Cooking" demonstration held by the County Council Monday night at the Ohio Fuel Gas Co. in Salem.

Mrs. Carl Morgan, president, presided for business and announcement was made the next meeting will be Nov. 15 in East Liverpool.

The Christmas party will be held Dec. 3 and in lieu of a gift exchange, the money will be turned over for the "Gifts for the Yanks Who Gave" fund. Members will also bring canned goods for Christmas baskets for the needy. Members will provide table service and officers will serve a turkey dinner.

The Gamma Nu Chapter of the Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority will hold an "idea exchange" for the next meeting Nov. 17 with Mrs. Clayton Hunter.

Airman 3C Robert Downs was to leave today for California for duty in Japan after spending a furlough with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Carlisle, of W. Chestnut St. A family party was held Sunday night as a farewell.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Bailey of the Lisbon-Salem Rd. entertained at a family dinner Sunday in honor of their son-in-law, Robert Ewing, of Tucson, Ariz., who arrived Saturday for a visit. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ewing, of Gavers were among guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Farrell of Doylestown are parents of a daughter, Linda Mae, born Nov. 2, in Citizens Hospital at Barberton. Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Farrell of Churchhill Rd. are the paternal grandparents.

A daughter, Cindy Lou, was born Nov. 8 at the Central Clinic Hospital in Salem to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Dailey of Salem R. D. 3. Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Dailey of the Lisbon-Salem Rd. are the paternal grandparents.

Mrs. Homer Browne and son, Eddie, of E. Lincoln Way have returned from a visit with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. Lynn Browne, of Virginia Beach, Va. They are parents of a daughter, Debbie Marie, born Oct. 25. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Homer Browne and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Adamotis of Pine St.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Willett and sons, Lee Allen and David, of Bay Village spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Shattuck, of E. Pine St.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Feylock of Hubbard visited Lisbon relatives Sunday.

West Virginia Ratifies Three Amendments

CHARLESTON (AP) — West Virginians today had three new amendments to their state constitution, including one affirming their faith in, and reliance upon, God.

The three were ratified by margins of between two and three to one in Tuesday's general election, and — according to other constitutional language — "shall be in force from the time of such ratification. . ."

The reference to God is in a new preamble to the constitution and recognizes that "through Divine Providence we enjoy the blessings of civil, political and religious liberty."

Another amendment empowers the legislature to take any action it might deem necessary for the continuity of local and state governmental operations in time of such emergency as an enemy attack.

The third is a procedural one. It specifically will permit revision of more than one constitutional section or article dealing with a single subject, or to related matters, with a single future amendment.

The procedural proposal was put on the ballot for ratification after some had questioned, after passage of the Better Schools Amendment two years ago, whether it properly could change more than one constitutional section.

Returns also from 1,834 precincts showed a 141,213 to 66,272 - vote approval for the procedural change.

36 Governors Await Brazil, Argentina Trip

WASHINGTON (AP) — Governors of 33 states and 3 U.S. territories plan to leave New York Saturday on a goodwill trip to Argentina and Brazil.

The Argentine Embassy said today the chief executives and their wives expect to return Nov. 28 after meeting with the presidents and other government leaders of the two host nations.

The governors also plan to talk with business men, farmers, industrialists and labor leaders.

The embassy said governors of the following states and territories will make the trip: Arizona, California, Colorado, Delaware, Georgia, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Maine, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, North Carolina, North Dakota, Oklahoma Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, South Dakota, Utah, Vermont, Washington, West Virginia, Wyoming, Guam, Samoa and the Virgin Islands.

2 To Attend Meeting

2 IN MEMORIAM

IN loving memory of our father, Ray Estell, who died 4 years ago today, Nov. 9th:
Loving and kind in all ways, Upright and just to the end of his days, Sincere and kind in heart and mind, What a beautiful memory he left behind.
From his loving daughters: Dorothy, Edith and Bonnie.

IN memoriam of Roy D. Mellott, passed away 1 year, November 9, 1953. He bade none a last farewell. He said goodby to none. The Heavenly gates had opened, a lovely voice said come and with farewell unspoken, He gently entered home, our dear husband and daddy sleeps in silence. We not disturb his rest, sad and lonely are the hearts of those who loved him best.

Quota Project Reports Given

Project reports were given at the luncheon meeting of the Quota Club Tuesday at Travelers Hotel. Some 20 attended.

Dr. Edith Gilmore, ways and means chairman, reported on the sale of tea towels, fruit cake and peanut crunch candy. Mrs. Dorothy Horsley asked that tax stamps be turned in as she is planning to send them in.

Miss Mildred McGregor, who does the scheduling, and Miss Phyllis Crook, the receptionist, reported on the Hearing and Speech Clinic held every Saturday morning at Westgate School.

Miss Justine Miller, president, conducted business. Reports were read by Mrs. Eleanor Boice, secretary, and Mrs. Irma McGarey, treasurer.

A letter of thanks was read from Miss Mytrle Finnie, recently awarded an honorary membership.

The attendance committee was instructed to advise members that luncheon reservations must be honored unless canceled in the forenoon.

Mrs. May Hartt will speak on "Tax Problems of Women" for the meeting Nov. 22 with Mrs. Ruth Cox Turner of Pyramus St., Chester. Dr. Gilmore, Mrs. Ellen McDonald and Mrs. Ola Weaver will be associate hostesses. A board meeting will precede at 7 o clock.

The American Institute of Laundering states that 80 per cent of men's clothing is purchased by women. Retailers of men's clothing put about 85 per cent of their ad budgets into newspapers because they know that the favorite section of the newspaper with women is advertising.

Delightful Menu Hit For A Healthy Appetite

For a delightful post climax to an evening of fun and frolic invite the gang over for an informal supper.

And for just such occasions, here is a delicious — but simple — menu to please all, including the cook.

With the exception of the rice and coffee, the other items, may be prepared well in advance. As for these, they're a "cinch" to fix when you use packages pre-cooked rice and instant coffee.

Creamed Lobster With Rice

1 1-3 cups packaged pre-cooked rice
½ teaspoon salt
1 1-3 cups boiling water
1 can condensed cream of mushroom soups
½ cup milk
1 cup (6 ounce can) lobster, drained and flaked
Dash of pepper

Add packaged pre-cooked rice and salt to boiling water in saucepan. Mix just to moisten all rice. Cover and remove from heat. Let stand 5 minutes.

Meanwhile, combine soup and milk in suacepan. Heat, stirring occasionally. Add lobster and pepper. Mix and heat thoroughly. Arrange rice in serving dish and top wih the creamed lobster. Makes 4 to 5 servings.

Foursome Vegetable Salad

1 package (3 ounces) lemon-flavored gelatin
½ teaspoon salt
1 cup boiling water
1 cup cold water
1½ to 2 tablespoons vinegar
½ teaspoon grated onion
½ cup diced celery
¼ cup chopped green pepper
1 cup diced cucumber

Dissolve gelatin and salt in boiling water. Add cold water, vinegar, and grated onion. Chill until slightly thickened. Then fold in remaining ingredients. Pour into individual molds or a 1-quart mold. Chill until firm. Unmold on crisp lettuce. Serve with mayonnaise. Makes 6 servings.

For the first seven months of 1960, run-of-paper color advertising linage in newspapers topped that of the same period in 1959 by 20 per cent.

Marimba Player Entertains Club

Selections on the marimba were presented by Miss Arlene Colyer of Steubenville at the Rotary Club's meeting Tuesday afternoon in the Travelers Hotel.

The half-hour program was highlighted by Miss Colyer's novelty number of "Glowworm," when she used an illuminated puppet to simulate her performance of striking the notes.

The rapid speed with which she played the instrument was illustrated by use of two playing sticks with lighted ends which traced patterns in the darkness. The song was played at the rate of 15 notes per second, she said.

Other novelty numbers included "Bubbles," during which real bubbles floated through the room, and a humorous version of "Pop Goes the Weazel." Group singing marked some selections.

For their newspapers, people in the U. S. and Canada spent $3,056,000 a day, $31,960,000 a week, $1,661,931,000 a year.

Farmers To Take Part In Week's Observance

LISBON — Galen Greenisen, president of the Columbiana County Farm Bureau Federation, said members plan to take an active part in the observance of Farm-City Week Nov. 18-24.

Ohio farmers are launching an all-out campaign to develop better understanding between agriculture and those making their living in other occupations.

Some 30,000 farm men and women will be discussing the topic, "How Can Farmers Work More Effectively With Others?", in the nearly 1,600 Farm Bureau Advisory Councils, Greenisen said.

Greenisen said many of the farm discussion groups have already made plans to have a city family meet with their Advisory Council, while others are planning visits or tours to the city.

You can season a hardwood plank to be used for broiling by brushing it with unsalted fat and heating it in a slow (250 degrees) oven about an hour. Allow the plank to cool at room temperature before using.
